ROCK HALL

The outstanding topic of conversation here is the burning of Dr. W. O. Selby's dwelling early last Saturday morning. It is not known what caused the fire. Some think it may have been from the crossing of electric wires and others incline to the theory of a defective flue. Dr. Selby and his son, Owen Selby. left Benjamin Durding's pharmacy about two o'clock and drove to Skinner's Neck to see a patient. Shortly afterwards Mrs. Selby heard what sounded like an explosion or some heavily fallen object, and Mrs. Owen Selby, whose little son was just two days old, said she heard a crackling and smelled smoke. At once the third floor was found to be ablaze. The town was aroused by noises and telephones and all possible assistance hastened to the scene. The young mother and child were carried to safety and much of the downstairs furniture was saved. The house and garage were completely consumed. The engine arrived from Chestertown and chemicals were employed to help subdue the flames. The wind was very light or the fire probably would have been more disastrous to the town. The building and contents were insured with James G. Beck's agency. Rebuilding probably will begin shortly. The family is with Mrs. Selby's sister, Mrs. Warren Painter, and husband in the home that formerly was owned by Dr. Selby.

Fifty-seven boys entered in the first annual Marble Tournament last Saturday on the Elementary School grounds for the championship of "Hoodles." The tournament was sponsored by Rev. C. L. Dawson's "Silent Messenger." The contest was made without a hitch of any kind. Every boy conducted himself like a perfect gentleman. The bracket system was used and the boys eliminated each other. Francis Williams won the championship for the year. Melvin Urie was runnerup. C. Elburn and T. Warner third and fourth. Handsome prizes were donated by M. T. Miller, Mrs. Benjamin Durding and the "Silent Messenger." Frances Buckheit won the consolation prize with Clarence Thompson a close second Monday afternoon when the tournament was concluded after school.

Tomorrow is the day for opponents to the proposed fish laws to have a hearing at Annapolis. The Watermen's Protective Association of Kent County and their friends expect to be present by the hundreds. Some ladies are going along. Two steamers have been chartered to make the trip.

Much pleasure is anticipated in the minstrel entertainment to be given by the Young Men's Bible Class of Chestertown M. E. Church next Friday evening in Junior Hall here. $t is understood that they have surpassed their former efforts in the entertainment line, good as they have been.

District Superintendent O. E. Jones preached at the M. E. Church Sunday morning on the subject of "Love." The Fourth Quarterly Conference followed the service. The evening sermon was by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Revelle, from Acts of the Apostles 10:38, "who went about doing good." He was also leader of Epworth League, the subject being "Who is My Boss?" There was a large attendance at Sunday School and two vistors present. Next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock there will be a missionary service with special music and recitations. All are welcome at this church services, the hours being 10 A. M. and 2 and 7 P. M.

Elder Shadel, of Chisago., evangelist of the Seventh Day Adventist faith and former pastor of the local church, being east on church business at Washington, D. C., came to Kent where he was guest of Mr. John Thomas at Worton for a couple of days, visited the church on the Sabbath where Elder Shoup, of Baltimore, had charge for the day, and was accompanied to Chicago by Capt. and Mrs. Joshua Thomas and daughters, Elma and Dorothea, where they will spend a few days.

Inquiry of a member of the Town Council Monday evening reveals that there is as yet nothing to report about the business of the Electric Light Plant.

Herman Berg, usually called by the English rendering of the name, "Hill" has passed away after being a resident with us for many years and rearing a large family of useful sons and daughters and fine citizens. Mrs. William Cassidy, the former Miss Amanda Thompson, was brought from Baltimore and laid to rest among relatives and friends. James Stevens, whose life was passed at Swan Creek, Baltimore, Eastern Neck Island and. for a year or two, Fairlee, hasc been laid in his permanent abiding place in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. We regreat to see them go but find comfort in the belief that the Father is all-wise. He doeth all things well.

One ship goes east, another west,
By the self same winds that blow,
Tis the set of the sail, and not the gale,
That determines the way they go.

Like the winds of the sea, are the ways of fate,
As we voyage along through life,
'Tis the set of the soul that determines the goal,
And not the calm, or the strife.

Eileen Simpson, 13, of Grand Rapids, Mich., plunged into Lake Michigan last summer, saving two children out beyond their depth. For this feat she has been awarded the first National prize by the Campfire organization—a check for $1,000.

An eleven-year-old boy, Michael Ponkraskow, ran away from home after a beating, killed a shop-keeper in an attempted holdup, and is wondering what will be done with him. It is said that he cannot be treated as a youthful delinquent, because he refuses to say that he is sorry he committed the murder. A childish reason, for lack of repentance is only one more proof of youthful delinquency.

In any case, the boy will not be executed, even if put on trial for murder. Capital punishment survives, but killing children is no longer part of "civilization."
