Perseverance

A steady accumulation of small savings deposited as they are saved in a safe and sound institution like this, where they will draw interest, will in a few years amount to a total of surprising magnitude.

At first the amount may seem small, and determined perseverance may be necessary to overcome discouragement; but after a year or two the accumulations will begin to be a stimulus to further saving, and you will find that with an increasing principal comes an increased interest.

And delivered to our store in Baltimore on or before Thanksgiving Day, 1908. If your merchant don't sell Bolgiano's Reliable Turnip, Ruta Bago, Spinach and Kale Seed send direct to us.

EARLEVILLE, MD., November 8, 1908.
J. BOLGIANO & SON, Baltimore, Md.
I am sending you via Adams Express, prepaid, a turnip grown from your Red Top White Globe Seed, which I wish to enter for your prize of $5.00. It weighs 3¾ pounds and measures 63 inches in diameter, which is larger than the one that won the prize last year; and, therefore, I have strong hopes of winning it this year. They are the finest turnip I have ever raised, and the rest of them will compare favorably with this. Yours truly,
W. F. COALE.

Live Local Notes.

Personal Sales.—The NEWS today contains more stock for sale than has been advertised in its columns at one time for many years. It is a veritable stock bulletin read by all. There are 220 horses, 254 cows and 40 farm wagons in the list.

Cashier Resigns.—Henry T. Deaver, formerly of Chestertown, cashier of the National Bank of Chesapeake City for the past two years, has presented his resignation to take effect August 15. The Directors of the bank have elected Richard S. Wallis, of Kent county, to succeed Mr. Deaver. Mr. Wallis was cashier of the Farmers' Bank at Galena for four years, and is a young man of splendid ability in the financial world.

Fine Prices.—The sales were started Thursday with that of Mr. Alfred Bramble's near Lankford. It was well attended and good prices were realized by Auctioneer Hurlock. Yearling colts brought $40 to $50; 2 years olds, $75 to $80; horses $25 to $150; pair driving horses $340; cows $25 to $35; sheep $5.50; hogs 4½ cents per pound; hay $6 to $8; engine and thresher was bought by Mr. Lewin U. Skirven for $1250. This sale was advertised in the NEWS. Nuf sed.

Changes.—In addition to the many changes heretofore noted in the NEWS are the following: Wm. J. Stant, of Queen Anne's, will tenant H. L. Boyd's Broad Neck farm: Wm. Rodney will remove to the Beck farm owned by Miss Georgia Thumlert, Daniel Loller present tenant; Oliver Cleaver will remove from Stewart farm, near town to the Cochran farm occupied by Thomas Faulkner; Samuel Logan will tenant Spry farm in Quaker Neck and Mr. Jarrell will carry on his place near town; Lewis C. Price, from near Millington, has rented J. W. Chapman's Copper farm, opposite S. Mann, Lynch's.

Elias Othoson, tenant on Dr. Urie's farm, has rented of Mr. H. W. Dunlap the Dunlap farm, near Kennedyville, occupied by Mr. Wm. H. Wallis.

Commission Firm Fails.—Judge Stockbridge Saturday signed an order in the Circuit Court appointing David S. Briscoe receiver for the James W. Jerome Company, wholesale produce dealers, requiring him to give $1,000 bond. The action is based on a suit entered by Columbus A. Leary, through Attorney David S. Briscoe. Leary alleges that the Jerome Company owes $1,300, secured by promissory notes, which he is unable to collect. An answer was filed in which the charges were admitted. There are a number of checks out in Kent county but it is thought these will be paid. Messrs. J. W. Jerome and Thomas Caddell have associated with Stevens Bros., while Mr. J. Harry Vickers has now associated himself with Brown & Stubbs.

Sales of Real Estate.—Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., trustee, sold on Tuesday the Hague property, near Tolchester, to J. Waters Russell for $450.

H. H. Barroll, Esq., attorney, sold the Stauffer house in Church alley, Chestertown, to T. G. Wroth for $325; the Downey property at Rock Hall to Jos. B. Downey for $1450; also the Britton home in Millington to Mary E. B. Bottomley for $260.

George N. Brinsfield has purchased of Elizabeth and George W. Clark property near Crumpton for $300.

J. Thomas Morris, Esq., has sold to Lydia A. and Bevins Morris his farm in Morgnec containing 260 acres for $8000.

On Tuesday T. J. Keating sold the J. W. Council farm, situate on road from Centreville to Queenstown, of 193 acres of land, to Harry Larrimore at $37.50 per acre.

Jas. T. Bright, attorney, sold the Buss farm, situate in Queen Anne's, containing 149 acres, to Herman Hendrix for $17.50 an acre.

Jeremiah C. Price has sold his fine farm of 389 acres in the First district near Earleville, Cecil county, to Ex-sheriff F. Ambrose Price, for $18,000. The farm is improved by excellent buildings and is one of the most productive tracts of land in that county.

DON'T forget to get your exhibit ready for Tolchester Fair. Now is the time to prepare for it.

THE Volunteer Fire Company, of Chestertown, had a successful festival Tuesday evening and cleared about $65. The decorations were beautiful and the new band furnished excellent music.

THE colored baseball team from Chestertown went to Baltimore this week to play a series of games but were sent home after the first game because they could not even make it interesting. The score was 4 to 14. Sheppard and Green were battery and C. Hutchins, manager.
