STRICKEN ON TOP FARM WIND MILL

Samuel Ford, aged about 70, climbed to the top of his windmill on his farm near Locust Grove Wednesday in order to remedy some minor trouble Soon after reaching the platform he was stricken with paralysis and had presence of mind enough to grab hold of an iron support on which he held until help arrived. Mrs. Thomas Jarman, his house-keeper, discovered him in his predicament and summoned Norman Ford, the sick man's son who was in a field near by who in turn secured other help. Frank Coy, John Duhamel, W. F. Jarrell, Howard Stauffer, and Elmer Jarman arrived and helped in rescuing Mr. Ford. He was placed on a board and then lowered to the ground by means of a block and tackle. Dr. E. A. Scott, of Galena, was called and the sick man is now under his care.

A BEAUTY CONTEST

The Kent County Farm Bureau at its annual picnic at Tolchester Beach, on August 18, 1931, will stage a county-wide beauty contest which will be held in the annex at 1.30 P.M. The winner will receive an appropriate ribbon entitling her to compete for one of three prizes, given by the State organization, at the State Farm Bureau beauty contest which will be held during the annual State Convention in January, 1932, in Baltimore. She will be the guest of Mrs. Harry T. Williams, State chairman of the Farm Bureau Home and Community Committee, and Miss Venia M. Kellar, State Home Demonstration Agent, while attending this convention.

C. ARTHUR BACON, Chief of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company, submitted a written resignation from that position to the members of the organization at their regular weekly meeting last Monday. No reason for the resignation was given at that time.

President A. L. Sparks and the board of directors tabled the resignation and withheld action until a later date, hoping that Chief Bacon would reconsider his withdrawal.

J. A. WARD, engineer on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, who was instantly killed at Berwyn, Md., on Tuesday when his engine attached to an express train from Washington to New York struck an automobile which had stalled on the track, was the husband of Miss Jennie Bennett, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett, of Chestertown.

The remains were brought here for burial in Chester Cemetery on Friday.

GEO. T. SATTERFIELD, veteran horse-trainer, widely known on the turf, was injured Tuesday in a collision with a truck while he was jogging along the State highway in a racing sulky between Harrington and the State fair grounds about a mile and a half south. Satterfield, who is between 65 and 70 years old, was ordered to the Emergency Hospital at Milford. "Satty," as the injured driver is better known, is one of the most popular horse trainers and drivers of the Eastern Shore, not because of his successes so much as because of the pluck he has displayed in the face of reverses.

EFFORTS are being made by officials of the Tolchester Company to remove sea nettles from the bathing beach at that Chesapeake bay side resort, near here. Some of the nettles are as large as small plates and have tentacles two feet long.

St. Paul's P. E. Sunday school will hold its annual "Beach" party and picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Edmonston, Thursday, July 30, 1931, at 3 P. M.

NEW A. & P. STORE

The A. & P. Co. signed a contract Wednesday with J. Hydie Thompson for a lease on his store room, corner High and Kent streets, for five years. Mr. Thompson has agreed to serve as manager. This store will be remodeled and equipped with modern fixtures and will be independent of the down town Chestertown store.

G. T. Cooper, just across the street, is repainting and preparing to greet the rival in a friendly spirit.

OFF FOR CAMP AT CASCADE MD.

The Medical Detachment of the First Maryland Infantry, of Chestertown, will leave on Saturday for a two weeks' encampment at Camp Albert C. Ritchie, Cascade, Md.

The local Medical unit had an attendance of 90.21 for June and received the honor rating granted each month by Brig. Gen. Milton R. Reckord, adjutant general.

An advance detail of the Medical Detachment, headed by Major Frank B. Hines, the company commander, left Chestertown for Camp Ritchie on Friday. Other members of the detail will be Staff Sergeant Wm. R. Goodman and Cook Edw. Blackway and J. N. Hodgson.

The equipment of the unit will leave by special truck on Saturday morning in charge of a detail under the command of Corporal W. A. McMahan.

The main body of the detachment under the command of Lieut. Herman Blackway, will leave Chestertown by bus Saturday morning for Matapeake. From Matapeake to Annapolis the trip will be made by ferry and at Annapolis special busses will convey the soldiers to Camp Ritchie.

Members of the Medical Detachment who will attend the encampment are: Major Frank B. Hines, Lieut. Herman Blackway, Staff Sergeant Wm. R. Goodman, Infirmary Sergeant Paul C. Starkey, Corporal W. H. McMahan, First Class Privates Garret Chaires, Irving Cox, Walter Elburn, Walter Morris, Walter Kulley and Robert Penn and Priv. W. T. Bennett, J. E. Blackway, Henry M. MOTHER AND DAUGHTER HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Mrs. William Buck, 35, of Moore, Pa., was taken by ambulance to the Union Hospital, Elkton, after an automobile in which she was riding with her husband and 12-year-old daughter overturned on a sharp curve near Locust Grove Sunday.

Arteries on both of the woman's cheeks were severed, and Dr. J. William Urie, who treated her, said she narrowly escaped bleeding to death. The daughter also was cut and bruised and received hospital treatment. The husband was not injured.

EASTWARD the course of Empire takes its way — California farmers coming East, attracted by the advantages of the Eastern Shore—"the peninsula of plenty"—Leonard C. Treherne, Bonded and Licensed Real Estate Broker, representing the reliable firm of the E. A. Strout Realty Agency, Inc., on the 18th instant sold to William O. Hambrecht of Venice, Calif., the 150 acre farm, with some 14 acres woodland, 5-room frame dwelling, all necessary outbuildings, belonging to Thomas M. Jefferson, of Crumpton, Md., for $3,000. This farm is located on the highway, one mile of McGinnis' Corner. Mr. H. will come on and take charge of this farm about a month or so from this date.

METCALFE BROS. are busy buying and taking in grain at their Chestertown, Kennedyville, Still Pond and Worton plants. They have a special feed for poultry raisers, the Chester Poult Mash, selling for from $2.40 to $2:75 per hundred weight.

THE season for purse net fishing in the upper waters of the Chesapeake Bay opened July 15th and will continue during the Summer months. A number of good catches have been reported. A law passed by the last session of the legislature prohibits purse net fishing in any of the waters and tributaries of the Chesapeake bay after October 1st.

THE Chester River Regatta on August 21 and 22 will be a big affair, Make your plans to be present.

C. N. SATTERFILD OUR FIRST MAYOR

Chestertown held its first election Monday under its new charter and polled 459 votes out of a total of 491. It was a hotly contested battle. The town was thoroughly canvassed and each man noted as to his preference. In one ward the vote turned out exactly as figured by leaders. The greatest surprise was in the Fourth Ward where a change of 12 votes resulted from what the count showed a few days before election. In this ward that prince of fellows, H. W. Fallowfield, was a good loser and was happier over his showing. Others took their defeat gracefully.

Charles N. Satterfield was elected mayor defeating the present incumbent, E. Scott Thompson, by a majority of 69 votes.

Mr. Satterfield's vote totaled 259 and Mr. Thompson's 190. Running mates of Mr. Satterfield were elected to the four City Council positions as follows:

R. Hynson Rogers, unopposed in the First Ward, had a total of 97 votes. In the Second Ward George W. French defeated his opponent, C. Arthur Bacon, by a majority of ten votes, and in the Third Ward, former Mayor John W. Barnes defeated Henry Gill by a majority of 16 votes.

The closest contest in the election was in the Fourth Ward where Geo. W. Rash defeated Harry W. Fallowfield by a margin of only three votes, out of a total of 106.

Mayor Sattelerfild carried the First Ward 1y 1; Second Ward by 12; Third Ward by 25 and Fourth Ward by 31.

The new City Council will take the oath of office and assume its duties August 3rd. The city government will consist of a Mayor and four City Councilmen.

The Mayor serves for two years; R. Hynson Rogers and John W. Barnes for two years and George W. Rash and George W. French for four years.

R. Hynson Rogers, who was unopposed for the Council seat from the First Ward received 97 votes.

The citizens voted to continue the Chestertown Water Department under the control of the present Water Board system rather than have the management taken over by the Mayor and Council. A majority of 165 favored the retention of the present system.

Town Registration

The following are the figures of the Registration of Voters in Chestertown:

First Ward—126 white and 4 colored; Second Ward—137 white and 15 colored; Third Ward — 94 white and 6 colored; Fourth Ward — 101 white and 8 colored; total, 458 white and 33 colored.

LOCAL WORKMEN KEPT BUSY HERE

Ground was broken by The Pennington Construction Company last week for a new residence for Clinton C. Jones and wife on a newly purchased lot from Howard B. Strong on Kent Circle. Leon Brown has the contract to dig the cellar.

Howard B. Strong is clearing ground for a new home on Queen street extended. He has employed Mr. Emory as architect and expects to award the contract this month.

Stavely and Bowers, contractors, have foundations laid for a new home for Colonel William Schaub, of New York, on Chester River, and another new home for a wealthy New Yorker will shortly be started adjoining the Schaub property.

The home of Dr. George H. Dana and Howard Knotts on Washington Avenue, opposite the college campus, are nearing completion and add very much to the appearance of that fine locality.

The improvements to the Kent Mutual Insurance Company's new home is going forward under Walter T. Pippin's workmanship. The heating and plumbing has been let to John Klein, of Chestertown.

Other workmen are employed on Chester River Yacht Club's pier and other jobs of various degrees of expense.

Work on the Armory is expected to begin in a few days.

An employer of labor says he tried to find several colored men to do some digging but failed so that it looks as if there was no depression here in building trade.

IF YOU want to see a fine movie go to the New Lyceum next week and witness "Daddy Long Legs."

LANDING FOR WATERMEN

The County Commissioners thru their attorney, H. W. Vickers, Esq., closed a contract Tuesday with Dr. Chas. Comegys for 165 feet of land on Chester river at Cliff City. This property will be for use of all watermen and will fill a long-felt need.

HOME IS BURNED NEAR THIS TOWN

The residence at Williams' Gardens, located near Brook's Mill and the Chestertown Airport, was burned to the ground at 4.00 A. M. yesterday. Hugh L. Williams and family occupied the property. Mr. Williams says he detected smell of smoke and upon investigating found the bathroom and rear of house on fire. He gave the alarm and all the family made their escape.

The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company arrived promptly and helped to save furniture and the garage. The absence of water prevented them from doing more. This property is owned by Dumont Lambert, of Washington, D. C. It was partially insured for $3150 with L. B. Russell's agency. The loss will be about $6,000.

The members of the family were kindly cared for by A. L. Sparks and wife, Mrs. Bell and others. Mr. Williams removed here about a year ago from New Jersey and have made many friends.

RAINS have interferred with wheat threshing but quite a number have been put thru the machine.

The yield in the majority of cases is beyond the expectations of the growers. Three of the largest yields thus far reported are Miller Strong on his Grey's Inn Creek farm, threshed 1,947 bushels from fifty acres; Charles H. Skirven got 519 bushels from 12 acres on his farm near Fairlee, while William T. Nicholson on Fancy farm got on average of 32½ bushels from 80 acres and had a 65-acre field yet to thresh. Chas. D. Wood got 35 bushels per acre from his Piney Neck farm.

Edw. Wallace, near Kennedyville, threshed 50 bushels per acre off 7 acres of sugar corn ground.

WHEAT took a rise Thursday and local buyers were paying 44½ cents for No. 2 wheat. Fine yields are reported.

SALE OF PROPERTY

Harry Massey, of the Church Hill Motor Co., has purchased at private sale the Howard Reese farm near Fairlee for $15,000. This farm was formerly known as the Baker farm. It is in a fine state of cultivation.

S. S. Beck and H. W. Vickers, attorneys for Thos. A. Parsons sold at public sale Tuesday a 2½ story frame dwelling at Lynch to Miss Ida Biggers for $900. Also a two-room bungalow and 15 acres of land located in Lynch to Stavely and Bowers for $1100.

WINS SWEEPSTAKES DERBY

Randolph Waddell, a well-known traveling man in Chestertown, received a gratifying letter from The Mansfield Tire and Rubber Co., this week by whom he is employed. This letter notified him that he was the winner of $100 in cash in the June Sweepstake Derby put on by the Mansfield organization. Mr. Waddell heads the list of 3900 jobber's salesmen and is worthy of congratulation.

QUITE a change in the appearance of the old Emory property at Georgetown, Md., has been made in the last few weeks. The alterations to the property have consisted of razing several of the old outbuildings and remodeling the main residence building. The brickwork of this building had been painted yellow. This old paint is now being removed by a process used exclusively by Thomas O. Thompson, who is temporarily located in Galena, Md. This process restores the brickwork to its original appearance without any damage to the building, and upon the restoration of the red brick will certainly add to the attractiveness of this old colonial building. Modern electrical appliances have been installed, including water pump, refrigerator, range, hot water heater, etc. This property is now owned by Mr. Laidman who will make it his permanent home.

OWNERS of the row boats and launches along Chester river here are reaping a harvest of coin from Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey sportsmen who come here on Sundays for crabbing and fishing in the river.
