Mrs. Miller Injured By Auto

Mrs. Emma J. Miller, widow of the late Frank M. Miller, of near Chestertown, was seriously hurt in Chestertown Saturday night while crossing Main street at the postoffice Corner.

The accident occurred during the carnival of the Volunteer Fire Company, Mrs. Miller having attempted to cross the street in front of the postoffice while traffic was congested. She was knocked down by Oscar Pleasanton's machine, and was taken into a drug store and later removed to the office of Dr. Harry G. Simpers who rendered first aid. Mrs. Miller then was taken to Easton Hospital.

At the hospital it was found that she had a punctured lung, several ribs broken, hip broken and collar bone broken. The physicians there had little hope for her life.

Mrs. Miller has been afflicted with rheumatism for sometime and in her condition was unable to move fast enough to avoid the accident. Those who saw the affair state that Mr. Pleasanton and his father were moving very slowly at the time of the accident.

Mrs. Miller at this writing is in a critical condition and all the children are with her.

A WEEK OF FROLIC AND MONEY-MAKING ENJOYED BY KENT COUNTIANS AND VISITORS

Chestertown's First Carnival Brings Thousands Here—The Parade Of Firemen A Revelation To Citizens Money Plentiful And Receipts Large Excellent Music By Home And Visiting Bands.

THE POPULARITY CONTEST GETTING EXCITING

The first Carnival given by the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company during the past week has been a tremendous success, if crowds, fun and money-making are to be considered. It has been a proof of what the News has urged over and over again, viz., co-operation. Nearly everybody has helped in some way in bringing about this success. The most beautiful and most central spot in town was given over to the booths, etc., and even the weather man conspired to aid the affair on essential evenings. The lighting of the Park by Superintendent Hope B. Hudson and Owen C. Smith and the flood of light proved the efficiency and ability of our local lighting plant. Charles L. Miller and his helper have also kept the Park in cleanliness which entailed extra work on their part.

Friday evening was opening night and about $400 was taken in at the various amusements including Stein's "Whip and Merry-Go-Round."

The crowd Saturday night is estimated at from three to five thousand and the receipts were about $1200.

Monday night another fair crowd was present and spent about $600.

Tuesday night was the BIG NIGHT. It was the night of the Parade. Never before had our citizens seen such an assemblage of fine apparatus nor such a display of marching torch lights, etc. They now realize the ambition of Chestertown's fire fighters. The homes along the line of march were prettily decorated with flags and some lanterns and each company received applause. Dr. G. Allen Jarman was chief marshall with lady aides, Mrs. Rhodes, Misses Brice, Kratzer and Willis. Then came Sheen's Cavalry of young men from Fairlee followed by Robinson's Band, of Wilmington. Wm. H. Elliott had charge of the civic department and followed with business men and school children carrying lanterns and lights Eddie Keenan in charge of Washington College students came next with a band that kept things lively under Prof. Kelley's direction. Then came the splendid equipment from Millington, Centreville, Easton, Denton, Chesapeake City, Smyrna, Dover, Harrington, Middletown and Clayton and Chestertown. Chestertown's "boys" certainly looked fine and their apparatus told how improvements had come step by step. The hand pumps of 1804 is probably one of the oldest pieces of fire fighting equipment in the country. It was manned by Wm. F. Malin, Frank E. Duyer, Wm. L. Fowler, Charles J. Reiche and others. A horse drawn hose reel represented the 1900 period and ladders the 1908, driven by Jas. E. Allen. A chemical tank, hand drawn, was of the 1909 period. Representing 1922 with the International Truck, which on at least two occasions more than paid for itself and 1925, the Pierce-Arrow county-wide apparatus.

At the close of the parade the spectators jammed the midway of the carnivel, where $2200 was taken in on the numerous amusements.

The judges of the affair, C. Ellsworth Leary, of Rock Hall; Howard Turner, of Betterton, and W. H. Good, of Church Hill, decided that the silver loving cup for best equipment with 15 or more men in line should go to Easton; that the cup for best band and cup for most men in line should go to Chesapeake City; that the cup for company coming the longest distance should go to Harrington. President Paul T. Titsworth, of Washington College, made the presentation speech. After the parade Robinson's Band of Wilmington, gave a concert in the public square.

The floral display of the Smyrna Fire Company was the most beautiful part of the parade and had very honorable mention.

Wednesday evening the Town Band, Prof. Arthur Bacon, gave a concert in the Park and their music received highest praise from lovers of good music.

Seven of Kent's attractive young ladies, who are competing for the title of "Miss Kent County," each becomingly attired and carrying colored flare torches, conveyed in Carl N. Bordley's seven-passenger Paige, received applause throughout the line of march. Chestertown was represented by Misses Rebecca Jarrell, Susie Smith and Dorothy Pennington; Worton by Miss Julia Williams; Betterton, Miss Elizabeth Crew; Fairlee, Miss Katherine Smith, and Rock Hall, Miss Margaret Jerome.

At 7.30 p. m. the parade lighted by red flares in the hands of all the marchers, started at the head of High street and proceeded thru the streets of the town. High street excels all other towns in its width and beauty and onthis occasion made a most beautiful sight.

All deserve praise for the big parade last Tuesday night but to Wm. H. Elliott, of the Peerless Fertilizer Company, is due especial credit for his determined and persistent efforts in looking after and carrying out the many details.

Chief Fred S. Russell also deserves special credit for the Fire Truck section of the parade..

The officering of the streets and traffic regulation by Merrs. Collins, Newcomb, Nickerson, Potts and others was well done.

The Evening Sun Band Concert Saturday evening was "Band Night." The Evening Sun Newsboys' Band of Baltimore, Prof. Frank Morse conductor, with 55 musicians, occupied a big platform in the Park and rendered a splendid concert.

The 9-year-old cornet soloist won the hearts of everyone while the band as a whole pleased everyone. Their selections are among the best while some jazz tunes are interspersed as encores. This band was brought to Tolchester by the Tolchester Steamboat Company free and local autos transported them to and from the boat. They stayed all night in the Armory thru the influence of Capt. Frank B. Hines and they were fed at the Voshell House, Miss Copper's, Mrs. Cranor's, and Bedford Titter's. The Band gave its services and on behalf of the thousands who enjoyed the music and our Fire Company, the News extends thanks. It was a big drawing card for Saturday evening.

The officers of the fire company, for the benefit of which the carnival is being held, are: President, Wm. G. Smyth; fire chief, Fred S. Russell; Assistant, J. Hydie Thompson; first vice-president, Arlington L. Sparks; treasurer, Barber R. Bartley; engineers, Arthur Bacon and Clarke Davis. The proceeds of the carnival will be used for enlarging the fire house, providing additional fire apparatus and paying a balance of $750 on a fire truck recently purchased at a cost of $5,000.

The Carnival will close tonight. The total receipts will amount to about $6,500 and will net about $3,000.

The result of the popularity contest and automobile will be announced tonight. The vote for "Miss Kent County" at this writing was:

Rebecca Jarrell, Miss Maple ave529½
Elizabeth Crew, Miss Betterton 419
Elizabeth Smith, Miss Fairlee 390½
Susie Smith, Miss High St....265½
Julia Willaims, Miss Worton..181½
Margaret Jerome, Miss Rock Hall 73

Jimmie Fox, the youthful catcher of Connie Mack's Athletics, whose home is in Sudlersville, visited the Chestertown Carnival and gave an exhibition of accurate throwing with his good right whip, which came near cleaning the milk bottle booth, one of the popular games of the carnival, out of its valuable prizes. Fox made five successful attempts to knock all the bottles from the milk barrels and lined them down with the same accuracy that he nails the runners at the bases.

The News acknowledges a check for $50 from Henry W. Catlin, Esq., for benefit of Volunteer Fire Company. Smith Bros., of Edesville, sends $10.
