County Correspondence

ROCK HALL

Winter winds have been with us for several days following a night of copious rain, wafting about a few flakes of snow Friday and forming quarter-inch ice Saturday night.

Friday 11th, is Armistice Day. Ne'er forget! Ne'er forget!

Seventh Day Adventist Church orchestra was organized Monday evening 31st, with a membership of sixteen and the following officers: Instructor, Charles Judefind; leader, Newton Downey; secretary, Miss Etta Coleman; treasurer, Clifton Downey.

Poles distributed beside the state road and water pipes beside the town streets betoken that the Electric Light Company and the Town Council are both attending to business.

Rev. C. L. Dawson preached at Wesley Chapel Sunday morning to the Jr. O. U. A. M. Society who attended in a body. Next Sunday the D. of A. will be special guests at 10:45 a. m., at a similar service. Sunday School met at 9:30 a. m. with an attendance of 146. Miss Iva Tuebner, of Salisbury, sang a solo during the church service and she and Mr. Joseph McGrath of Crisfield, rendered a fine duet in Sunday School.

The wind was keen but there were good attendances at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday. The pastor Rev. W. S. Grant, delivered the morning sermon from John 13:35, "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples," stressing obedience, loyalty and faith. Holy communion followed. The evening sermon was "Father's Love" from the story of the prodigal son, "And he arose and came to his father," Luke 15:20. This followed the Epworth League which was led by Miss Lillian Orr, president, in the absence of the appointee, Miss Ella Wirts. A quartette was sung by Mrs. W. S. Grant, her sons, Mr. Leonard Grant, of Wilmington, and Mr. Stanley Grant, of Baltimore, and Mr. Louis Carroll, of Easton. The latter will be the leader of singing at the every evening services for the next two weeks. There will be solos, quartettes and many special numbers. The Misses Lillian and Frances Orr sang a duet and Mr. Martin Sutton talked on the evening topic. Sunday School had ten visitors and numbered two hundred twenty-seven but is still striving for a quarter thousand. This Dollar Day was a fine success. Visitors are cordially invited to the church of geniality and brotherhood. Monday evening a class meeting was led by Mr. Marion Coleman and a sermon from Romans 5:20 "Where sin abounded grace did much more abound." Theme "Christ and Adam." It was announced that Rev. Atkinson from Concord would preach Tuesday evening and there would be various ministers to assist with the extra meetings.

Miss Jennie Hadaway entertained from Friday to Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Hammon Brewington, daughter, Miss Frances, sister, Miss Emma Brewington, and Miss Iva Tuebner, of Salisbury,, and Mr. Joseph McGrath, of Crisfield.

Mrs. P. B. Rasin, of Worton, visited her sister, Mrs. John Coleman, from Monday to Wednesday last week at the home of her son, Mr. George Coleman. Mrs. Rasin was accompanied home by her sister for a short visit.

Mrs. Clay Hadaway was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. C. A. Blackiston, and Mr. Blackiston. Mrs. Charles Crouch was their guest yesterday.

A variety shower was given to the recent bride and groom Mr. and Mrs. Nelson LeCompte Tuesday evening, Nov. 1st, at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman. A pleasant evening of games and music was followed by refreshments of cake and lemonade. The honor guests received many nice presents and wishes for happiness. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Bertha Coleman and children, Mrs. Joseph Viskovich, Miss Pearl Hubbard, Mrs. George Coleman, Misses Etta Coleman, Naomi, Elmer and Dorothy Thomas, Esther Bramble, Mary Judefind, Bernice Crouch, Sarah Bigelow, Elizabeth Atkinson, Eva Mae Witt, Mrs. John Bramble, Mrs. Anna Jones, Mrs. Harry Wright and baby, Mrs. Henry Donaldson, Mrs. Charles Hynson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zimmerman and baby, Mrs. Charles Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Downey, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Witt, Messrs. James and Monroe Coleman, Glenwood Thomas, Hilton and Robert Wright, George Hynson and George Coleman.

The yacht "Serenia," J. P. Morgan owner, arrived in our harbor, Thursday afternoon and stayed a couple of days that one of her crew, Mr. Conoway Ashley, might visit his mother, Mrs. Selby Beck in Piney Neck before going south for the winter. For the past three months the yacht, which is an 85 foot house boat type, has been at New York and vicinity, spending part of the time at Atlantic City. The vessel came through the Delaware and Raritan Canal to Delaware Bay. The latter part of the trip was via the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal and the bay. She will proceed to Morehead City, N. C., and await the arrival of owner and guests before proceeding to Miami, Fla., where she will winter until May and possibly may pay a visit to the South Sea Islands before returning north. Mr. Ashley is interested in navigation and such a trip would be a splendid practical opportunity for progress in the study.

Mrs. Roland Bedwell spent overnight Wednesday in Baltimore and attended ladies night of Corinthian Lodge No. 93 A. F. and A. M. There was a delightful entertainment and splendid supper at which the favors were electric lamps shaped as caravels for each lady present.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Moffett's week end guests were their daughter Miss Thelma Moffett, student of State Normal School, Towson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burnup, of Oakland, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burnup and daughter, Evelyn, Miss Mildred Burnup and Mrs. Kate Burnup, all of Baltimore. Mr. Howard Burnup called on his friend, Mr. Walter Briers, but was unable to see him, he being on a visit to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Price Orr and family entertained at Sunday dinner Miss Ursula Moffett, Mr. Frank Moffett, Mr. Martin Sutton and Mr. Irving Crouch, all of whom later attended evening service at the M. E. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar N. Culley had with them Sunday their children, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Guthrie and little daughter and Miss Grace Culley, of Galena.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles Kendall's Sunday guests were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reeder, of Baltimore, Mrs. Millard Gibson and little Jean, of Rich Neck.

Mrs. Rose Newell, of Baltimore, made a five day visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gesswein.

Rev. and Mrs. John R. Diehl have returned to their home at Greenwood, Del., after spending several days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zimmerman have moved from Baltimore and taken rooms with Mrs. Zimmerman's aunt, Miss Mary Judefind.

Thelma, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mench, is at home from school with whooping cough but is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Joseph Jones spent several days last week in Baltimore.

Mr. T. William Taylor spent from Sunday to Wednesday with his children in Baltimore.

Mrs. Abner Thompson, of Trenton, N. J., is spending some time with Mrs. Harry Lake. Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, of Baltimore, came Sunday because of the death of Mr. Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. James Perry held a family reunion last Sunday at their home in Sandy Bottom. Dinner was served at two o'clock. It comprised the delectable menu of baked duck, chicken, roast pig, ham, salads, macaroni, biscuits, rolls, pickles, celery, olives and coffee. The family consisted of Mr. and Mrs. James Perry, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hague, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wheat, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strang, Mr. and Mrs. George Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Clark, Mr. Harvey Webster, Mr. Webster Clark, Mrs. Sarah Whaland, Mrs. Mary Griffith, Mrs. Elmer Hague, the Misses Nina Clark, Dorothy, Marguerite and Gertrude Hague, Hilda, Catherine and Opal Perry, Catherine Strang and Rosalie Middleton, Messrs. Roland, Earl Jr., Irvin, Daniel and Dumont Perry, Leslie and Whaland Clark, Walton Middleton, Richard and Herbert Hague.

Mrs. Ralph Blackiston is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Walter Morris, near Fairlee.

Mrs. C. C. Wood is sick at her home on Eastern Neck Island. Her grandson, Mr. Samuel Willson, is feeling very much under the weather.

Miss Hazel Bryden, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bryden.

Miss Viola Colison and Mr. Ted Deppie, of Baltimore, were Sunday guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colison.

Mrs. Tilden Willson was a visitor to Baltimore last Thursday and Friday.

Mr. Franklin Carter has a badly abscessed thumb.

Miss Elizabeth Ford was overnight guest Monday of Miss Charlotte Hubbard.

Mrs. Carroll Shriver is having some trouble with heart affection.

Capt. James Dolan has had a stroke of paralysis and is very ill.

Mrs. David B. Joiner is suffering with neuritis in the right shoulder.

Mr. Stang has moved from Green Lane to the town.

Mrs. Franklin Shreck spent from Tuesday to Sunday with her son, Mr. Alvin Shreck and wife. Her daughter, Miss Myrtle Shreck and Mr. Edward Krapp spent Sunday here and accompanied her home to Baltimore.

Coloner and Mrs. Ivers Leonard entertained at Hallowe'en in appropriate manner and in costume. Their guests were a daughter, Mrs. Alice Holmes from Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hartman and daughter, from Chestertown.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Grant entertained over the week end their sons, Mr. Leonard Grant, of Wilmington, and Mr. Stanley Grant, of Baltimore. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wharton and adopted son and Mr. and Mrs. Vineyard, of Houston, Del. Mr. Louis Carroll, of Easton, is spending a couple of weeks with them.

Miss Ella Wirts is making a visit in Baltimore.

Capt. Hillry Akers came from New Castle, Del., and accompanied his family last Thursday to their new home in that town.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles Thomas entertained last week end their son, Mr. Walter Thomas, and little grandson, Clyde Thomas, of Baltimore.

Mr. Biggs Harrison, of Baltimore, was week end guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Biggs, and other relatives.

Piney Neck School held a festival last Thursday evening and cleared about sixty dollars which will be spent for improvements in the school room.

The Rock Hall High School soccer team has employed a coach from Baltimore for ten days. The girls have kindly arranged to defray expenses so the boys may give their time to the game.

Swan Creek School held a Hallowe'en social Monday evening that was a huge enjoyement under the leadership of the teacher, Miss Gertrude Willson. Appropriate games were played and cake, lemonade and apples consumed.

Chestertown's slogans and their victory in the soccer game there last Thursday were taken in a sporting manner by our high-spirited boys and girls, but people don't like the insults that were heaped upon Rock Hall and it's people through their sons and daughters after the game was over. When Chestertown visits Rock Hall we will try to heap coals of fire on their heads.

Our Volunteer Fire Company will have its new engine and house open for inspection by December 15th. Meantime on the 8th, they are planning one of the most delicious suppers ever served in this town. They ask patronage and assistance from the whole county as they plan to answer calls when and where needed.

Rev. T. S. Barrett is holding a series of successful meetings the evenings of last and this week in Grace M. E. Chapel. Piney Neck.

The Rock Hall Council No. 25, Daughters of America, celebrated with their annual supper and entertainment last evening in K. of P. Hall. There were present from Chestertown the deputy, Mrs. Wm. J. Kirby, Mrs. Sarah Pfeffer, Mrs. Wm. Goss, Mrs. Agnes Chaires, Mrs. Dora Hadaway and Mrs. Vickers Walbert. A short address was made by Rev. W. S. Grant, several solos were sung by Mr. Louis Carroll. of Easton. Rev. C. L. Dawson rendered a number of selections on the piano. The pleasant evening was terminated early as many wanted to hear the Gospel message delivered at the M. E. Church by Rev. Atkinson, of Concord.

GALENA

Mrs. William Towler and Miss Hilda Boyd visited their aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Cochran in Baltimore on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mrs. H. Josephine Davis is spending some time with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craddock at Moore, Pa.

Last week Mr. E. L. Pyle sold his home, "The Shorewood Farm" to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Charles Ingraham, of Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham moved on Saturday.

On Tuesday last Mr. and Mrs. James A. Quinn moved into part of Mrs. Kathryn Hyland's home. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moore and family moved into the house vacated by Mr. Quinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton W. Guthrie and daughter Gladys Elizabeth and Miss Grace Culley spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Culley at Gratitude near Rock Hall.

Mr. Herbert McCauley and friend, both members of Maryland State Motor Police Corps, spent Sunday with relatives and friends in town.

The Ladies of the Methodist Church cleared more than one hundred and twenty five dollars at their peultry and oyster supper on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nicholson, of Cecil County, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mulford over the week end.

Mrs. Terry Mitchell and little son Terry have returned to their home in Waynesboro, Pa., after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. VanSant.

Mrs. Kathryn Hyland and Miss Annie Hayes who have been visiting for some weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hayes and family of Hyland Park, New Jersey, returned home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jefferis, of Wilmington, Mrs. Linda Walls and son, John, spent Sunday with their cousins, the Brambles near Locust Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newcomb are receiving congratulations on the birth of a fine daughter on Saturday morning.

Mrs. George R. Jones was a week end visitor with relatives in Baltimore.

The Hustlers Sunday School class was entertained at the home of Robt. Welch at Georgetown on Friday evening.

Miss Carrie M. Dempsey, of Wesley Collegiate Institute, Dover, Del., was the week end guest of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Dempsey.

Mr. Chester M. Davis, of Beacom Business College and cousin Harper Moore, of Wilmington, visited Mrs. Ora Davis on Sunday.

Mr. Keith Cochran, Jr., who has been spending some time with relatives and friends in New York and Philadelphia, returned home on Sunday.

Miss Fannie Boyd has returned home after quite a stay with her sister Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nichols and family in Baltimore.

Miss Marian Caldwell, of Chestertown, and Miss Mary Caldwell, of Beacom Business College, Wilmington, Delaware, were week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Caldwell.

Rev. and Mrs. Ivanhoe Willis and Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Mark attended the Middletown District Preachers meeting at Tilghman's Island on Monday.

Mr. L. R. Van Sant has returned home after a few days spent with his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Mitchell and little son at Waynesboro, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cannan, of Camden, New Jersey, were visitors in town on Saturday.

Miss Mary Cruickshank is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Bond at Port Deposit.

Mr. William Holden, of Baltimore spent Sunday with friends in town.

Mr. Virgil Smith, of Philadelphia, vsited his wife at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Jarman over the week end.

The members of St. Dennis' Catholic Church will hold poultry and oyster suppers on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Mrs. Clinton Guthrie was the leader at Epworth League on Sunday evening. After the League service, Misses Hilda Boyd and Nellie Dempsey gave reports on the Epworth League Cornvertion held at Still Pond.

There will be Armistice Day services at the Methodist Episcopal Church at twelve o'clock on Friday. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Galena Soccer Ball team defeated Millington team at Millington on Friday, with a score 24 to 0.

Mr. Oliver Pennington, of Washington, has returned home after spending a few days with his mother Mrs. Elizabeth Walmsley.

Miss Elmina Woodall of Beacom Business College and brother, Andrew, of Wilmington, were week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Holt Woodall.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Jarvis and family on Sunday visited his brother Caleb, who is quite sick in the hospital.

Mr. Richard Scotten and sister, Miss Mary, motored to Baltimore on Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. James Scotten and Miss Selma, who have been spending some time in the city returned home with them.

Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Hungerford and nephew Robert, of Georgetown, Del., spent part of last week with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walmsley at Georgetown, Cecil County.

Quite a number are planning to attend The Standard Training School for Sunday School workers to be held in Chestertown M. E. Church.

KENNEDYVILLE

Rev. H. C. Hager and Mrs. Hager returned home on Friday.

Mrs. Hoover, of Baltimore, is visiting her daughter and son-in-law at the M. P. Parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jester, of Baltimore, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haggerty.

Miss Mildred Newton returned to her nursing duties on Sunday after being at home with her mother and sisters for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Rasin, of Millington, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Richard Rasin.

Miss Anna C. Wiltbank, of Wilmington, spent the week end with her relatives on the farm.

Miss Arrie Divine, of Elkton, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Boyd Primrose at Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jewell.

Mrs. Pearl Walls has been in Baltimore visiting her parents for the past few days.

Mrs. Frank C. Cain, of Hurlock, Md., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Othoson, and on Sunday evening, helped with the singing at the Christian Endeavor meeting.

Mrs. Cain, Mrs. Kennedy and Mr. Othoson sang a very pretty trio.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Van Dyke and daughter, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Williams and family.

Miss Elizabeth Ann Crow entertained at cards on Friday evening. Refreshments served at a late hour. Everyone had a delightful evening.

Mr. Harry Merridith, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haggerty for a few days.

Miss Elizabeth Hurlock and two school friends of Philadelphia spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hurlock.

Mrs. John E. Hessner was quite sick last week from tonsilitis but is now able to be about once more.

Mr. G. Richard Rasin was housed for several days but is now much improved.

Mr. Bert Newton spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Maggie Newton.

Misses Daisey Ford and Della Spry, of Wilmington, were home this week end.

Mrs. Ringgold of Crumpton, is spending sometime with her daughter, Mrs. Starkey and Mr. Starkey.

Mrs. George Johnston entertained the Sunday School teachers and officers on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. James E. Weer, of Baltimore, visited her relatives here, this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boggs and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Boggs and daughter Sara, visited friends in Queen Anne on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Van Dyke and son Bobby, visited Fairlee relatives on Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis and grand-daughter, Jane, returned home with them and are spending a few days on the farm as their guests.

Miss Gladys Archibald is much better and has returned to High School, was absent a week suffering from poisoned hands and face.

Mrs. Hetty H. Boyer, of Baltimore, visited her brother, Mr. Walter S. Hill and family.

The suuper and fancy table on Saturday night of the M. P. Church took in about $210.00.

Miss Emma C. Shafer spent Sunday and Monday with her mother in Baltimore.

Miss Helen Comegys, of Wilmington, visited friends near our village for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Young, spent Sunday with relatives at Betterton.

Miss Carry May Lipscomb, of Wilmington, spent the week at home.

Mrs. Joseph Oliffe, Sr., is much improved at this writing.

Our community was shocked on Saturday evening when they heard of the sudden death of Mrs. Henrietta Roeder, wife of the late Mr. Geo. O. Roeder. Funeral was from her late home on Tuesday at eleven o'clock. Interment in Shrewsbury. Her neice, Mrs. Bruce Dukes and husband have our sympathy in their loss of this loved one leaving them. They will miss her very much in their home.

The Christian Endeavor on Sunday Nov. 13th will be lead by Miss Emma C. Shafer, topic, "The good and the bad in newspapers, and magazines, Matt. 4:23-25 verses.

BETTERTON

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church served supper to a very large crowd last Saturday evening in the basement of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gooding and three daughters, of Wilmington, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brice. The latter accompanied them to Wilmington where they will visit for several days.

Mr. Reese Crew and two friends, of Philadelphia, were week end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crew.

Miss Florence Owens, of Bryant-Stratton Business College, Baltimore, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens.

Among those from here who attended the Episcopal Laymen's supper in the Parish House of Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, on Thursday evening of last week were Messrs. James Sutton, Harry Meeks, Elmer Thomas and Merritt Sutton.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Minster, of Philadelphia, spent the week end at their cottage. Westminster Inn, and enjoyed the supper served at the M. E. Church.

Miss Martha Rasin and friend, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lotan Rasin.

Misses Mary and Bessie Taylor, of Wilmington, spent last week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Taylor.

Among the visitors to Wilmington last week were Mrs. Ewell Wilmer and daughter, Mrs. Norman Crew, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mr. Frank Bowman and Mr. James Wilmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton Silcox and family, of Pennsylvania, have moved on the farm of Mr. Thomas Silcox. They have many relatives and friends here who welcome them back

Continued on Page Five

JR. O. U. A. M. HALL
Rock Hall, Md.
PICTURE PARLOR

SATURDAY, NOV. 12th
Carl Laemmle presents
NORMAN KERRY and CLAIRE WINDSOR in
"THE CLAW"
A pulse-quickening drama of three human hearts struggling to find true love in the depths of darkest Africa. A tale of war, romance, adventure, jealously and thrills in the African wilds.
Also Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 16th
Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents
LARS HANSON, PAULINE STARKE, MARCELINE DAY and ERNEST TORRENCE in
"CAPTAIN SALVATION"
Here is a story of the sea that will take you out of yourself. A provocative beauty cast up by an angry ocean, brings trouble and the shadow of disaster to the life of a young mariner. But she brings, too, a love that no hardship can overcome. A sea-thriller you won't forget.
Also Chapter 3 of "Whispering Smith Rides." And Comedy.

The Turning Point

IN each life there comes a turning point where money is absolutely necessary. Nothing takes its place. It has no substitute

When that turning point comes in your life—as it does to every one in the world—will you have money in the bank here to meet it.

We Pay 4½% on Savings Deposits

The Citizens Bank

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

GEO. D. LOFLAND, PRES.

DIRECTORS

HARRY NICOLS
D. THOS. HURLOCK
S. T. PIPPIN
JAMES E. MORRIS
WM. M. CULP
E. L. REDMILE
JOHN W. BARROLL
GEORGE D. LOFLAND

Colorful House FURNISHINGS

Indian Summer is the loveliest season of the year. Capture some of its rich colorings for your living rooms during the winter. Our line of Cretonnes, Art Tickings, Draperies and Tapestries can transform drab winter days into days of warmth and brilliancy.

Cretonnes	$.15 .25 .35 .50
Art Tickings	$.65
Comfort Coverings	$.18 .50
Draperies, Rayon,	$1.00
Tapestries	$1.75 and $3.50

Harry F. Jefferson
"The Woman's Shop"
Chestertown, Md.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_36_1-0401.jpg