Like fine furniture—

It's the rich lustre of good hardwood flooring that makes the warm, pleasing tone of a room.

Ordinary hardwood flooring is scraped, polished and finished by hand after it is laid. CROMAR Hardwood Flooring is finished at the factory—like funiture. Yet there is a great difference because CROMAR is filled, varnished and waxed by speedy, patented machines. This cuts labor costs. So that, while the first cost of CROMAR Hardwood Flooring is naturally somewhat higher than the ordinary, unfinished product, the ultimate cost of your floors is materially less.

The numerous advantages resulting from this method are fully described in our literature. Write for it today. In the meantime get in touch with your Retail Lumber Dealer.

CROMAR
READY FINISHED
OAK FLOORING

Why we recommend this unusual Hardwood Flooring—Because so many of our customers, our friends, would like to own all hardwood floors if they could have them installed without the inconvenience and loss of the use of offices.

CROMAR comes to us filled, varnished and waxed. Your office can be laid between morning and night with practically no interruption of business.

A CROMAR Hardwood floor (oak) costs less than other hardwood floors.

Concrete Improvements Pay Dollars and Cents Profits

Every dollar put into Concrete Improvements comes back multiplied many times. Concrete Improvements pay for themselves in labor and feed saved, in enlarged yield from land and stock, and in greater satisfaction and service. Concrete is the farmer's safest, strongest and most practical construction material. Its first cost is low when all its advantages are fairly weighed; upkeep cost is practically nothing. Build with Concrete—it costs no more but gives greater value.

Any farmer can make Concrete Improvements himself which, if done by outside help, would cost many times the small amount he will spend for materials. Any Security Cement dealer will give you information and furnish Free Blue Prints.

WASHINGTON TEAM SHOWS REAL POWER

With the football season almost at the midway point and with interest running high, Washington College is quietly boasting of the best team in recent years. When the war came on, athletics at the Eastern Sho' institution suffered the fate of many other colleges, but since that time basketball and baseball have been brought up to and beyond the pre-war standard. However, football brought up to and beyond the pre-war standard. However, football has not been so fortunate, and there has always been a sad lack of material. This condition promises to be wiped out, and a semblance of the old status in the football world regained.

Although the team this year is not an exceptionally heavy one, yet it is a fighting aggregation and one with a good knowledge of the game. They have played together one year, and have acquired a remarkable degree of smoothness and coordination.

The line is not as well fortified with reserve material as is the backfield. Kelley, at center, is playing a steady consistent game, and has a capable understudy in Jarman. This lad proved his worth when Kelley was injured in the game with P. M. C. It was his first game, and he looks to be a real find, breaking up plays directed at both sides of the line.

The two guard positions are held down by McGran and Keenan, and they are proving a stubborn pair for opponents to gain ground through. Keenan needs no introduction to Maryland fans, as he has twice been picked on The Sun's All-Maryland team. McGran is a newcomer, from Bridgeport, Conn., and through pure aggressiveness won his berth from the very start of the season. He is doubly valuable to the team, in that he can be called back to do the punting, being able to average between 40 and 50 yards.

Captain Duffy and Fiore, at the two tackle posts, have been going great guns this season. This is Duff's last year on a Maroon and Black eleven and he has been a tower of strength, both on offense and defense.

With the possible exception of Crowe the two fastest men on the team are Reiger and Carroll, running mates at end. They are down under punts like two streaks and nail the receiver before he has a chance to get started. In the game against the Third Area Reiger was a terror on defense, smashing up play after play. He is also a sure bet on the receiving end of a forward pass.

In the backfield Crowe, the "Blond Tornado," as he has been called, is the outstanding star of the team. He is the big gun of the offense and plays a great defensive game. Carrington has been exhibiting good judgment in running the team at quarterback, although not up to the other backs in carrying the ball. A merry battle is being waged for the two halfback berths between Cavanaugh, Negri, Armstrong, Dumschott and Lohran. The first four seem to be on a par at advancing the bzall, and it looks like a toss-up as to which will receive the first call. Loran is the best bet at throwing forward passes, being able to get both distance and accuracy.

WEDDING NOTES

A wedding of much interest took place in Union M. E. Church, Federalsburg, Md., Thursday at 7 p. m., when Miss Anna Mary Brown, daughter of T. Fred Brown, of that town, became the bride of Leon M. Pearson, son of Paul M. Pearson, of Swarthmore, Pa., director of the Swarthmore Chautauqua Association. The Friends ceremony was used, after which Rev. Frank C. MacSorley, pastor of the church, offered prayer.

The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of radium silk, trimmed in maltese lace, with a veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried lillies of the valley. Her maid of honor was Miss Adeline Fisher, of Denton, Md., and the bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Pearson and Miss Ellen Pearson, of Swarthmore, Pa., sisters of the bridegroom. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Charles, Federalsburg, following which the bridal couple left on an extensive automobile trip. They will be at home, 1106 County Line Road, Bryn Mawr, Pa., after November 15.

In honor of her approaching marriage, Miss Margaret Hardcastle Cochran, was given a kitchen shower by her cousins, Misses Esther and Rebecca Wilson, of Georgetown, Md. About twenty relatives and friends were entertained and the bride-elect received a number of useful and beautiful gifts. Miss Cochran will be married to Robert Henry Cook, of Miami, Fla., the latter part of November.
