GALENA

Mrs. Elizabeth Beaston, of St. Frances Hospital, Wilmington, enjoyed the week end with her brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lindell Beasten and family, near town.

Misses Helen and Elizabeth Jones, of St. Mary's Seminary-St. Mary's, are spending their Spring vacations with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Jones.

Mrs. Edmund Hurtt, returned to her home near town last week after visiting her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Shaeffer and family, at Westfield, N. J.

Mrs. Reed, of Golt, spent a few days this week with her daughter, Mrs. Norman Merchant and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George McGuire, of Cambridge, visited Rev. John Walsh and isster, Miss Marguerite, on Saturday.

Miss Ethelie Prettyman, of Baltimore, was the holiday guests of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Prettyman.

Miss Margaret McCauley has returned home after enjoying Easter vacation with her mother in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Choee, of Washington, D. C., were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cohee over the week end.

Mrs. Helen Kent, of Wilmington, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bolton over the Easter holidays.

A number of our people have been attending the races at Havre de Grace.

Mr. Ernest Towler, of Wilmington, was the Sunday visitor of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Towler and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craddock and son, Junior, of Moore, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Josephine Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tuerr, have returned to their home in Baltimore after visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd.

Miss Josephine Powell, of Beacom College, Wilmington, was the holiday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Powell.

Misses Elizabeth and Minnie Smithers, of Chesapeake City, were recent guests of Miss Theresa Scott.

Mrs. George Rash and Mrs. Robt. Casperson, of Elkton, and Miami, visited friends in town on Tuesday.

Quite a number of our town folk attended the benefit dance in Massey Hall on Monday night given by the members of St. Dennis Catholic Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Colgain and daughter, Marian, of Wilmington, spent the week end with relatives in and near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Woodall and family, of Georgetown, entertained on Sunday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phillips, of Barclay.

Mr. Irving VanSant, of Wilmington, visited friends in town on Sunday.

Miss Madeline Oneal of near town is enjoying this week with friends in Baltimore.

Miss Agnes Jarman, of Baltimore, was the Easter guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Jarman.

Mrs. Kathryn Hyland returned home on Sunday after spending several months with relatives and friends at Dover and Camden, Del.

Mrs. Granville McCauley has returned home after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson at Dagsboro.

Mr. Hanson Horsey has returned home after being in Salisbury for a few days.

Mrs. Annie Biggs is enjoying this week with her daughter at Chesapeake City.

Misses Jusine and Charlotte Woodall, of St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J., are spending their spring vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Woodall, Jr.

Miss Agnes Newnam, of Salisbury Normal School spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Newnam.

Mr. Jack McCauley, of Locust Grove was the guest this week of his grandmother, Mrs. Eva McCauley.

WEDDINGS

Last Saturday evening at seven-thirty o'clock Miss Gladys Collison became the bride of William E. Seward, of Cambridge, Md. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Baxley at Wesley Chapel M. P. parsonage. The bride was gowned in beige georgette with all accessories to match. The young couple spent until Monday with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Collison, at Rock Hall and then motored to Cambridge where they will reside with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Seward.

Aaron F. Palmatory, of Fairville, Pa., and Miss M. Madeline Payne, of Childs, Md., were married last Saturday evening, 19th, of April, by the Rev. W. S. Grant at his home, the Rock Hall Methodist Episcopal parsonage.

One of the popular young girls of Rock Hall, Miss Maude E. Hadaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hadaway, and Norbourne C. Berger, were married at nine in the morning of Saturday, April 19th, by the Rev. W. S. Grant, at his home in Rock Hall. The bride was charming in blue taffeta. The bridal party included the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stevens, Mrs. Lloyd Moore and the Misses Rebecca Akers and Beatrice Donnelly who accompanied them to Tolchester as they were enroute to Waverly, Va., where they made a short visit with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Berger. The young people are residing at present with the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reed, of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited Mr. and Mrs. George C. Johnston over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Legg and family, of Stevensville, visited her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Deshane and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott and daughter, Jacaqualine, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. and Mrs. William H. Boyd over the week end.

Mrs. Laura Pollard and children, of near Philadelphia, are spending

KENNEDYVILLE

Rev. J. McLain Brown and Mrs. Brown, had with them during the Easter tide, their daughter and children and their sons.

Miss Gladys S. Archibald, of Wilmington, spent the week end with her parents here.

Master Edward Weer and brother Joseph, returned from Washington after spending the week end there with their aunts, Mrs. Tucker and Miss Johnston.

Miss Catherine D. Urie, of Wilmington, spent the Easter holidays here with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Hill and sons, of Phoenixville, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hurlock on Sunday. Their daughter Miss Francis returned with them. Mrs. Hill and Margaret Ann will stay the week with her parents.

Mr. John Dukes, of Philadelphia, visited his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bruce Dukes on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Taylor and mother visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rutter the past week end.

Mr. Norman Pennington spent the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Pennington.

Mr. Bert Newton visited his aunt, Mrs. Henry Rutter during the Easter holidays.

Miss L. Evelyn Busick, of Baltimore, is spending a few day's with the Misses Pennington, and also visiting other friends while here.

Mr. William M. Hurlock, of Millington, visited relatives here on Sunday and his wife returned home with him after being with her mother this past week. Mrs. Hessner is now much better.

Mrs. Vernon Fowler and baby spent the week with her aunts the Misses Hessner in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Walter A. Hurlock and little girl Carrie Margaret and Mrs. John E. Hessner spent the week end in Philadelphia with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald entertained their family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter, of Crumpton, Mr. and Mrs. Green, near Church Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lindin Archibald and family.

Dr. John Humphreys and Mrs. Humphreys were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Groves, Jr., to dinner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace had with them during the Easter tide, their daughter and sons from Wilmington.

Mr. David Nickerson, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nickerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Caldwell and family, of Church Hill, visited their relatives here on Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Shafer and daughter entertained relatives from Allentown on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kane and children, from Dover, visited relatives here over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson entertained at 6 o'clock dinner on Saturday in honor of the wedding anniversary of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of Philadelphia.

The menu consisted of a poultry dinner with refreshments of block cream, ices, cake, fruit and candies. The favors were chocolate eggs with each one's name on them.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Robinson, of Baltimore were among the guests. They were remembered by many nice gifts.

The Mite Society of Grace Presbyterian Church gave the children of this community a good time at their egg rolling on Monday on their church lawn. There were present about seventy-five children and adults that thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Virginia Archibald was given a large chocolate rabbit for finding the most eggs, she found ninety-five eggs and Susie Starkey found ninety three eggs and she was given a large chocolate egg. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to all.

On the Shrewsbury lawn at the same hours the annual egg hunt was enjoyed by a large crowd of children and grown folks. Block cream and cake served and much enjoyed.

Dr. John Humphreys at Grace Presbyterian Church preached to a full house Sunday night from this subject, "He is not here, for He is Risen." Several selections of Easter music was well rendered and enjoyed, especially the solo by Miss Louise Crow, and "Oh! Swing the gates wide open" solo by Mrs. W. Bruce Dukes with the choir assisting on the chorus.

The M. P. Church gave the Pageant "The Call of the Cross" at the evening service. All took their parts well. Messrs. Willis and Lipscomb with their violin and trombone added much to the music. The three girls representing "Hope, Faith and Love" knelt around the cross, while Catherine Lipscomb as "Hope" sang one verse of "The Old Rugged Cross," was beautiful as well as the solo; "Hail the Risen Lord" by Mrs. Clara B. Glenn, and the duet by Alice Kennedy and Katherine Aewell.

It was all very impressive and much enjoyed. Collection about $33.00.

Services next Sunday at the usual hours in these churches.

STILL POND

Miss Eva Busick, of Baltimore, Md., has been visiting Mrs. Ella Pennington.

Mrs. Harry Wheeler and daughters of Baltimore, Md., spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norris and family.

Miss Jennie Bowers spent the past week end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Toulson, of Upper Darby, Pa., and Mr. Penn Toulson, of Vineland, N. J., visited their mother Mrs. Susie Toulson on Sunday.

Miss Eleanor Hopkins spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Hopkins.

Mrs. M. A. Warren is spending some time with relatives in Rock Hall, Md.

Miss Katherine Norris spent the Eastern holidays with her sister in New Jersey.

Miss Mary Jervis, of Wilmington, Del., visited her father, Mr. Oliver Jervis over the past week end.

The P. T. A. will meet on Friday evening April 25th, at the school. Rev. Sewell Hepbron will give one of his very interesting talks, something for youngsters as well as grown-ups. Please be present and show your interest in school and children.

Mrs. Emma Thompson is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Ford, at Staten Island, N. Y.

Mr. Gale Rasin. of Wilmington, Del., spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rasin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jewell and family, have moved to Betterton.

Miss Henrietta Matthews, who teaches at Wilmington, Del., spent the past week end at her home here.

Miss Mamie Norris has returned home after spending some time with her friend Mrs. Melvin in Middletown, Del.

The services of the church were enjoyed by a good number Sunday. One hundred and twelve yere present at Sunday School. The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. A most inspiring sermon and beautiful music was the order of the day. The Epworth League which was lead by Mr. Charles Clark, was very interesting and well attended. You cannot afford to miss these Sunday evening services. The leader for next Sunday evening will be Miss Elizabeth Smith.

Mrs. Austin and sons, of Washington, D. C., spent Easter with her mother, Mrs. Harry Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutter and family, of Chester, Pa., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and family near here.

Mrs. W. Tomb, of Wyoming, Pa., is visiting her father, Mr. C. W. Hague and aunt, Miss Laura Hague.

Miss Clara Medders, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mr. Wm. Medders, Jr., of Richmond, Va., spent Easter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders.

Don't miss the Shad Supper in I. O. O. F. Hall by the Ladies Aid Society on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hackett and son, of Baltimore, Md., spent the past week end with his sisters, Mrs. E. K. Jones and family and Mrs. Clarence Ford and family.

Lester Coleman, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. E. K. Jones.

New LYCEUM

The Pennant - Winning Battery of Songland--

VAN & SCHENCK
BESSIE LOVE
J. C. NUGENT
Benny Rubin - Mary Doran

Hear them sing; Howl at their clowning!
Enjoy this lively romance of baseball and the stage!

Friday - Saturday

APRIL - 25 - 26

Unusual PRE-SEASON SALE

NEWSOME & WHEAT

POPULAR MEN'S STORE

Stages a 14-Day Selling Drive Starting FRIDAY, APRIL 25

AT 9:00 A. M.

This Sale was conceived with the purpose to shatter the monotony and depression that has gripped the business world.

Prices Mowed Down To Insure Quick Action On Brand New Merchandise

Great Money-Saving "GOOD WILL SALE"

Involving Our Entire Stock of Seasonable Merchandise.

Values That Will Dwarf All Comparison In MEN'S AND BOYS' WEAR

Read the Big Circular And be Sure to Be Here.

NEWSOME & WHEAT

Coming! and You'll Find B. B. at

ONE WEEK ONLY

Spring House Cleaning Bee

SAT. APRIL 26 TO MAY 2nd

NOLAND

Chestertown, Maryland

NEW LYCEUM THEATRE
Chestertown, Md.

WEDNESDAY -- THURSDAY
APRIL 23 and 24
SEE AND HEAR
Will Rogers
—in—
"They Had To See Paris"
All Talking—All Laughing

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
APRIL 25 and 26
SEE AND HEAR
Van and Schenck
(The Pennant-Winning Battery of Songland)
—in—
"They Learned About Women"
—with—
Bessie Love
All Talking—All Singing

Van and Schenck, famous vaudeville headliners, are here in their first full length talking picture. No one can put over a song as they can and they have many hits in this new picture. And talk about laughs—you will never stop howling. What a Picture—What a Cast—A Talking—Singing — Laughing Baseball picture. And what's more, Chestertown has the FIRST RUN on this picture—playing here even before showing in Baltimore. We are warning you—you will regret it if you miss "They Learned About Women."

Added — Harry Langdon TALKING in SKIRT SHY.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
APRIL 28th and 29th
SEE AND HEAR
"The Case of Sergeant Grischa"
—with—
Chester Morris
Betty Compson
—and—
Jean Hersholt

Herbert Brenons's Colossal Epic of Man, Woman and War. Daring. Explosive, Different. Drama inflamed as human life . . . Stark as human passion . . bitter and uncompromising as human conflict. It has astounded the world and will astound you—this story of one man whose adventure in love and battle turned the course of empire and swept a proud and pompous dynasty into desolute ruin. FIRST TIME SHOWN on the EASTERN SHORE.

Added—SOUND News—Fables and TALKING Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30th
SEE AND HEAR
A MUSICAL ROMANCE
"The Battle of Paris"
—with—
Gertrude Lawrence
Talking, Singing, Dancing

Broadway's favorite musical comedy star in her first screen song-romance—the famous star of "Oh, Kay," and "Treasure Girl" at her very best with that Prince of Comedy CHARLES RUGGLES. ONE NIGHT ONLY.

Added—Comedy and Act.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY
MAY 1st and 2nd
SEE AND HEAR
Joan Crawford
—in—
"Montana Moon"
ALL TALKING—SINGING

Daring, Adorable Joan in her finest Singing Triumph—a picture with everything—fascinating star, daring love interest, out-door red blooded action, grand comedy, lilting song hits, cowboy ballads. The great cast includes John Mack Brown, Clyiff Edwards, (Ukelele Ike), Benny Rubin, Dorothy Sebastian, Karl Dane and Ricardo Cortez. Playing right now at the finest First Run Houses in Baltimore. It is the picture that has what you want—MONTANA MOON.

Added—Laurel and Hardy TALKING in BRATS (Their Funniest Comedy.)

SATURDAY, MAY 3rd
SEE AND HEAR
"The Lone Star Ranger"
—with—
George O'Brien
—and—
Sue Carol
100% TALKING—ACTION

Zane Gray's First All Talking picture—bigger and better than "The Virginian." Actually photographed in Rainbow Arch, Utah. Never before has the old West—racy, rauceous, romantic—been so recreated for eyes and ears. The first real "western" to reach the Talking Screen.

Added—Comedy, Act, News.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_39_1-0343