19 VICTORIES FOR W. C.

Washington put its long list of basketball victories up to 19 Wednesday night, when it defeated Loyola, of Baltimore, for the second time this season, 37 to 12. The game was exceptionally fast, the Eastern Shoremen flashing the best form they have shown since the contest with Dickinson some time ago.

Don't forget to enter Rose Bud Flour Contest. Today at 2 p. m. is the hour and second floor of Imperial Hotel Building is the place. Prizes $30.

The lady candidate from Quaker Neck is growing in great favor. The position to which she aspires is that of sheriff. Others mentioned are Charles L. Gill, William Steel, Carroll Davis, Lionel Keyser, Adolphus Davis. More to follow.

The home of Mrs. A. M. Culp, on Washington avenue, was the scene of a beautiful missionary pageant Tuesday evening given by members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Mrs. George H. Cannan president. It was well presented and enjoyed by a happy company.

Tax-Payers Meeting

All taxpayers interested in the improvement of Maple avenue by the State and the Town will please meet the Commissioners of Chestertown at the rooms of the Business Men's Association, in the Imperial Hotel, on Monday next, March 5th, 1923, at 8.00 p. m. By order of Town Commissioners, 1t JAMES W. CROUCH, Clerk.

TOMATO GROWERS MEET

The county meeting of farmers to consider the question of contracting for tomatoes was held in the Court House at Crestertown Tuesday. It was decided to refrain from entering into any contract for tomatoes for less than 30 cents per basket before April 11th. On this date another meeting is to be held and a final decision made as to what is best to do. Statements were made of offers being received of 25 cents per basket from several packers.

BIG SALE OF PERSONALTY

The sale of John H. Clendaniel's personalty, near Kennedyville, Thursday was one of the best attended and most successful of recent years. The total receipts amounted to over $9,000. The best horse sold for $161 and a pair for $306. Four mules brought $617.50.

There was sharp competition on the pure-bred and grade Holstein the best one bringing $500 while the others brought $295, $260, $240, $210 and on down.

H. Stockton Startt assisted by J. Frank Black were the auctioneers and proved their worth. The ladies of Shrewsbury Church undertook to serve lunch and state they never saw such a hungry crowd. They ate all the pies and sandwiches in the neighborhood.

W. B. Freeman, of Cecil county, will tenant this farm and bought a number of cattle, horses, etc.
