County Correspondence

ROCK HALL

The Methodist Episcopal Church festival and supper Saturday evening drew people from several sections of the county and Baltimore who appeared to appreciate a good supper which was specially moderately priced. The ladies cleared a nice sum.

We are noting every item from the press concerning the Chesapeake Bay Bridge. Very noticeable are the wishes of the company to please all parties and so eventually to build a bridge to which no complaint can be made.

Our Jewish merchants closed their stores for the celebration of Rosh Hashonah, their New Year, and will again for Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

Mrs. R. M. Spencer, of Catonsville, Secretary for Sabbath Schools of the Chesapeake Conference, was present at the seventh Day Adventist church and addressed the Sabbath School. She was a guest of Capt. and Mrs. Joshua Thomas.

Raum M. P. Chapel announces that their Sunday School will start next Sunday at 2 P. M., C. E. Society at 7 P. M., and Church worship at 7:30 P. M. The Near East Relief will show pictures at the church Sunday night. The pastor Rev. C. L. Dawson, superintendent Mr. James Boulter, and the members invite everybody to come to all services. There is a welcome for all.

Wesley Chapel, M. P., C. L. Dawson, pastor, S. Elwood Burgess, superintendent. Sunday School 10:30 A. M., Church 10:45 A. M., Wesley Chapel will hold their annual fall festival Thursday, Oct. 6th. They will have with them next Sunday a Near East speaker. Everybody welcome.

There were a hundred and eighty-five, including three visitors at Sunday School in the M. E. Church. The school next Sunday will return to the 2 P. M. hour until summer comes again. That will make the hour for preaching 10 A. M., which will be followed by Holy Communion. Rally Day will be celebrated at 7 P. M. the evening of October 9th. The third quarterly conference will be held the 15th of October, Saturday evening. The Ladies Aid meets at the church this afternoon and there will be choir practice Friday evening. The Strawbridge Home for Boys will be the recipient of all fruits and vegetables contributed for the Rally Day service. The sermons last Sunday were delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Grant, who had selected Psalm 1:3 for the morning "And he shall be like a tree"; and II Samuel 12:13 for the evening; discoursing of "A great sinner—a great repentance—a great forgiveness." The Epworth League preceded the evning sermon. It was led by Miss Lillian Orr and the topic was discussed by Miss Mabel Webb. A reading was made by Miss Esther Grant and a solo sung by Mr. Clifton Simms. Some visitors from St. James are expected to the League next Sunday evening. A hearty invitation is extended to all to come to this church of a hearty invitation is extended to all to come to this church of geniality and brotherhood.

Among people who have added improvements and fresh paint to their dwellings are Capt. Frank Satterfield, Harry Scoone and Harry Lake.

Many of us are anticipating the B. & O. Centennial Exhibition and pageant in Baltimore shortly.

While the nights are chilly the equinox passed us by with only a dry wind storm. There has been but one very light frost that did no damage to tomatoes or corn. The canneries are making very good time for employees as yet.

There was a large attendance last Thursday afternoon at the Women Club that met at the home of Mrs. James Wheeler. Hats, no two of the same shade, were rapidly taking shape, those who knew how assisting the beginners. These meetings form an association to promote sociability and fellowship.

Miss Elizabeth Weaver, who had spent the week end with her mother Mrs. Anna Weaver, was among those aboard the ferry Express, when she spent the night crossing the bay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willson. of Camden, N. J., spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Carroll Willson and Mr. and Mrs. David Ayres. Mrs. Willson attended the morning services at the M. E. Church.

JR. O. U. A. M. HALL
Rock Hall, Md.
PICTURE PARLOR

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1st
Carl Laemmle presents
JEAN HERSHOLT,
ENID BENNETT
And Others in
"THE WRONG MR. WRIGHT"
A terrible mix-up in the corset business and a gorgeous new idea in ladies lingerie help Cupid in the funniest love affair you've ever seen.
Also Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5th
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents
FRANCIS McDONALD
In a galloping romance of the golden West—
"THE VALLEY OF HELL"
A rapid-fire nerve tingling action—romance of the Golden West featuring a cast of 150, including the famous Big Horn Ranch Riders.
Also Chapter 7 of "The Return of the Riddle Rider," and Comedy.

Beginning Saturday, Oct. 1st,
Doors open at 7 P. M.
Pictures Start at 8 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Culley have found the past three weeks at their packing house busy ones. Last week end they entertained their children, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Guthrie and baby and Miss Grace Culley, of Galena, also Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Coffay, of Baltimore.

The Ellicott City Times of Sept. 12th, in reference to the West Friendship High School which has just been made a first group school, says "When this school goes, next session, to full four-year standing we are informed that it will have, as principal Alfred E. Culley, a man who has behind him a successful record at Ellicott City High School." Prof. Culley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Culley and a graduate of Washington College.

Mrs. Samuel Coleman is visiting her children, Mr. and Mrs. William Penn, having come from Philadelphia where she was with another daughter, Mrs. Peterman.

Mrs. Edwin Smith, Sr., of Frankford, Pa., is a guest of her son, Mr. Edwin Smith and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Apple and Mrs. Rutherford Maldies and son, of Baltimore, spent the week end with Mrs. Maldies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman, and other relatives and friends. Mrs. Coleman accompanied them to Kent Island Sunday where they were guest of Mrs. Apple's sister.

Mrs. Sarah Crosby was a guest Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Satterfield.

Mrs. Romie Harris has been quite sick for a week or two. She is attended by her daughter, Mrs. Price.

Mrs. Mary Tarr attended Divine worship Sunday after being quite sick for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Newnam, of Chestertown, and a friend visited Mrs. Newnam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Colison, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Gesswein will go to Baltimore Saturday for a week's visit.

Mr. Ralph Blackiston came from Boston several days ago on a visit to his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Neal Willson and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Blackiston. Miss Ione Blackiston and little brotherfi Laurel, have both been sick for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Baker are receiving congratulations on the arrival of an infant daughter last Monday.

Mr. Roland Bedwell is spending a three weeks vacation from his duties aboard the steamer Erisson at his home in Piney Neck.

Miss Julia Atkinson. having returned to Baltimore after spending the summer here, was guest last week end of her mother, Mrs. Hannah Atkinson.

Mrs. William Biggs, who has been in Baltimore the past two weeks, returned yesterday accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Gladys Colison, who went over Sunday. Mr. William Stewart, of Baltimore, was a week end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Colison.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wheeler entertained recently the latter's sister, Mrs. Frank Keenan. and two sons, Thomas and Milton Keenan, of Philadelphia.

Mr. George Kendall. who had a fall aboard his boat several weeks ago and hurt his side and back, is getting along very well now.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles R. Kerr spent Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ruthwin Strong in Broad Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, of Baltimore, are guests of their father, Capt. Charles E. Davis, called here by the death of their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Norris Stevens have arrived from Portland, Me., on a three week's visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ovilla Stevens making the trip by motor in two days

Mr. and Mrs. James Joiner entertained last Sunday week their sons, the Messrs. Walter and Fountain Joiner, also Miss Kraft and Miss Waltz, all of Baltimoe. Another son Mr. Thomas Catlin Joiner, his wife and three children who have been at Fort Benning. Ga., the past year; spent the month of July with them.

Miss Carrie Dowling was overnight and Sunday guest of Miss Lula Lassen in Swan Creek.

Mrs. John R. Dowling, Sr., her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Warner and children went to Quaker Neck last Sunday where they were guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Jack Coleman, at the home of her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Nelson Stevens. their daughters, the Misses Julia, Carolyn and Jean Stevens, and Mr. Black Bruner, of Baltimore, spent the week end at their summer home in Swan Creek, several of the party remaining longer. The Messrs. Robt. and James Stevens with their sisters Misses Laurinne and Emily Stevens are at present making a tour of some European countries.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Erickson, their four children and a friend motored from Philadelphia Saturday and were Sunday guests of Mrs. Erickson's brother, Mr. Melvin Rodney, and wife and other relatives here.

Mrs. Thomas Tucker was a visitor to Baltimore yesterday. Other membes of the party were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Miller and Mrs. Elwood Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chance and children, of Chester, Pa., were guests ove the week end of Mrs. Chance's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Neal Willson.

Mr. Ralph Bean. of Keyser, W. Va., who was lately appointed to run the power plant here will shortly become a resident of the town. His wife and child are here on a visit at present.

The town was a-tip-toe yesterday to see the demonstration of a fire engine but a bearing burnt out above Chestertown and the machine may not reach here at all.

GALENA

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Redding. of near town entertained over the week end their son, Harry Redding, Jr., of Fort Myer, Virginia, Dr. and Mrs. William Redding and Mrs. Julia Sisson and three children of Washington, D. C.

Mr. Llewellen Thomas, of Brazil, has entered the Episcopal High School at Charlottesville, Virginia, after a pleasant visit with his aunt, Mrs. Jessie Ireland. Mr. James Thomas has returned to University of Virginia. The Thomas boys are grandsons of Mrs. Lucy Cruickshank.

Mrs. Holton Parr has returned home after spending a few days last week with her aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Todd.

Miss Pauline Carter, of near Chestertown, was the guest of Miss Mary Scotten on Sunday.

The Willing Workers Sunday School Class held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Miss Nellie Dempsey on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. William Stradley, of Wilmington, is the guest of her mother. Mrs. Emma Stradley and sons, William and Charles.

Mr. John Quinn, of Atlantic City, N. J., spent part of last week with his father Mr. John Quinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Cannan, of Camden, N. J., were Saturday visitors in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price and son, of near Betterton, Mrs. William B. Price, of Still Pond, and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Redding and children, of near Warwick were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redding of near town.

Mrs. Michael Burns and Mrs. Harry Burnie, of Baltimore, who have been visiting relatives in town returned home on Tuesday.

Mr. Harry L. Woodburn, of Smyrna, Del., was in town on Monday.

Mr. Marion Rosin, of Washington College, Chestertown, was the week end guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Kathryn Smith.

Mr. Louis Cruickshank has returned to Philadelphia, after a visit with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Cruickshank.

Rev. and Mrs. Ivanhoe Willis and Mr. William Jones, visited friends at Tilghman's Island on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Miss Mary Caldwell, of Beacom Business College, Wilmington, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Caldwell over the week end.

Miss Nellie Dempsey visited relatives in Wilmington on Thursday and Friday of last week.

Hanson Horsey, Jr., of Millington visited his father and grandmother on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jarman and sons, of near Centreville, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Eva McCauley.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brockson and child, of near Elkton, were guests of his mother, Capt. and Mrs. Walter T. Hadley on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craddock and son, Jr., of Moore, Pa., spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Josephine Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Caldwell motored to Philadelphia on Saturday and spent a few days with his sister Mr. and Mrs. Granville Ward and family.

Mrs. George Nicholson, of Cecil County, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mulford.

Mrs. Clinton Guthrie and little daughter Gladys Elizabeth and sister, Miss Grace Culley visited Mr. and Mrs. William B. Guthrie at Kenton on Saturday.

Miss May Cruickshank spent several days last week with her sister. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morgan and family, of Cecil County.

Mr. Harper Moore, of Washington College, Chestertown, spent the week end with his cousin Mr. Chester Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McKenzie, of Belmore, spent Sunday with relatives in town.

Miss Elmina Woodall, of Beacom Business College and brother, Andrew, of Wilmington, were week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Holt Woodall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurlock Gale and son, Walter and Mr. and Mrs. W. Leo Gale, of Millington, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gale.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, of Chestertown, were Sunday visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kelley.

Cecilton Soccer team defeated Galena at the High School grounds on Friday, score 1 to 0.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Caldwell, of near town, have as their guest her brother, Mr. Arthur King, of Baltimore.

Sunday will be Rally Day in M. E. Church in the morning, the Sunday School will give a program and Dr. John Titsworth, president, of Washington College, Chestertown, will deliver a message at the evening service.

Misses Mary and Eva McCauley, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with their mother, Mrs. Eva McCauley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper Spry, of Wilmington, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Skinner on Saturday.

Mrs. Norman Merchant and children, Elizabeth, Norma and Norman have returned home after visiting her mother at Golts.

Miss Theresa Scott returned to Delaware College, Newark, on Monday for her Junior Year.

Miss Mary Scotten has returned home after spending a few days with Miss Pauline Carter near Chestertown.

Mr. Lemuel Mark is spending a few days in Baltimore and enjoying the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad celebration.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mrs. Louise Lamborn, of Baltimore, visited Mrs. Emma Shafer for a few days.

Mrs. E. E. Hudson, of Chestertown visited her sister, Mrs. Susie J. Shallcross on Sunday.

Mr. C. Howell Crew visited his aunt, Miss Lula Van Dyke on Tuesday.

Mrs. Alphonsa Rasin, of Chestertown, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Urie.

Mrs. May Webb Spry was brought home from Easton hospital on Sunday. She is still in bed but improving and more comfortable.

Some of her many friends visited her on Monday and found her very bright and cheerful.

Mrs. A. Hessner and daughter visited their relative Mrs. Hadley, of Galena. on Sunday.

Misses Edith and Harriett Walls spent the week end in Baltimore with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Van Dyke enjoyed a trip to Valley Forge with their son Mr. Ralph T. Van Dyke, wife and daughter on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lipscomb had as guests over the week end Mrs. Annie Rook, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rook and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sutton and son, from Wilmington. Their daughter Miss Carrie May Lipscomb spent the Sunday with them too.

Mr. James L. Van Dyke is visiting his neice, Mrs. Katie V. Crew and family for a short while.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Young visited relatives in Queen Annes on Sunday.

Mr. Robert Lusby, of Wilmington, visited his friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver and child, spent the week end with Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Hager.

Mr. and Mrs. Kapernack and child Miss Mary Robinson, Miss Oliffe with other friends of Philadelphia, spent the week end with relatives in our village.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald and Mrs. Rachel Hill visited Mr. and Mrs. Green near Church Hill on Wednesday.

Rev. H. C. Hager called a meeting of all the young people of the community to meet at the parsonage on Wednesday evening.

Important business to be discussed.

The Sunday School week will begin on Oct. 9th and if possible a speaker will be here to address the school at the morning service. Arrangements have been made for an address by one of our ministers at one of the evening meetings. Announcement of which will be made later.

These services will continue throughout the entire week, as usual.

Leader for next Sunday Christian Endeavor will be Mrs. George Johnston.

Topic "How can we make our Society more successful? Phil 3:13-17.

Extra music. Come out and help with these services. Sermon by pastor.

BETTERTON

Miss Florence Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens, has entered Bryant-Stratton Business School in Baltimore.

The last moonlight excursion of the season came on Monday evening a good crowd took advantage of the fine evening and made the trip. This also marks the last dance of the season to be held in the Betterton Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brice, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with the parents of the former Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brice.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Crew, of Philadelphia, were week end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crew.

Mr. Lemuel Hickman, of near Betterton, has been quite a sufferer from burns which he received when spraying his chicken house. It is supposed that some of the fumes entered his lungs as the trouble is internal as well as external.

A company from Florida presented a pleasing entertainment in the school building on Wednesday evening of last week. The elementary children took part in the tableaus and there were additional numbers by local talent. The school received part of the proceeds.

Mr. Talbot Brice has returned to Washington College, where he is in the Junior class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anthony, of near Locust Grove, spent Sunday with the parents of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brice and daughter, spent Sunday with Mrs. Brice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Story, in Chestertown.

Mrs. Arthur Elliott and son Bobby, of Eagle Heights, Pa., have been spending several days with Miss Ethel Clark. Mr. Elliott and son Arthur were guests for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brice have closed the Rigbie Hotel and moved into their bungalow on Bayside for the winter months.

Mr. Charles Willis has returned to Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., for his second year.

Miss Catherine Wheeler of M. S. N. S. Towson, and Mr. Horace Wheeler, of Baltimore County, spent the past weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Owens and small son, of Middletown, were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens.

Mr. Walter Greenwood, of near Kennedyville, spent the week end with his aunt, Mrs. Mary Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore and son Herbert, Jr., of Baltimore, spent the week end in their bungalow on Bayside. Miss Naudain Moore, of Washington College, was a week end guest.

Dr. and Mrs. Workman have returned from their wedding trip which was spent in the New England States.

Mr. Walter McGinness, of Roxana, Del., was a week end guest of Mrs. Edithe Anderson at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair Turner.

"But surely seeing is believing."

"Not necessarily; I see you every day."

STILL POND

Mrs. J. M. Norris and sister Miss Lillie Cornelious have returnel home after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Morris at Ocean City, N. J.

Mrs. J. W. Robinson, spent several days this week with her daughter Mrs. Wm. Davis in Baltimore.

Mrs. S. B. Parrott is spending this week in Philadelphia.

Frances Hill, of Kennedyville, spent the week end with her friend Catherine Norris.

Mrs. Susie Susie Toulson and daughter Miss Louise, Messrs. Thomas Mann and Dunwood Gosman spent Sunday in Wilmington, Del.

The second and third quarterly conference will meet this Thursday evening in the Sunday School room. The Ladies Aid will serve dinner at 6:30. Dr. Johns, of Grace Church, Wilmington, Del., will be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Holton Parr, of Baltimore, Md., have been spending several days here.

Mrs. Harrison, of Perryville, Md., has been visiting Miss Alice Maxwell.

The Devotional Service of the Epworth League will be lead on Sunday evening by Rev. C. W. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weist and family from near Millington spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark.

The Parr property which was sold on last Saturday was bought by Mr. Oliver Jervis and he expects to move there in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson have moved into the Jarvis house recently tenated by Mrs. Ella Parrott.

"Am I the first girl you ever kissed?"

"Now that you mention it, you do look familiar."

"May, I'm surprised. You're dress barely covers your body."

"Well, what's the matter with my body?"

Judge: "Thirty days—"

Speeder: "Oh I know that one! Thirty days hath September, April—

DR. H. T. WORKMAN, DENTIST
Specialist In Extracting
Plates, Crowns, Bridgework, Filling
Alveolar Teeth—Staytite Plates
All Work Guaranteed—Extracting Free
When Having Other Work Done
Chestertown, 347 High St.
Opposite M. E. Church
Hours 9 to 5 Daily
Phone 88W
Betterton
Home Cottage
Hours 7 to 9 P. M.
Phone 39F22

The Turning Point

IN each life there comes a turning point where money is absolutely necessary. Nothing takes its place. It has no substitute

When that turning point comes in your life—as it does to every one in the world—will you have money in the bank here to meet it.

We Pay 4½% on Savings Deposits

The Citizens Bank
CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.
GEO. D. LOFLAND, PRES.

DIRECTORS
HARRY NICOLS
D. THOS. HURLOCK
S. T. PIPPIN
JAMES E. MORRIS
WM. M. CULP
E. L. REDMILE
JOHN W. BARROLL
GEORGE D. LOFLAND

New Sport Coats

Tweed Sport Coats beautifully tailored, full-lined and trimmed with and without fur collars featuring the newest lines of the Season.

Fur collars are of Beaver, Silver Kit Fox, Oppossum and other fashionable pelts.

You are cordially invited to visit our COAT DEPARTMENT and to inspect our new stock throughout the Woman's Shop.

COATS
27.50 - $65.00

"The Woman's Shop"
Harry F. Jefferson
Chestertown, Md.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_36_1-0377.jpg