ORGANIZATION TICKET

The News with great pride presents to its readers today a ticket made up of tried and true Democrats which hts the endorsement of the organization and some antis in Kent. Its a pity a primary became necessary to nominate this ticket.

For The Senate

SENATOR WILLIAM F. RUSSELL heads the ticket. He believes in upholding law and during his term as Senator at Annapolis proved true to every interest of the people of Kent county. He deserves another term and we believe the voters will accord it to him. His word is unquestioned, with a sound judgment, well tempered with human wisdom that comes with a man who lives a life of pure thought and an aggressive vision. He is a solid, staunch man, without hypocrisy, one that you implicitly trust in the finer, bigger and important things that are bound to come to him who represents us at Annapolis.

Senator Russell's position in this community as a citizen, banker, father and utility man is well known. He is as well versed in finances as any man in Kent county. He served the county well as Senator, School Commissioner and in other positions. He served Washington College loyally in its campaign to raise funds and presided with ability for five years as chairman of our local Chautauqua. He is the head of a most interesting family consisting of three daughters and a son, the latter having voluntarily offered his services which was accepted in the late World War.

For The Legislature

HARRY L. WOODBURN, of near Galena, is presented. He has been a resident in Kent for 15 years, a man of high character, intelligent and specially fitted to present the claims of the farmers.

CAPT. CHAS. R. KERR, of Rock gentleman who has been brought up gentleman who has been borught up among the watermen. He knows their needs and is able to eloquently present them. He is dignified in his bearing and holds the esteem of his neighbors and friends. Its a pity such men should have to go thru a primary.

For County Commissioners

The Democrats have presented two sterling men — STONEWALL J. JOHNSON, of Massey, farmer, and RINGGOLD JONES, of Rock Hall, farmer. Both own real estate and appreciate the importance of economy and carefulness in all public expenditures. They will make ideal men for handling the business affairs of Kent county.

For State's Attorney

S. SCOTT BECK, ESQ., will likely have no opposition for State's Attorney because of no candidate being found willing to oppose him.

For Orphans' Court

The organization endorse the present Court—DR. E. A. SCOTT, of Galena, W. K. HUDSON, Fairlee, and J. HENRY THOMPSON, of Rock Hall.

For Treasurer

GEORGE W. SUTTON'S claim appeal most forcibly for support. He was one of the candidates who went down to defeat in the slaughter of 1915. It was hoped all the antis would accept his candidacy. Some have encouraged his campaign and it is believed he will get a big vote. He is a middle aged farmer of near Kennedyville, a man of splendid character, big hearted, and a worker in the Democratic party all the time.

FOR SHERIFF

WILLIAM W. GOODMAN, of Quaker Neck, is presented fully in another column.

FOR STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

Mrs. Jennie B. Whaland is the wife of Dr. Chas. W. Whaland, of Chestertown, a lady of indefatigable energy and has always evinced interest in the Democratic party.

Mrs. Helen E. Brice is the wife of George Brice, of Betterton, and will make a valuable member of this committee.

Mrs. Price Watson is the wife of Edward Watson, of Fairlee, a lady of winsome manner and deeply interested in her party.

John W. Harman, of Rock Hall, Robert Moffett, of Chestertown, and J. Elgar Strong, of Quaker Neck are the three loyal Democratic men on this committee. They are worthy of your vote.

Delegates to the State Convention: Ernest D. Briscoe, of Betterton, Morris H. Cooper, of Worton, Elmer S. Jarman, of Galena, all elegible for the position and we bespeak for them a big vote.

The Democratic party in Kent County wants to go to the polls this fall with a strong local ticket and behind it a party united in general for good feeling, one to the other, and all for the ticket. The fight in the State may be a closer one than the Democrats now expect and the party may need a big vote from this county to pull it through. This was the case four years ago and may well happen again this year, when the Republicans have named as their candidate for Governor a much stronger man than then.

If our coming primaries are quiet and orderly, free from corruption or personal malice or unfair tactics, a big step will have been taken towards registering the full strength of the party on election day.

A REMARKABLE RECORD

Miss Caroline I. Smyth was placed on the pension roll by the State Board of Education in Baltimore Wednesday. She has given 44 years of service in the schools of Kent county. There are 30 teachers in the State who have given 25 years or more service who are on the waiting list.

This act on the part of our school authorities is well deserved in Miss Smyth's case. She taught when the compensation was meagre indeed and has been a faithful and self-sacrificing teacher. If there ever was a deserving pension surely this is one.

The pension provided by the State is $400 annually, and only 200 teachers can be accomodated under existing conditions. The Legislature provided $80,000 for this fund. The requirements for eligibility are that the teacher shall have taught at least 25 years in Maryland and shall be 60 years old. In case of physical disability the age limit may be waived, but the service limit must be enforced.

In addition to the list of teachers mentioned elsewhere in the News is that of Gilbert V. Byron who has been named as principal at Kennedyville. Mr. Byron graduated with honors at Washington College this year.

Dr. Paul E. Titsworth Elected New President Of Washington College

A special committee of the Visitors and Governors met in Philadelphia Wednesday evening, August 22, and elected Dr. Paul Emerson Titsworth President of Washington College.

Dr. Titsworth is a native of New Jersey and is 42 years old. He did his undergraduate work at Alfred University and later attended the University of Wisconsin from which institution he received his Doctor of Philosophy degree.

For the past seven or eight years he has been teaching at Alfred University and in connection with his teaching he has for several years served as Dean of the University and Director of the Summer School.

His academic preparation and his experience as Dean in an accredited college with an enrollment more than twice that of Washington eminently fit him for the position to which he has been elected.

In acknowledging notification of election, Dr. Titsworth writes as follows: "I am in receipt of notification by telegraph that I have been elected President of Washington College. The institution has a long and proud record of educational service and I am highly sensible of the great honor which the Board of Governors has done me in selecting me as its head. I am looking forward, therefore, with anticipation to casting my lot with you.

"The success of a college rests upon several factors: the efficiency and goodwill of the faculty, the character and spirit of the student-body, and the sympathetic support of the Alumni and patrons. I bespeak the cooperation of all these factors—of all the friends and lovers of Washington College in raising even higher the standards of character-building and of scholarship for the years just ahead, and in making it possible for the college in raising even higher the educational needs of Maryland and particularly of the Eastern Shore than hitherto.

"May the year about to open prove the best yet in attendance and substantial achievement. To this end I pledge Washington College the best I have to give."

Strong Current Sets in For Senator Russell And His Running Mates

Thomas J. Keating Will Carry Kent County By 500

With the Democratic primaries just ten days distant, the most important development of the current week was the unmistakable crystilization of a strong and definite sentiment for the nomination of Judge Thomas J. Keating for Associate Judge of the Second Judicial Crcuit, William F. Russell for the State Senate, Capt. Chas. R. Kerr and Harry Woodburn for House of Delegates, and the balance of the organization ticket. Reports from varous sections on Tuesday were to the effect that these candidates were making steady progress and that indications pointed strongly to their nomination by substantial majorities.

Although the primary campagn has been in progress virtually since the early part of the summer, many voters have conservatively withheld their judgement, pending a calm, fair and unbiased deliberation of all the campaign facts, figures and issues presented by the rival candidates. During the week many voters have reached their decision, and according to reilable reports those decisions have been favorable to the candidates of Judge Keating and Wm. F. Russell.

While hundreds of voters have expressed a preference for the various candidates, it is an admitted fact that many more, even yet, have not definitely decided just how they will cast their ballots in the approaching primary. And these will weigh the issues well before becoming actively identified with any movement involving such a momentous problem as the management of the county's business affairs.

Insofar as the personal integrity and honesty of the various candidates on the ticket of the two factions are concerned, it is admitted by even the most partisan followers of both groups, that they are honorable citizens. It should be a source of gratification to every man and woman affiliated with the Democratic party in Kent county to know that the men who are aspiring to office in the September primary are individuals of standing and repute in their respective communities.

DUCKING SHORE CONTEST

An interesting case occupied the attention of Judge Lewin W. Wickes sitting in the Court of Chancery here Tuesday. It was brought to a sudden termination by the plaintiffs withdrawing the suit.

Dr. Daniel Z. Dunott, Kemp Bartlett, R. Nelson Stevens and others, of Baltimore, brought action against Harry C. Willis, S. S. Beck, Albert Groves, Thomas W. Trew and others for possession of Ceder Point Ducking Shore which they claim they had leased from John C. Wood at a rent of $1500 per year. A new club house is now beng erected there.

It is said that an effort will be made to compromise the case. This failing the local duckers will enter suit against the Baltimoreans for possession. H. E. Perkins and S. S. Beck represent the defendants and Hope H. Barroll and Kemp Bartlttt, Jr., the plaintiffs.
