----THE colored people in Baltimore city have an organization known as the it altogether. Order of Regulars, and under its auspices an immense meeting was held at Ebenezer African M. E. Church the other night, which was addressed by Maj. M. R. Dulaney, the only colored soldier in the late war who obtained that rank. He was also candididate for lieutenant governor of South Carolina in 1874 on the fusion ticket.

In addressing his large audience the Major said that the close of the war found the Republican party the friend of the colored people, while the Democratic party sympathized with the slave-holders; but now even the old masters were glad the colored people were free, and the Democracy recognize with pleasure the abolishment of slavery. Neither party cared for the colored man now any farther than to obtain his vote, and the colored man should not be found in either of the privileges were to be advanced.
