IT PAYS TO BUY AT HOME!

We had a significant test of the advantages of "home purchases" in Furniture this week. We were in competition with the Largest Furniture Houses in Baltimore to furnish Washington College with a considerable bill of goods, and

WE BEAT THEM ALL IN PRICE AND QUALITY OF FURNITURE!

We can do it every time. All we ask is a fair trial.

MRS. M. E. WATTS, PROPRIETRESS.

I am now prepared to accommodate boarders by the day, week or month. Special attention given to TRANSIENT BOARDERS. My table will always be supplied with the best the market affords, and every attention will be given to make our guests comfortable.

Little Locals.

Drowned. — Bob Lambert, colored, was drowned in Grey's Inn creek Thursday while sailing out of the creek with a fellow oysterman. The sail in jibing struck the man and knocked him overboard. He lived in Rock Hall.

The county assessors have finished the first, second and third districts, and are now at work in the fifth (Rock Hall,) which they expect to finish about the 15th of October. They will then go to the seventh (Pomona) district leaving Fairlee (6th) and Chestertown (4th) for the last.

Storm Damage.—A large tree on the T. G. Wroth farm where Mr. Trew lives, was blown down Tuesday night and crushed in the roof of the kitchen. The inmates were very much alarmed by the shock and were glad that the result was no worse.

Bird Shooting. — Local sportsmen have had fine luck this week shooting doves. Last Wednesday a large party went out to Mr. Andrew Toulson's, and some of the residents of Lynch's it is said thought the British were coming again so rapid was the firing. Forty-seven doves were bagged, of which number Mr. W. H. Lambert killed 16. Others in the party were J. H. Aldridge, S. Q. Moody, W. H. McFeely, Hiram Brown, J. Wm. Howard and others.

IF you have not been newly registered this Fall you cannot vote this year.

The Sick.—We are glad to notice a number of our people restored to health. Among the convalescent are Messrs. J. Hydie Thompson, James Shuster, John R. Rollison, H. Meeteer Wallis, George Vickers, Miss May Hurlock, Mrs. C. S. York. Miss Gertie' York is quite ill with typhoid fever, but was thought slightly improved yesterday. Miss Clara Downey, of Rock Hall, who has been quite sick, was able to sit up yesterday.

Registered Vote.—The registers of voters throughout Kent county will sit for the last time next Tuesday and Wednesday. The vote registered to date is as follows: Seventh district, Pomona, 187 white, 165 colored, total 352; Rock Hall, 504 white, 152 colored, total 656; Kennedyville, 377 white, 299 colored, total 676; Galena, white 243, colored 159, total 402; Millington, 238 white, 144 colored; Chestertown, 410 white, 304 colored; Fairlee, 177 white, 247 colored, total 424; Worton, 241 white, 197 colored, total 438; total 2379 white; 1667 colored.

NEXT Tuesday and Wednesday are the last days for registration.

BICYCLE NOTES.

The race meet of the Eastern Shore Wheelmen's Racing Circuit will be held at Hynson's Driving Park next Tuesday under the auspices of the Chestertown Cycle Club. Such riders as the French Bros., Clarence Knight, White Leatherbury, Eckhardt and others are expected from Baltimore and from Cambridge the Hicks Bros. have entered. Chestertown will have Chapman, Shallcross, Ford, Hodgkins and others in the field and the outlook is for a day of fine sport. The track has been put in fine condition, grand stand erected and all necessary arrangements made.

Lecompt, the fast rider from Cambridge, dislocated his shoulder blade in Baltimore Saturday and Wright will be unable to be here on account of sickness.

Shallcross won a third prize in the Baltimore races. The company was very fast and he was lucky to get anything.

J. S. Johnson rode a mile Monday at Newark in 1.47 flat. He was paced by a tandem and a quad.

The number of new riders in Chestertown are increasing quite rapidly. Rev. W. P. Compton purchased one of the Vandegrift wheels this week. Mr. Thos. W. Wickes presented his daughter, Miss Lottie, with a Vandegrift wheel. Miss Cora Hynson has learned to ride her new Sides wheel and calls it into service when going to and from her school at Worton Station. Misses Maggie Plummer and Ellen Fisher have learned the art of riding the wheel, but not without many falls and bruises. Several other young ladies are learning but have not yet graduated. Mrs. H. Rickey has emerged from the amateur ranks and can now master the tricky machine.

Wheels are now made so that they can be folded and carried like a small grip.

It has been announced that on and after October 15th, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will carry bicycles free. This is good news to wheelmen, who have been obliged to pay for their steeds.

OCTOBER JURORS.

The List Drawn Yesterday by Judge Wickes.

Hon. Judge J. A. Wickes yesterday drew the jurors to serve for the October term of the Circuit court for Kent county, as follows:

Matrimonial.—Mr. Bartus Hatcherson, son of ex-Sheriff James P. Hatcherson, now living on Eastern Neck Island, and Miss Mary Willson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Willson, of Edesville, were married Wednesday afternoon at the Catholic rectory, Chestertown, Father McSweeney officiating. Only the immediate relatives were present. After the ceremony they were driven to their home where a reception was accorded them. Mr. and Mrs. H. will reside on the Baker farm near Fairlee next year.

On Sept. 7th, 1896, Mr. Earnie J. Proudfoot and Miss Julia M. Titter both of Baltimore, Md., were married at Chestertown M. E. parsonage by the Rev. W. P. Compton.

Mr. Cecil Howell and Miss Lizzie Rollison, of near Spry's gate, were quietly married Wednesday night, 23rd, at the Kennedyville parsonage by the Rev. Jesse Shreeve.

Festivals.—The Catholic festival at Rock Hall last Friday and Saturday evenings was a success in every respect, netting $150. Father McSweeney is greatly pleased with the liberal patronage bestowed. The Rock Hall band made its first appearance and did itself and leader great credit.

A delicious tea was served by the ladies of the M. E. Church Thursday evening. The tables were gracefully presided over by Mrs. C. M. Lucas, Mrs. Louisa Thomas and Mrs. Delma Dyott.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Number of persons here registered Sept. 29, white, 33; colored, 14. Sept. 30, white, 41; colored, 6.

J. B. Messick, known as cheap John through our county removes his stock of goods to Middletown, Del., and J. J. Morris, Jr., of Georgetown, Del., takes his place in our town. It looks as if there will be a good many changes at New Year.

Mr. R. Wesley Moffett was out driving last night and came very near having a serious accident, the king bolt of the carriage broke and threw Mr. M. out and bruised his head quite badly but the ladies on the back seat were not thrown out but one of them got her head cut quite bad.

Mr. T. J. McWhorter and son Thomas, of Philadelphia, spent a few days this week in town. Dr. Tom bought a valuable horse from Mr. Samuel Richardson near Masseys.

Mrs. Thompson, of near Newark, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. J. F. Smith.

Mrs. Frank Crouch and her daughter, Ethel have returned home from visiting friends in Smyrna.

Rev. T. C. Smoot will exchange pulpits with Rev. Mr. Graham, of Wyoming, Del., on next Sunday.

Miss Ollie Lecates, of Wilmington, is visiting the Misses Cole.

Dr. A. R. Todd, formerly of Millington, but at present a resident of Brunswick, Frederick county, has been committed to jail in default of bail on three indictments found against him for unlawfully selling liquor. He keeps a drug store and, it is alleged, wrote prescriptions for liquor, which filled by his clerk. He thought he would be able to settle his cases with the court by pleading guilty, but when he understood that the sentence would be $300 and costs in each case, he preferred taking his chances with a jury.

Moody & Lusby the wide awake hustling Clothing Establishment of Chestertown, are showing the largest and most complete line of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children ever opened in our town, in fact a near approach to the leading city establishment, their object is to keep trade at home by giving them the assortment at closer prices than can be obtained in the city by doing a large safe business on small margin. Go see them early and you will not be disapointed. *

Notes About Town.

A very high tide was witnessed here Wednesday morning, the water coming up as far as Kirby's floral gardens. Many persons on Front street were awake all night fearing lest the waters would rise higher than ever before. Nearly all the yachts and boats at anchor broke away and were found well beached. No special damage has been reported.

Mrs. Hawks, who conducted a dress-making establishment in town for a number of years, and removed to Pennsylvania, has been here this week. She has recently come in possession of three or four thousand dollars pension money being back pay due for services rendered by her late husband.

The erection of telephone poles about town will be completed next week. This new company expect to have the line complete to Baltimore within three months! Mr. J. H. Sides' store has been selected as headquarters and exchange. This is not expected to interfere with Mr. S.'s business.

In the list of decorated and illuminated private houses last week we mentioned that of Mrs. Geo. B. McWhorter's which was a mistake. It was the house next door, occupied by Mrs. Reed, that was well illuminated and in the hurried glance was taken for Mrs. McWhorter's.

Chestertown has enjoyed most excellent ice service this summer under the management of Mr. Robert G. Nicholson. The season has been fairly successful.

Seven small colored boys were before Justice Wilkins Monday charged with throwing stones and whipping Will Waters' son. The justice gave the boys a lecture and dismissed the case. Two of the boys waived a hearing, but when they found that their fellows were to be acquitted, they were very anxious to be included, but it was then too late.

Dr. C. P. Gilpin had fine sport on Morgan Creek Wednesday shooting rail birds. He bagged forty fine fellows.

Capt. Lewis and Mr. Sparks have removed their ark from the Kent shore to Queen Anne's and will hereafter make their home on the other side of the Chester.

Mrs. Geo. B. McWhorter has purchased of Mr. C. F. Stam, representative of the heirs, the Louis K. Stam property on Washington avenue. The property includes the house and lot from Mr. C. F. Stam's line to that of Mr. W. B. Copper. This beautiful tract will be improved by the purchaser who contemplates making her home there. It is one of the most eligible locations in town. The price is said to be about two thousand dollars. The sale has not yet been consummated but is likely to be closed today.

Chesterville Items.

The storm of last Wednesday afternoon and night was cyclonic, blowing over small buildings, up-rooting trees, while the rain fell in torrents.

The farmers are busy seeding wheat and will finish in about a week. Some few are husking corn while others are cutting off corn.

A party of young folks, chaperoned by Mrs. Wooters, left the handsome residence of Mr. Wm. Lusby's Thursday night on a straw ride. The moon was bright and the air cool enough to make the young folks merry.

Mrs. Mary King keeps about the same, but we hope to see her out soon.

Misses Fannie and Addie Eliason, of Wilmington, Del., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. F. R. Wooter.

Mr. George Gleaves, wife and daughter, Bessie, of Shennadoah, Va., spent last week with their cousin, Mrs. Thos. Clements.

Mrs. Wooter was called suddenly Sunday to the bed of her grand-daughter, Marie Johnson, of Masseys, who has the scarlet fever.

Mr. Eddie Cooper, of Baltimore, is visiting at the parental home.

Mr. Herbert Brinsfield, of Rock Hall, is home again.

Miss Estella Jarman spent several days last week in Chestertown with Miss Susie Culp.

Mr. Wm. T. Lusby spent Sunday and Monday with Middletown friends.

Misses Annie Foxwell and Eva Cooper returned to their school in Smyrna on Monday.

Messrs. David and Merritt Clements, and Frank Jarrell returned their school in Virginia on the 15th.

Among those who are on the sick list are Mrs. King, Mrs. Lusby, Mrs. David Clements and Miss Viola Moffett.

"Gold and Silver" and "16 to 1" and "have you been registered," is all we hear now. It is every man's duty to vote and they all know they can not unless they are registered.

Mr. Powell lost a valuable young horse by his corn cutter and Mr. Thos. Jones a cow.

Our community was well represented in the bicycle parade last Wednesday week in your town. ROY.

WHEELMEN'S APPEAL!

Meeting of Commissioners of the Two Counties — A Bridge Keeper Appointed — Action Regarding Wheelmen.

A joint meeting of the county commissioners of Kent and Queen's Anne's was held in Chestertown yesterday, all the members except Mr. George being present. Accounts relating to Chester and Crumpton bridges were passed. Jack Bradley, of Queen Anne's, was appointed keeper of Chester bridge for two years from Jan. 1, '97. A delegation of wheelmen namely: Dr. C. W. Reid, Rev. W. P. Compton, Messrs. C. F. Stam-R. Snowden Thomas, Sereck Shallcross, F. G. Usilton, J. W. Chapman and Jos. M. Parvis, were before the board to back the request made by a large petition asking that Chester bridge be open to Wheelmen, under proper restrictions. The board voted to postpone action on account of the absence of Mr. George—those voting for postponement being Godwin, Bright, Hatcherson and Todd. Messrs. Hill, Owens and Vickers were in favor of granting the request at once. The board, however, by a unanimous vote granted all wheelmen the free use of the bridge for Tuesday, Oct. 6, the day of the races, provided they dismount on meeting teams and do not ride by any.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. James Hamilton, wife and two children, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Whaley in town on Sunday.

Mr. Warfield and family, of Mill st., removed Monday to Baltimore. Mr. W. was agent for a well-known washing machine, which agency was left in the hands of Mr. C. H. Hurlock.

Mrs. Hipsley, of Baltimore, spent several days this week the guest of Mrs. W. B. Copper on Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Baynes, of Troy, N. Y., spent several days this week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort on High street.

Mr. Harry G. Simpers returned Wednesday to his studies at the University of Maryland, Baltimore.

Mrs. Jas. A. Pearce, returned Tuesday from a protracted visit to friends in West Virginia.

Mr. Wm. Crane and mother, of Baltimore, were in town this week on business.

Miss Tannie Willis, daughter of Mr. E. T. Willis, entered the art school in Baltimore this week. Miss Willis has shown considerable fondness for this accomplishment and we wish her success.

Miss Palmer Carroll is the guest of Miss Mamie Taylor in Baltimore.

Messrs. H. C. Chase and W. Pryor Armstrong, of Washington, came and registered in Chestertown district on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cooper, of Caroline, have been guests of Dr. Thos. H. Cooper this week.

At the annual meeting of the Maryland State Funeral Directors Association held in Baltimore last week, Mr. John N. Dodd, of Chestertown, was unanimously re-elected president for the ensuing term. He was also selected a delegate to represent the State in the National Convention to be held in the city of Boston, Mass., October 14th 1896.

Mrs. J. V. Crosby, of Rock Hall, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John H. Greenwood on Cannon street.

Wm. S. Walker, Esq., spent the past week at the Harford Fair.

Mr. John Nickerson, son of Capt. Nickerson, entered as second mate on the Emma A. Ford this week, vice Mr. Archie Bowers, resigned. Mr. N. has been on the Corsica for several years and has merited this promotion.

Mr. Richard Mericken, of Talbot co., spent Sunday in Chestertown.

Dr. Bartus Trew, accompanied by Mr. Colton, of Baltimore, spent the past week in Quaker Neck with Dr. B.'s father.

Mr. Wm. Hodges came to town Monday on his steam yacht, returning the same day.

Mrs. J. H. S. Ewell, wife of Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, of Georgetown, was taken to Delaware Hospital in Wilmington last week for treatment. Mrs. Ewell has long been a sufferer from tumor and it is the earnest hope of her many friends that her recovery will be rapid and sure.

Rev. D. L. Greenfield, wife and son, of Pittsburg, Pa., have been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Fleming on Front street. The reverend gentleman has been enjoying the fishing on Chester bridge but from last accounts he caught but few fish.

Mr. W. G. Brown a young Baltimore artist is a guest of his sister Mrs. S. Q. Moody on High street. Mr. Brown has sketched some of our pretty girls and anticipates securing many others before his departure.

Miss Eva Gresham, the former teacher of Edesville school, has accepted the position as book-keeper in the large wholesale and retail millinery house of Schoens & Co., 210 North Howard st. street Baltimore.
