Great Outpouring Kent Democracy In Chestertown

The Old Lyceum in Chestertown was packed from stage to back, down the stairway, up in the gallery and aisles Tuesday night at the Democratic Rally. It was one of the best meetings held here for many years. The speakers were in fine fettle, the audience responsive and the band enlivened the affair with good music as Band under the direction of Prof. C. Arthur Bacon is so well able to do.

Mrs. C. W. Whaland, chairman of the State Central Committee, introduced Ex-Senator Wm. F. Russell as the chairman of the meeting. In doing so she called him that "persistent and consistent Democrat." The Senator was in fine spirit and introduced the speakers in his characteristic fine manner.

Col. W. Preston Lane, Jr., candidate for Attorney General, was the first speaker and delighted his hearers. The Governor, Mr. Lane pledged himself, if elected, to further the efficiency of the criminal department in his duties as Attorney-General. He also praised the Governor's administration and urged the latter's reelection as well as all the Democratic candidates.

Governor Ritchie was given a rousing reception when he arose to address the audience. He began by speaking in the highest terms of Senator S. Scott Beck and his associates on the Democratic ticket and asked for the election of every man.

The Governor stated that Senator Beck had gotten more for Kent than any other Legislator from this county in his memory and that the Senator's accomplishments were all of major proportions.

Governor Ritchie said that the issue of the campaign was whether the people desired the continuance of the Democratic administration with its past record as a pledge for good government or to gamble on elevating the City Hall to Annapolis. He spoke briefly on Federal issues, charging failure of the Administration to fulfill its promises of prosperity for the farmers and the alleviation of unemployment.

Calling "completely and wholly untrue" the statement of David A. Robb, Republican candidate for Attorney-General, "that everyone who works for the State Roads Commission has been told that he or she must vote for the Democratic candidate for Governor or their job is gone," Governor Ritchie asserted that three alternatives were open to Mr. Robb—denial, the substantiation of his statement or conviction of a reckless or deliberate disregard of the truth.

The Governor's statement on the bay bridge was:

"It is a financial and economic proposition, and the biggest one which has ever been put up to the State government.

"The delay in working out the details of the proposition has been due to the desire of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Commission to give private capital, at its request, every opportunity to proceed with the construction.

"Further, engineering and financial questions of the greatest importance to people of the State must be understood and settled before the practicability of the project can be decided.

"The only cost data and estimates on the subject, and the only comprehensive engineering data, were secured by the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Company and are its property."

"That company is not disposed to turn all of this data over to the State and there is no means of requiring it to do so. The result is that the commission has had to start from the beginning and build up all of this information for itself. It is a big job, but it has to be done before this State can be in a position to decide what is thesound and right course for it to take."

WANTED

THOROUGHBRED BRONZE
STOCK TURKEYS FOR SALE

Having all new blood lines, I am offering some very fine breeders, Poults were all hen hatched and free range, raised practically all I put out. Hens $5.50, Gobblers $9.00. Mrs. Julian Jones, Chestertown, Md., Telephone 833F23. o25-tf

FOR RENT

The Crittenden house in Chesterville. Possession at once. Also some feather beds and mattresses for sale. Apply to T. J. Burris, Chesterville, Md. o25-3t*

" It is assumed that the cost will be about $12,000,000. If this estimate is correct, it will equal one-third of the net indebtedness of the State.

"These expressions should not be taken as indicating any lack of interest on my part in the proposed bridge or any failure to appreciate the convenience and advantage to the people which the bridge would be."

Gordy Cites Business Policies

Wm. S. Gordy, Jr., candidate for re-election as Comptroller, appealed to the people of the State to consider this election as a business proposition.

"No well organized business would discharge an employe because he had done a good job." Mr. Gordy said. He asked the people to analyze the qualifications of candidates on the two State tickets and said they should consider the experience and knowledge acquired by heads of the State departments.

Mr. Gordy asserted that whereas the Democratic platform was a starightforward declaration of the party's intentions, that of the Republicans was a mass of meaningless words and unconstructive criticism.

Goldsborough Raps Tariff

Representative T. Alan Goldsborough, candidate for reelection to Congress from the First district, attacked the present tariff system. Civilization is synonomous with trade and mercantile intercourse, Mr. Goldsborough said, and the tariff is inimical to both. He made a splendid speech and Kent will doubtless give him a big vote November 4th.

Governor Ritchie and the other Democratic candidates were guests of honor at the excellent turkey supper served at Emmanuel P. E. Church on Thursday evening.

W. M. HURLOCK'S HOME BURNED

Fire Thursday morning caused by a defective flue caused $8,500 property damage to the boarding house, two miles west of Millington, owned by William A. Felton, of Philadelphia.

The owner, who is occupying another dwelling nearby, discovered flames shooting from the roof of the larger building, which was occupied by the tenants, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Hurlock, of Kennedyville. Mr. Felton notified them and they fled from the burning building.

Millington firemen arrived too late to save the two upper floors of the three-story house but pumped water from the Chester River and checked the flames as they reached the first floor.

Mr. Felton, who was about to leave for Florida to join his family, lost all of his furniture, which was stored on the third floor, estimated as worth $5,000. It was insured for $3,500.

Damage to the house itself is [illegible] mated at $5000 and is partly [illegible] by insurance.

PLANS FOR SPAN OPENING

A meeting of the joint committee from the Frank M. Jarman Post, of Chestertown and the Jeff Davis Post, of Centreville, American Legion, with J. Thmomas Kibler as chairman, was held here Wednesday night and made final plans for the dedication of the new Chester River bridge to the veterans of Kent and Queen Anne's counties on November 11.

It has been announced by Legion authorities that George Henderson, State Commander and Arthur L. Magee, State Adjutant, will be present for the dedication ceremonies. Gen. Record is also expected.

Plans are also being made by the Frank M. Jarman Post for their annual banquet to be held on Armistice Day. The annual election of officers will take place at 7 P. M. and be followed by a banquet at half an hour later. The plans for this affair are in the hands of Rolph Townshend, commander of the post.

Rock Hall watermen coming to Chestertown reported the presence of over 100 swan on the flats on Eastern Neck Island. The arrival of these birds which are protected from gunners by law is several weeks in advance of their usual appearance and some of the watermen believe it presages a long and hard winter.

The office of the Clerk of the Court is busy issuing gunning licenses in anticipation of the opening of the wild duck shooting season on November 1 and the season for shooting rabbits and partridges on November 10. Up to date there have been issued 307 county licenses, 100 State and 16 non-resident licenses, which will be greatly increased before the opening of the shooting season.

Deputy State Game Warden Edgar J. Watson reports a bountiful supply of rabbits and partridges in sections of the county and the owners of gunning shores say that wild ducks are beginning to come to the feeding grounds in Chester River.

We Are Proud Of All On Democratic Ticket

The following are the local candidates on the Kent County Democratic Ticket. It is a pleasure to recommend them to the citizens of Kent County.

SENATOR S. SCOTT BECK

The KENT NEWS endorses the candidacy of State Senator S. Scott Beck for re-election with great satisfaction. We have had many faithful, talented and energetic Democratic Senators in the Maryland Senate, but none more so than Senator Beck. He has gone after results and gotten them. As a "go-getter" he has no superior.

Mr. Beck has used his talents, with the help of Gov. Ritchie, to give Kent county wonderful aid in all lines of public improvements and local endeavor.

Mr. Beck has been prominent in politics in Kent county since his graduation from the University of Maryland Law School in 1907. His first political office was that of State's Attorney for Kent county, a position he filled in an able manner from 1920 to 1926.

In 1926 he was elected to the State Senate from this county, and winning in the Primary and election after a hard fight.

In the General Assembly at Annapolis Senator Beck has played a very prominent part and won for himself many friends and supporters. It was mainly through the efforts of Senator Beck and his associates from Kent in the House of Delegates that the Chesapeake Bay Bridge bill was passed. Many bills in the interest of Kent county and Kent interests were put through the Legislature by Senator Beck.

His practical work on all matters of interest to the fish and oystermen is appreciated and these men will roll up a big vote for the Kent countian.

He is the president of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland and is secretary to the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College. Mr. Beck is an alumnus of the college, and has served on its board for a number of years.

ELLSWORTH C. BOWERS of Lynch, is well-known to the people of Kent. He has had two terms at the Maryland Legislature which should make him better fitted to serve his people. He is a widely known business man having erected scores of buildings in Kent under the firm name of Stavely and Bowers. He [illegible] friend of the watermen and [illegible] importance to the county [illegible] for the House of Delegates [illegible] of Kent's best informed citizens and a man for whom the people of the county can take a just pride in casting their vote. He is well-equipped in every respect to serve his people. He accepts the candidacy in the hope that he may do something for his county and his party. What a worthy aspiration! What a lofty motive! It is a great pleasure to support a man of Mr. Brice's high character and wide reputation for good citizenship. The farmers and business people have in him a man of intelligence and ability to grasp the measures which come before him. He also has had experience in the Legislature.

ROBERT A. SHALLCROSS

For Clerk of the Circuit Court the Democratic candidate is Robert A. Shallcross. The Republicans did not think it wise to place any candidate against him in 1926 but this year have named opposition. Fr. Shallcross is deserving of support and makes a splendid clerk. The present efficient deputy, Thomas Dixon, will likely continue in office.

Mr. Shallcross gives his personal attention to the office and by his demeanor makes many friends. He resides in Rock Hall where he and his wife occupy an important place in the social and religious life of the community.

STEVENS ROBERTS COLLINS

One of the most important offices in Kent is that of State's Attorney. He stands between the people and that class of citizens who have no regard for law and who break it with impunity. Every community tries to place this duty in the hands of a man who is conscientious and who appreciates the responsibilities of the office. In Kent county the Democracy recommends to the voters Stephen Roberts Collins, of Chestertown. The Republicans have named no opposition, so that Mr. Collins will be elected beyond a doubt. We predict a successful administration.

H. STOCKTON STARTT

For County Treasurer, H. Stockton Startt, of near Chestertown, is the Democratic candidate, and is a hustler. He is a man well and favorably known in all parts of the county and a worker in all civic and religious circles. He is well-fitted both by education and business training to handle the finances of the county. Vote for him.

DR. MERRITT BRICE

The First District presents to the Democracy of Kent that stalwart-resident, Dr. Merritt Brice for re-election as candidate for Register of Wills.

He was born January 5, 1880, son of the late Tilden Brice. He attended the public school at Lankford, then went for two years at Washington College and graduated in medicine at the University of Maryland in 1907. He located in Millington in 1911 where he has been practicing medicine ever since. He has endeared himself to that community by his unselfish devotion to those in need and unstinted in ministering to the sick. He is a gentleman of good judgment, intelligent and loyal to every local enterprise. He will carry on the work of the Register of Wills office with satisfaction to his friends and be a credit to his party. He is a Democrat and always found fighting for the party and its candidates thru thick and thin. He deserves your vote and what more, will appreciate your support.

ROBERT E. LEE

Next to the State's Attorney and the Court in importance in enforcing the law, comes that of Sheriff. The Democrats present that splendid young man, Robert E. Lee, who has proven that he knows how to conduct the sheriff's office. He is of good old time Democratic stock and will give to the office his best service. It is with a great deal of pleasure that we recommend the election of Robert E. Lee as Sheriff, capable, active, energetic and of sterling character, Mr. Lee is admirably fitted for the office he seeks.

SAMUEL C. LOLLER
CHARLES D. WOOD
LEONARD WILSON

To mention the three candidates for the office of County Commissioners on the Democratic ticket at once calls to mind the names of three men of integrity, ability and industry, and men who will give the county a conservative service.

Charles D. Wood, of Rock Hall, Leonard Wilson, of Millington, Samuel C. Loller, of Wo[illegible] conduct the affiairs of Kent in such manner that the people will be convinced of their wise choice. Charles D. Wood has been a member of the Board of County Commissioners for several years and has played an important part in the excellent management of the county's affairs. Messrs. Leonard Wilson and Samuel C. Loller are industrious and intellegent, men of high character and have the confidence of the people.

DR. EDW. A. SCOTT
J. H. THOMPSON
JAMES H. GROVES

Continuing the references to the men on the Democratic ticket, we come to that important office of Judge of the Orphans' Court. For this position the NEWS recommends heartily Dr. Edward A. Scott, of Galena, J. Henry Thompson, of Rock Hall, and James H. Groves, of Kennedyville, as Judges of this Court.

And so, after urging the voters to support all the candidates of the party we make a final and strong appeal for the candidates for Judges of the Orphans' Court, Messrs Scott, Thompson and Groves.

We want our Judges, Democrats, as we want all our other candidates,

The county is largely Democratic and should elect a solid Democratic ticket this Fall.

Never yet have we not found as strong, capable and efficient candidates, Democrats, as on our side; so why should Democrats not vote for Democrats.

The directors of the Chester Cemetery Company have purchased of Oscar Pleasanton the residence opposite the cemetery for $2,000. This house will be used for the superintendent in case of necessity.

James Adams "Floating Theatre" will be in Chestertown next week, October 27 to November 1. See adv. in KENT NEWS for the week's program.
