COUNTY NEWS.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

The building association of this place is in a flourishing condition. Officers were elected last Saturday as follows: President, S. Mallalieu; vice-president, Henry S. Cook; secretary and treasurer, Henry Tonkin; board of directors, Thos. Mallalieu, Jas. B. Stephens, J. P. Ahern, D. J. Hall, R. W. Comegys. Fifty shares of new stock were subscribed and fifty more the past week. The officers are all men of good judgment and the concern can't help but succeed.

Millington has an ordinance prohibiting bicyclers from riding on the sidewalks. One of the best riders in town is Master James Scotten. He rode from Crumpton to this place a few days ago in less than thirty minutes. Several ladies in town contemplate purchasing wheels.

The Misses Mallalieu, nieces of Mr. Thos. Mallalieu, arrived here from England last Friday. This is their first visit to America and of course they are much pleased with their sight-seeing.

The ladies of the P. E. church expect to hold a festival at an early date.

Miss Vic Power is having her newly-acquired Edwards property in this town newly painted.

Mr. George Jones, who has been ill with pleurisy, is much better. His physician, Dr. Jacobs, called Dr. Cooper in for consultation this week.

A proposition has been made to change the brick hotel into a large store-room with glass front and other modern improvements. It is owned by Mr. F. A. Emory, Centreville, who is seriously considering the plan. Mr. Chas. Hurtt is desirous of renting the new store.

The [illegible] here is waxing very warm for the register of voters. There are six men who want this office which pays only $40. Mr. Charles Smith will no doubt be the register for Galena precinct.

Rev. T. C. Smoot writes as follows to the Peninsula Methodist:

The trustees are arranging to erect a parsonage barn for our faithful horse; the Ladies' Aid has kindly furnished the parsonage with articles for our use and comfort, and arrangements are just maturing for improvements to be made on the interior of Holden's church. Each Sunday School is now arranging for Children's Day. Last Sunday we took a collection at Holden's for Epworth church, Wilmington, and next Sunday one will be raised at Millington for the same purpose.

Our official members at each church are true to their trust—always in their respective places of duty. Of such official co-operation and backing any pastor may be truly proud. FELIX.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

Ho! for Childrens' day at Salem next Sunday evening (tomorrow.) In the morning there will be appropriate service conducted by the pastor. The program to be used is "Arch of Promise."

While attending an entertainment at "The Mission," a colored church near here, Mahaley Lively, an old and respected colored woman, was stricken down, and died in a few minutes. She was 77 years old and had been a servant in the late Mr. Abram Hurlock's family for more than 30 years. And since Mr. S. G. Lee has resided on the Hurlock farm she has been a faithful standby in their family. Mr. and Mrs. Lee saw that she was properly interred.

On the same evening, and at the same place, Lizzie Hynson, another colored woman was taken suddently ill and died in a few hours.

The sheriff made a most excellent selection when he appointed Mr. Whittier Copper his deputy. He is a young man of sterling worth and high moral character. It doesn't matter if he is a Prohibitionist, or if he is a Democrat, just such men we need at the "Helm of the ship of state."

Up to Townsend, Del., to visit their brother, Prof. L. J. Smyth, Mr. R. A. Smyth and sister, Carrie, drove last Saturday and returned the following Monday bringing their little niece, Miss Anna, with them.

The pond at the foot of the hill by Mr. John F. Copper's, at campmeeting woods is being filled in to make the road wider, by Mr. Wm. Edwards. It was a dangerous place, but will be all right when sufficient dirt is thrown in.

Mrs. Haslup's services at our village church last sabbath were well attended and inspiring.

Ex-County Commissioner Richard C. Smyth was bitten on the cheek by a mosquito which resulted rather seriously as he has to keep his face bandaged.

Fly nets are used on horses now.

Mrs. Bramble's class made quite a success of their festival last Sat. eve.

Miss Rosa Bramble, of Rock Hall visited friends here this week.

The dwelling left vacant, after the death of Mrs. W. J. Payne, we understand, has been rented and will be occupied by Mr. James Middleton.

The Sewing Circle of St. Paul's P. E. church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bell last week. There was a large attendance, Mrs. Harry Todd was elected president, Rev. Mr. Denroche, treasurer, and Mrs. Denroche, secretary. WEST END.

GALENA BRIEFS.

Hon. I. Freeman Rasin and son, I. Freeman, Jr., of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. B. J. McGugan at "Old Field Point" farm Thursday and Friday of last week. Mr. Rasin's visits to Kent, which have been few and far between in the past, will be more frequent in the future as Mr. Rasin expressed himself as highly pleased and felt himself more at home than at any previous visit to Kent during the past eighteen years. Mr. Rasin and brother, R. W. L. Rasin, are the possessors of the farm where Mr. McGugan now resides known as the "Old Field Point," situated on the Sassafras river, one mile from Georgetown, in a thrifty and beautiful part of Kent. Mr. Rasin has a large force of men, carpenters, painters and stone masons, at work on his already beautiful residence and buildings at Old Field Point. He says he will leave nothing undone to make this one of the hansomest places in our county. The farm is known at present to be one of the most productive in Kent, and as Mr. Rasin and brother are the owners of a large phosphate factory, near Baltimore, they will make this farm one of the richest in Kent.

Still Pond Notes.

Mrs. E. H. Nelson has returned home from Snow Hill, Md., where she has been visiting relatives.

Lipscomb & Son, of Kennedyville, are engaged in painting Still Pond parsonage. This work represents the efforts of the Epworth League.

The large crowds of colored customers which filled our stores last Monday were the legitimate reward of their proprietors' enterprise and shrewdness. Still Pond merchants are aggressive and progressive. We have reason to be proud of them.

Would that we could sav as much for the religious side of Still Pond. With such a faithful pastor as Rev. E. H. Nelson, there is not the shadow of excuse for such shameful neglect of duty as may be witnessed every week. The large congregations on Sunday prove that the members are existing in the flesh; the handful at class and prayer meetings prove that their spiritual life is nearly extinct. On Sunday, when there is no possible plea of business, they attend church. That is no real proof of christianity.

The ladies of our local W. C. T. U. are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment which they furnished in Still Pond hall last Saturday evening. Refreshment tables adorned the sides of the hall, while the audience had seats in the center. The following literary program was announced by Miss Myra Crewe:

Singing.....By Loyal Legion
Recitation.....Miss Lizzie Fowler
Duet..Miss Julia Thompson and F. G. Usilton
Motion Recitation By Five Little Girls, viz. Ruth Robinson, Stella Bradley, Grace Rasin, May Hackett, Katie Capps.
Cornet solo.....Mr. A. M. Culp
Crowning the May Queen: Queen, Della Ford; Month of May, May Pennington; Maids, Rachel Wood, Louise Pennington; Pages, Willie Pratt, Claude Hackett; Fairies, May Hackett, Blanche Alston, Alice Hackett, Louise Starkey, Stella Bradley, Grace Rasin, Rosa Alston, Lucile Parr; other subjects were Amy Rodenhizer, Katie Capps, Tom Mann, Ruth Robinson, Macy Sutton, Ralph Starkey.
Quartette....Misses Thompson and Russell, Messrs. Culp and Usilton.
Pianist for visitors.....Miss Clara Usilton
Pianist for Loyal Legion, Miss A. S. Baynard

The program was under the direction of Miss Annie Roeder, and was much appreciated. The festival feature also proved successful, and the net proceeds of the evening were about fifteen dollars.

Mrs. Mary Haslup gave a good temperance talk last Thursday night, to a good audience. Still we often wonder why our christian people are not more interested in this great cause.

Mr. Cambey, of Wilmington, has been on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Maxwell.

Miss Irene Hepbron, of Wilmington, Del., is the guest of Mrs. Mary Davis.

Mrs. I. R. Starkey and Miss Nellie Krusen are visiting friends in Balto.

Dr. Wm. S. Maxwell and wife are on a visit to friends in Baltimore and Harford county.

Maxwell Starkey is on a visit to Mrs. Jas. S. Benson, Anne Arundel county.

Mrs. M. A. Pratt is always adding pleasant accomodations to her boarding house and will make it agreeable for boarders at any time.

Delicious ice cream can be found at Mr. W. H. Thompson's also at Mrs. M. A. Pratt's, and snow balls at Mr. Jos. W. Harper's.

A PERFECT BED.

The Perfection Cotton Mattress in Chestertown—Never Before Seen Here.

"The Perfection Cotton Mattress," while a new candidate for favor in this market, is not a stranger in the localities where it has been successfully sold for the past seven years, and we offer it to the public with this broad claim for it:

That it is without an Equal as a Perfect Bed. We do not except any of the mattresses now on the market, though this one is offered at a much lower price than must be paid to secure a good, comfortable bed. There are numerous reasons for its superiority, a few of which can only be enumerated in this short circular.

First:—The material is Pure, New, Clean Cotton, just as it comes from the bale, and only the best quality can be used—thus securing the Purest and Most Healthful of all materials used in mattresses. The process of manufacture is very simple, a High Grade of Clean, Lint Cotton, being re-ginned by special machinery and then by a patented process made into a Single, Solid Bat of proper size and thickness, and the bat encased in a fine grade of thickness. That is all. No tacking or tufting is used, as the bat will never lump or break up, but always remain smooth and even and elastic. The exterior is otherwise perfectly plain, thus leaving no place for dust and vermin. The bat or filling is improved and made stronger by use, in time felting itself, and need never be worked over, as it does not break up, get in knots or become packed, and the only renovation ever required is an occasional airing. They are absolutely indestructible, and will be as pleasant and good after ten years' constant use as when new. They will last a lifetime if kept dry, and reticked when necessary.

In hygienic-properties no material for bedding surpasses cotton, we are told by the medical profession. We claim for the "Perfection" all the good qualities of the finest mattress made, with many advantages not obtained in any other bed, and offer it at a much less price than any other matting is sold for.

We warrant all of the foregoing statements, and furthermore, guarantee every bed sold to give perfect satisfaction. We will cheerfully and promptly refund any money paid us if the mattresses do not come up to our every representation. We offer some of the letters received from those who are using the "Perfection," and hope you will read them carefully, and when you want a bed ask for the "Perfection," and take no other; and we guarantee that you will admit that this bed is all and more than we claim for it. We have on file in our office and open for the inspection of everybody, a great many testimonials from persons who have used our "Perfection Mattress" constantly for from one to seven years, who all say that they are as good as when first bought.
