NEW MEMBERS OF WASHINGTON COLLEGE BOARD OF VISITORS

The ballots for alumni member of the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College were opened and counted by the committee Mrs. Clara Williams, Wm. B. Usilton, Stephen R. Collins and Dr. J. S. Wm. Jones, on Tuesday last. The winners were Albert D. Mackey, of Cecil, Albanus Phillips, of Dorchester, Thomas Garey, Jr., of Baltimore, and H. Staunton Brown, of New York. These will serve for three years.

Dr. Joseph K. Shriver, of Cambridge, has been appointed by Gov. Ritchie a member of the Board in place of Brice W. Goldsborough, of Cambridge, who resigned on account of ill health.

Miss Catherine Coursey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coursey, of Centreville, had a narrow escape from death last Monday morning when the automobile she was driving was forced off the Church Hill-Chestertown road, at Brown's Corner, by the car of Horace Swann, of Newark, Del., and driven by Elwood Bostic.

Miss Coursey was on her way to Union School, where she is the teacher, and had almose reached the corner when Swann's car showed up around the curve, hugging the wrong side of the road and traveling at great speed. The two cars crashed throwing the one of Miss Coursey's completely off the road. Fortunately neither Miss Coursey nor a little girl that was with her at the time were injured. Bostic was fined $100 and sentenced to 6 months in House of Correction for driving car while under influence of liquor.

Kent County Agent's Notes

By H. B. DERRICK

The European trip for the best U. S. Club Dairy Cattle Judging Team has been assured by generous donations of State and County organizations. Kent, Harford and Montgomery Counties were each asked to raise $200 towards the necessary $3,000 for the trip. Kent's quota was readily donated by the following organizations who have a keen interest in club work and realize its value to the county:

|---|---|
| Third National Bank | $50.00 |
| Peoples Bank | 25.00 |
| Chestertown Bank of Maryland | 25.00 |
| Kent County Savings Bank | 25.00 |
| Kent County Farm Bureau | 25.00 |
| Citizens Bank | $20.00 |
| Metcalfe Bros. | $15.00 |
| P. M. Brooks | 15.00 |

The team was given its last coaching in the United State at the Winterthur Farm in Delaware, after which we visited the herd owned by Edgar Pennington, of Kent county.

Secretary Jardine Presents Gold Cup

Friday, May 28th, the 4-H Dairy Cattle Judging Team, composed of Stanley B. Sutton, Kent County, Arthur Dunnigan, Harford county, and Ralph Walker, of Montgomery county, County Agent H. B. Derrick, Coach, and Dr. F. B. Bomberger, Assistant Director Extension Service, who will represent the United States in the International Contest in England on July 14tth, were presented the Gold Cup, donated by the London Daily Mail, at the U. S. Department of Agriculture by Secretary Jardine. The heads of various departments of the U. S. D. A. were present.

Applications for passports were made that day at the State Department and the following day, May 29, the Team gave a demonstration of Judging Dairy Cattle at the Farmers' Day exercises at the University of Maryland.

Purchase Registered Shropshires

Registered Shropshire rams were purchased on Farmers' Day at the University of Maryland at the Maryland Sheep Growers Sale by County Agent H. B. Derrick for Edward M. Wilkins and Walter B. Strong.

Tomato Plant Beds

Kent has four Community Tomato Plant Beds this year, all of which are somewhat backward as compared to last year. Three beds, however, had plants to pull during May. All Plant Bed Growers have prospects of disposing of all the plants they can produce since good plants are rather scarce in Kent this year. Again these beds are rendering a valuable service to the farmers of the county.

Poultry Club

The Kent Progressive Poultry Club met during May at Howard Moffett's near Worton and on June 2d at John and Walter Moffett's at Lynch. Each member gave talks on his poultry club work, which was followed by talks by the Home Demonstration and County Agents.

John H. Moffett, local leader of the club, showed the club his poultry plant and gave the members many good pointers. A goal of $500—total value of the Poulty Club Work of this club, was set by the club. Culling and judging poultry will be taken up by the club.

The Sho' Echo Glee Club of Maryland State Normal School, Salisbury gave a splendid entertainment at Washington College Friday evening and at Millington Saturday. Good singing and acting by a company of pretty girls greatly pleased the audiences.

Percy Grange Skirven has issued invitations to the marriage of his daughter, Miss Angeline Bard, to Dr. Walter Laennean Badger, Tuesday, June 15th, 1926, at 6 o'clock in Saint Margaret's P. E. Church, Baltimore.

OLD FRIENDS' DAY

Rev. John White, friend and former pastor of President Coolidge's family in Plymouth, Vermont, will be formally welcomed to Old St. Paul's of Kent, his new charge, on Sunday. The occasion will incidentally be the re-establishment of Old Friends' Day. Two years ago the custom was started of holding an annual gathering of old friends day meeting in the historic churchyard. It was later decided to make a permanent affair of the interesting custom.

Three former rectors of St. Paul's will be present and address the congregation. They are the Rev. Peregrine Wroth, of Baltimore. The Rev. Samuel Borden Smith, of Trappe, Md., and the Rev. Sewell S. Hepburn. The rector, recently appointed, will preach the evening sermon. St. Paul's parish is one of the oldest Protestant Episcopal congregations in Maryland.

MASSEY BASE BALL NEWS

To score a win over Kennedyville on Saturday last Groff, Massey's fine star moundsman, was on his winning stride blanking Kennedyville by the score of 1 to 0. Groff fanned 13 of the opposing batsmen. Allowing but four hits and only walking one he was invincible at all times.

Kennedy was on the mound for Kennedyville and gave a good exhibition of mound work.

On Decoration Day Massey went to Chesapeake City for a double header. Groff came back and pitched a fine game after only one day's rest. His teammates developed a streak of wildness and gave Chesapeake the game with their ten errors. Groff fanned eight bringing his season's total to 45. Loller was Massey's selection for the second game, and he turned in a 2 to 1 victory. Loller allowed only three hitts and fanned four. Rowan nosed out Groff for the lead in club batting with an average of .471, but Groff is running him a close second with .467.
