FIREMEN'S BENEFIT SHOW NEXT MONDAY TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

"Hip Hip Hooray" With Cast Of Over 100 People To Be Seen In Novel Performance—Many Unique Features On Program—Professional Producers In Charge.

"Hip Hip Hooray," Chestertown's big novelty show, which is being given as a benefit for the Chestertown Fire Company, is to be presented at the Lyceum Theatre, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week, May 4, 5 and 6, with a cast of over 100 of Chestertown's best singers, dancers and comedians and judging from the interest shown about town, and the large advance sale of tickets, three capacity houses will greet the local players in the big novelty show.

The show has been in preparation for some time under the direction o the Wheeler Producing Company professional producers, who have staged very successful shows in all the largest coast cities, and an entertainment of the highest order is assured. "Hip Hip Hooray" is entirely different from the usual home talent show, being a big Minstrel-Musical Revue in five big scenes.

One of the big hits of the revue is sure to be made by the children, over 50 of the little folks, ranging from 4 to 12 years of age, appearing in a big Mother Goose fantasy, entitled "The Birthday Party,' the children impersonating the characters familiar to Mother Goose rhymes. In this scene Lucille Rasin appears as the Little Hostess, Betty Thibodeau, as the Good Fairy, Mrs. Merrick Clements as Mother Goose, Miss Harriette Welch as The Old Woman Who Lived In The Shoe; Alice Marion Sterling. as Red Riding Hood; Lewis Hess, as Boy Blue; Frank Gardner and Charlotte Price, as Jack and Jill; Mary Godfrey Rogers. as Bo-Peep; Angelina Nigro, as Mary Quite Contrary; Eleanor Russell, as Miss Muffett, and Margaret Ann Turner, as Golden Locks; also large groups of little tots as fairies, part guests, clowns and children of the Old Lady Who Lived In The Shoe.

Numbers by the adults include several unique offerings, each scene being in a special setting. The "Kiss-Me-Dolls," is a singing and dancing number by the following young ladies: Soloist, Kathryn Ford, the girls; Nancy Jean Usilton, Margaret Cooper, Dorothy Pennington, Louise Simpers, Helen Coleman, Kathrpn Shakespeare. Emily Jewell and Margaret Russell.

"My Dream Girls," a feature number of the revue, in an electric setting, has as soloists: Miss Helen Connelly and Mr. Dan Hall, assisted by the following young ladies as the dream girls: the Misses Anna Perkins, Virginia Jones, Helen Simpers Dorothy Woodall, Gladys Worrell Elizabeth Dukes, Cora McWhorter and Mrs. Richard Carvil.

"Limehouse Nights," is a story of old Chinatown, the scene opening with an artistic Chinese dance by the Mah Jong ballet, followed by an unusual offering, with several principles, in a characteristic dance, entitled. "The Dance of Death." Soloists in this scene are: Miss Dorothy Shriver, as the Chinese girl; Mr. Vernon Kirby as the Chinaman, and Mr. Jimmie Gavin, as the American visitor to the tea house, with the Misses Mary S Power, Elizabeth Culp, Ann Welch Cornelia Davis, Kathryn Wright Anna Cook Coleman, Elizabeth Richardson, Margaret Rasin, Mesdame Roland Corey and Barber Bartley, in the Mah Jong ballet.

The comedy end of the program will be taken care of by the "Hip Hip Hooray" Minstrels, featuring four of our best known comedians as end men, several well known soloists, a double quartette, and a large chorus of our best singers in the latest Broadway song hits. The end men will be Eddie Keenan, Clarence Newcomb, Phil Sewell and H. S. Russell and this quartette of funsters are sure to give a good account of themselves. The double quartette is composed of the following: Messrs. T. W. Perkins, L. R. Carroll, John Barnes, T. D. Bowers, J. H. Thompson Roy Woodland, A. L. Sparks and Julian Coleman. Single quartette: Messrs. Julian Coleman. Norman Graves, Price Rolph and Phil Sewell with the following as soloists: Messrs. L. R. Carroll, Roy Woodland, Norman Graves, Dan Hall, Ross Stavely.

The Fire Company are taking this means of raising some needed funds to help meet the debt on the new pumper, and the support of the community is solicited. With the addition of the new pumper, which has been in service a little over a month, Chestertown can lay claim to having the equal, if not the best fire apparatus of any town on the Shore of equal population, and the boys feel that the residents of Chestertown and vicinity appreciate this fact, as well as their volunteer services as fire fighters.

Seats are on sale at Stam's Drug Store, for all performances, or can be reserved by phone. Phone reservations will be held until 8 p. m. on nights ordered. Phone 30.

Strict Enforcement Of Law Remedy

Hon. Lewin W. Wickes, in his charge to the Grand Jury of Kent county, stated that seventy per cent of the crimes committed in this Circuit could be attributed to intoxicating liquor. Said he, "if this fact was noted only in this Circuit we would feel condemned to some extent, but this condition seems to prevail all over the country."

In answer to the above we note this remedy which all law-abiding citizens hope will be applied has been given publicity. Strict enforcement of prohibition in Kent county and other sections of Maryland is contemplated in a new campaign launched by District Attorney Amos W. W. Woodcock.

Every remedy that the law provides will be used in the drive to force out of business the illicit distiller and the law-breaking bootlegger. As a first step he will immediately place into effect several drastic changes in the former policy of issuing temporary and "padlock" injunctions.

Under the provisions of the new plan, those who deliberately violate the prohibition laws may be liable to either of the following consequences:

1.—If a home or business establishment is raided and illicit intoxicating beverages are found, State officials may immediately seek an injunction to temporarily padlock the premises.

2—If, after such a raid has been made and arrests have been affected the individuals are found guilty of violating the prohibition laws, the premises may be padlocked for a period of one year as prescribed by law m2-3t*
