ROCK HALL

Rock Hall—Baltimore's choicest suburb and delightful dormitory.

The calendar and blossoms say April. Three weeks ago the weather said May. The wind says March. The hail and snow say February. Take your choice. Take all variety is still the spice of life.

There are plenty of us at Rock Hall who congratulate Stephen R. Collins, State's attorney, on the raids already made on prohibition law violators. May he keep up the good work. There is plenty of need.

The Methodist Episcopal congregations listened Sunday to splendid sermons by their new pastor, the Rev. W. S. Grant, who selected in the morning the words, "We would see Jesus" from John 12:21. Epworth League at 7 o'clock was conducted by the Misses Sarah Revelle and Lillian Orr. There was a fine Sunday School. Rev. William H. Revelle went to Wilmington Sunday where he served his new pastorate at Trinity Church. He will remove his family there Thursday and Rev. Grant and family will occupy the parsonage here the same day. To the departing, Godspeed. To the the coming. Welcome.

Last Sunday week was "Family Day" at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church and a great success, with a large congregation present. The pastor, Rev. C. L. Dawson conducted the service and baptised four children, the parents of the little ones being Mr. and Mrs. Owen Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mench and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ashley. Mr. Dawson preached again last Sunday and is now attending the Maryland Annual Conference at Starr Church in Baltimore. He has been invited to return to his church here. Mrs. Dawson is with relatives in Baltimore during the conference session. The Ladies Aid Society will meet this evening at 7 o'clock in the church hall. A play, "The Rebellion of Youth,' was finely rendered in Junior Hall last night by the Triangle Club of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, for the zenefit of this chapel.

About fifty friends of the bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. Simms Jacquette, gathered at their home Monday evening to give them a serenade of splendid music by the band and a variety shower of pretty and useful things. A delightful evening was spent, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and congratulations and good wishes extended by the departing guests.

On Thursday evening, March 24th there was quite a gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Joiner in honor of Mrs. Joiner's birthday. Rook and other games were played. At ten o'clock all were invited to the dining room where cake, ice cream, sweets and nuts were served. Mrs. Joiner received some very pretty presents. We noticed among the guests Mr. and Mrs. Joiner's children, also Mrs. John Dickel, Master John Dickel, Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Mrs. Edwin Boulter, Mrs. Kate Sadler and Miss Lettice Sadler, of Baltimore. The guests departed for their homes at eleven o'clock wishing Mrs. Joiner many more happy birthdays.

The summer homes and boarding houses at Gratitude are showing signs of re-opening for spring. Mrs. Leedy and daughter were down making preparations for painting their home and, incidentally, were displaying some pretty pictures of a new granddaughter, the proud father of the little six-weeks-old girl being Deems Leedy. Mrs. Kingsland reopened her boarding house at the first of the month.
