INFORMATION WANTED—A man with the name of C. E. Densmount marked on all his clothing, aged from 35 to 40 years, and about 5 feet 5 inches tall, wearing a black mustache and short black beard, and evidently crazy, made his appearance in Chestertown about two weeks ago and is now confined in the Almshouse, this county, awaiting information from friends as to who he is and where he belongs. He complains of constant pain in the back of his head. He says he has been in asylums, and states that he has been under treatment by Drs. Sterns, Ward and Noble, but fails to locate any of the three doctors, or any of the asylums or other places in which he has been confined. For further information address

MARRIED.

Mr. Harry Dilks and Miss Elizabeth Foster Willis, of Camden, N. J., the latter formerly of Chestertown, were married in their own house in Gloucester City, on Wednesday evening, April 26th, in the presence of their immediate relatives by Rev. E. Cole Sunfield, of Camden.

IN MEMORY OF HARRY B. FAULKNER.

There is one we loved so well
But with God he does now dwell.
He is resting in his grave still,
But God has taken him from us for 'twas his own good will. NIECE, MOLLIE.

Gone from earth, yes, gone forever.
Tear dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain,
We shall see our brother never,
Never more on earth again.
Home is sad, Oh! how dreary,
Lonesome, lovely, every spot,
Listening for his footsteps till weary,
Weary for we hear it not. SISTER BELLE.

3 Per Ct. Interest on Deposits

WILL BE PAID BY THE Second National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

We respectfully solicit your account with THE SECOND NATIONAL of Chestertown.

The Security we offer our Depositors is Capital Stock	$50,000
Liability of Stockholders under National Bank Act	50,000
Surplus	12,000
Net Undivided Profits	4,000
Total Security to Depositors	$116,000

Our depositors are further assured of the security offered by semi-annual examinations of the condition of our Bank made by the National Bank Examiner, who reports the result of his examination to the Comptroller of the National Treasury; and thus compels all National Banks to observe the laws of conservative banking, in accordance with the Acts of Congress governing all such banks.

The affairs of the Bank have never been in a more flourishing condition than now; 1898 was the most prosperous year in the history of the Bank.

The terms upon which we will open interest-bearing accounts with our depositors are as follows:

In this Savings Department, deposits will be received upon the following terms, conditions and agreement:

Interest at the rate of three per cent. per annum will be allowed on deposits for every calendar month they may be continued, computing from the first day of the month succeeding the deposit, but to avoid tedious calculations on small sums, none will be estimated for any fractional part of a month, nor will interest be allowed on a sum less than five dollars and multiples thereof. No interest will be paid when an account has not been continued with the department four calendar months. The year will be divided into two interest periods ending on the last days of May and November; at the end of each period the interest due will be added to the depositor's account and so become a part of the principal.

Parents may deposit for their children and guardians for their wards, and if desired at the time of the deposit, may subject the same to the control of such parent or guardian.

Depositors shall have the right to withdraw their deposit at any time by giving one month's notice in writing, of their intention; but this notice may be dispensed with in the discretion of the President or Cashier, and the same be paid on demand.

The Board of Directors may, at their discretion, return any Deposit, giving one month's notice, the interest to be calculated to the time of the expiration of such notice, and no longer.

Every person on opening an account in this department shall be furnished with a book containing a duplicate of the account, in which the deposits and the payments shall be entered as soon as made, and it will be necessary for the book to be brought to the bank every time a deposit is made, or money withdrawn, so that the transaction may be regularly entered. In all cases where the whole amount is drawn out, the book must be given up to the bank.

No money shall be paid except to the person having the legal right to the deposit, or to his or her order, which order must be witnessed by some respectable person, other than the one in whose favor the order is drawn, and must always be accompanied by the book.

In any case where the book is lost depositor must notify the Bank of such loss; and where the depositor's signature is made by a cross-mark, the Bank will not be responsible for payment to a wrong person producing the book, in cases where the book has been lost and no notice given thereof.

If a deposit book be lost, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from any depositor, immediate notice thereof must be given to the officers of the Bank, and, after a sufficient publication of said loss and satisfactory surety be given to the Bank a duplicate book will be issued.

Possession of the book of deposit shall be evidence of ownership thereof to authorize the payment of money due thereon, and although the Bank will endeavor to prevent fraud on its depositors, yet all payments which shall be made by the Bank to any person producing the book of a depositor shall be valid as against the depositor, and a full and effectual release therefor to the Bank.

The above is a statement of the condition of the Bank at the close of business on April 5th, 1899.

We solicit your account, whether large or small. If you have never opened an account with us we shall be pleased to receive your patronage. If you at any time desire loans in large or small amounts, we will make every possible endeavor to accommodate you with a large or small sum.

Yours very respt.,
a22—3t. W. B. COPPER, Cashier.

MAN ABOUT TOWN.

CAPT. JOSEPH C. KENDALL was in town Tuesday for the first time for six months and seemed to be in excellent health. He does not agree with those who think the oyster industry is on the wane. He says Swan Point, Wickes' Beach and other places have many young oysters which promise well for next season. Capt. Kendall is convinced that the fine for illegal dredging is not sufficient to deter them from stealing.

MR. E. P. GIBBS, of Ohio, has been in Kent for several weeks looking for land. He stated to the NEWS man that there were a number of his people who desired to move to Maryland and that he was looking for homes for them. He reported land much higher in Ohio than in this State. His son accompanied Mr. S. and was delighted with Kent county.

GEORGE E. LEARY, ESQ., has made Grey's Inn a busy place and his son has brought to the business renewed vigor. Mr. Leary says his factory is busy preparing for the coming peach and tomato season and is turning out some excellent building material. He thinks the Democrats should get together and avoid any squabbles in the primaries.

MR. GEORGE FAULKNER, on the Thos. Skirven farm, was in town Wednesday and took great pride in speaking of his corn. He has a field of corn four inches high and which he has cultivated over once. Mr. Faulkner is making an effort to secure a divorce for his son who married a Miss Newcomb, of Fairlee.

REGISTER C. S. HURLOCK is taking an active interest in the Democratic primaries. This is the twentieth time he has entered a primary contest and each succeeding year he has declared he'd keep out. Cad. takes to politics like a fish does to water and it is natural for him to be "in it." He says he is Roe-ing hard and hopes there'll be no need to splash water. He was fortunate in buying tin cans early in the season for his cannery as the price has continued to rise since March.

MR. J. H. RUTH says he has received so many orders to shear sheep by his new process that it is impossible to meet all demands. The extra quantity of wool received from the new method is claimed to be sufficient to pay for shearing. He will confine his services to Kent.

JAMES H. BAKER, ESQ., has one of the finest asparagus beds in Quaker Neck and thoroughly understands its propagation. He does not think much of growing tomatoes at $6 per ton and says he'd rather sell Keifer pears at ten cents per basket. He is one of Kent's farmers who has pushed ahead notwithstanding the depressed condition of farming.

MR. J. E. JARRELL, of Chesterville, was in town Wednesday driving a handsome dark bay horse. He expects to have about 5,000 pounds of wool and will finish shearing all his sheep on or about the first of June.

MR. JAMES WOOD is one of Piney Neck's best farmers. He has three fields to be put in corn. He was in town Wednesday and says he believes in planting corn at different times or seasons. For instance he has one field of corn that is up, another field that has just been planted and the third field has not yet been ploughed.

MR. WILLIAM ELBURN, of near town, says he was surprised Thursday morning to find a horse in his front yard and a buggy in his corn field. The horse had broken through the front wire fence, then through the closely woven yard fence, and in breaking through the latter, broke the shaft of the wagon, made a hundred pieces of the harness and pricked its sides with wire so that the blood oozed from the animal's sides. Thursday the owner came and said the horse had broken away from the rack at Melitota the previous night.

A New Order.—State president, A. M. Geisbert, of Baltimore, on Wendesday night instituted a local camp of the Patriotic Order Sons of America with 29 members. The following are the officers: President, Stewart R. Matthews; vice-president, Wm. S. Sappington; rec. sec., J. E. Bradley; finan. sec., C. S. York, Jr.: master of forms, John E. Matthews; conductor, J. F. Getshall; chaplain, J. W. Elliott; inspector, James A. Jones; outside guard, W. M. Maslin, Jr. On Wednesday night, May the 3rd, there were nine new members initiated. This is a new beneficial order but it has 34 camps in this State. The camp meets every Tuesday night in the I.O.O.F. hall.

FATAL BOILER EXPLOSION.

News reached Centreville just before the hour of going to press of the killing of one colored man and the wounding of two others, by the explosion of a boiler at the saw mill of Mr. J. Frank Coppage, near Hayden's Station, yesterday about 12.45 o'clock. Edw. Pinder was instantly killed, William Hutchins probably fatally injured and Harrison Thomas was badly scalded, besides having an arm broken. The men had just returned from dinner and it is presumed they had allowed the water to become too low in the boiler, causing it to explode. Hutchins was brought to Centreville and taken to the office of Dr. J. M. Corkran. The lower left side of his face was cut off, his throat lacerated by a fragment of the boiler and he is also badly scalded and bruised about the head and body.

Dr. Corkran says Hutchins is fearfully injured and his recovery depends to a great extent on the care which he receives. Squire Bryan left Centreville at 4 o'clock for the purpose of holding an inquest over the remains of Pinder. —Observer.

LOCAL NOTES.

WOOL buyers are paying from 15 to 20 cents per pound.

M. A. TOULSON will move into his new drug store next week. The room now occupied by Mr. T. has been rented.

DAD. KIKER, of Worton, has bought about 400 lambs for which he paid $3.90 and $4.15 apiece. The price this week has dropped to $3.60.

THE board of County Commissioners on Tuseday made the following appointments: Health officer, Dr. W. Frank Hines; Jail physician, Dr. H. L. Dodd; janitor to Court house, Mr. Otho M. Fogwell, Sr.

THE Strong farm in Piney Neck has been sold at private sale by the trustees, M. DeK. Smith and R. D. Hynson, Esqs., to Messrs. T. Romie and C. C. Strong The farm contains 180 acres and sold for about $2000. The house was burned a few months since.

BETTERTON has the finest spring of water on the Shore and many persons have been greatly benefited by its use. The water is being bottled and used for drinking purposes in Gimbel's big store, Philadelphia, where it is shipped fresh every day. Other large houses would be glad, no doubt to get this pure water.

THE Washington College baseball team went to Annapolis Saturday on the Emma Giles, accompanied by about one hundred students and others, and defeated St. John's team by a score of 11 to 0. Townsend struck out 20 men and but one man reached third base. It was a great game and W. C. is to be congratulated.

THE steamer Emma A. Ford has been thoroughly overhauled and is expected on the route in a short time.

HOPE H. BARROLL, ESQ., trustee, sold at public sale Saturday the dwellings in Chestertown belonging to the Hamilton heirs. Mr. Wm. H. Lambert, Jr., bought the lot adjoining R. K. Pippin's home for $810 and two houses on High street adjoining Mr. Geo. C. Adkinson's, for $850.

THE Ladies' Improvement Society have received this week 150 tons of crushed Port Deposit granite which will be used in making walks in the squares. The sprinkler is badly needed and should be procured AT ONCE.

THE commissioners of Chestertown on Monday issued an order requiring that all dogs running at large on the streets of the town should be muzzled. The order will be effective for at least 60 days, and was prompted by the supposed existence of rabies among the canines in this vicinity.

THE birds have arrived. Kennedyville sportsmen received five dozen stock partridges Wednesday and the Chestertown gunners ten dozen on Thursday. The birds came from Kansas, were good size and in fine condition.

THE dogs that were bitten in Chestertown last week includes C. H. Davis' and James A. Russell's coach dogs, S. Hicks' setter, George B. McWhorter's pet pug dog and others. Special care will be taken that these animals do no harm. One gentleman in speaking of his dog says he'd rather lose the best horse he has in his stable than his dog.

THE Gallandets, of Washington, D. C., will put up at the Armstrong House Friday night and cross bats with the College team Saturday morning. This club is composed of deaf and dumb players and have defeated the John's Hopkins and M. A. C. They guarantee not to annoy Mr. Pippin's guests by talking!

THE steamer Corsica made a special trip to Chestertown Tuesday bringing fifty tons of baled straw from Queenstown to the strawboard mill here.

STRAWBERRIES will be in market here about May 20th. C. S. Smith had strawberry short cake on sale Wednesday.

IN another column will be found a full report of the meeting of the Still Pond Farmers' Club at Mr. James S. Harris'. Among those present were: Capt. R. S. Emory, Hon. Jas. H. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krusen, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Harris, Mr. and Mrs. H. Crew, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jarrell, Mr. J. Howard, Mr. Jas. Harris, Jr., Mrs. T. Shafer, Mrs. D. Hill, Misses Myra and Jessie Crew, the Misses Pennington and others. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. Wm. D. Pennington.

A BARN on the farm where Mr. Thos. McGinness resides, near Millington, together with all the farming implements and a threshing rig, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. Loss is estimated at about $1,000. The grist and sawmill near Templeville, Queen Anne's county, belonging to Alexander Hall, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday. Loss estimated at about $500.

GOV. LOWNDES has issued a proclamation extending the term in which fishing in the waters of this State is prohibited, from April 15th to June 1st.

Cut Off From Mail Service.—A vigorous protest has been raised along the mail route between Millington, Crumpton, Meginniss and Catlin's. Joseph Blackiston, the mail driver, concluded that he had bid too low for the work, and after notifying his bondsmen threw up the job, and for a week past these offices have been shut off from all communication by this route. All of the points touched had considerable mail business, while Crumpton and Millington are large and progressive towns. The department has been notified of the situation, and it is expected that some action will be taken to supply the crying demand for a continuance of the route.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The annual county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Chestertown, on Friday, May 19th. Full arrangements will be announced later.

NECROLOGY.

HORACE M. STUART, a retired contractor and builder of this town, died suddenly at his home on Queen street about 6.30 o'clock Sunday morning, aged 68. The deceased had been in failing health for several years and experienced several serious attacks of heart trouble recently. His wonderful strong constitution, however, enabled him to rally and even the day before his death he walked up-town and conversed pleasantly with many of his friends. The end came early the following morning as he was about to get up. Mr. Stuart was one of Kent's highly respected and substantial citizens. He was a clear-headed thinker and his views on general topics were practical and sensible. Up to the day of his death he kept in close touch with the news of the day and took an active interest in everything about him. As a contractor he was just to his workmen and never "docked" a man for a few hours lost. Some of his best work as a builder may be seen in Stam's Hall, S. Vannort's home, the county jail, M. E. and Sacred Heart churches, etc.

He was for many years an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. A widow (Miss Walraven before marriage) and two daughters, Misses Fannie and Bessie Stuart, survive him. Funeral services were held at his late home at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Julius Dodd, assisted by Dr. S. C. Roberts and Rev. J. M. Gill. The pall bearers were: Dr. W. F. Hines, Dr. C. P. Gilpin, John Brice, Harry Rickey, Chas. Estes. Chas. L. Dodd.

EY-SHERIFF JOHN W. PARSONS died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. J. Henry Thompson, in Broad Neck, on Thursday, aged 79. The deceased had been in bad health for some years and his death had been expected for several months. He was elected sheriff of Kent county on the Republican ticket in 1882 and served with credit. He leaves four children, namely Mrs. A. I. Dugan and Mrs. J. S. Bowers, of Baltimore; Joseph Parsons, of Middletown, and Mrs. J. H. Thompson. Sheriff Parsons was a native of Kent and in his early years conducted the wheelwright shops on the corner near St. James Church. He also engaged in the same business for many years in Chestertown. He was an honest man, an industrious mechanic and popular in all the large circle in which he moved.

The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. McCaslin, of Wesley Chapel, and Rev. Dr. Roberts, of Chestertown, at the residence of Mr. J. H. Thompson in Broad Neck, this Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in Chester cemetery. Bearers—Geo. C. Atkinson, S. Frank Smith, Capt. J. H. Thompson, Wm. J. Vannort, Samuel J. Vickers, O. P. Leary.

MRS. ANNA RASIN, widow of the late Dr. Edw. F. Rasin, died at her residence in Millington on Wednesday night last of pneumonia. She was about 70 years of age, and leaves behind three children, Miss Helen, John and Mrs. Ethlyn Hacket. The deceased was a member of the P. E. Church and was a lovely Christian character. The funeral will be held this Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, interment in Millington cemetery.

Mr. Harry Faulkner, died at his home in Kennedyville, Friday night, after a lingering illness of consumption. He leaves a widow and one small child. Funeral services were held at the M. P. Church in Kennedyville on Monday, conducted by Rev. Louis Randall, assisted by Revs. Kent M. Bull and J. M. Gill, from whence his body was followed by a large circle of mourning relatives and friends to Shrewsbury, where it was interred. The bearers were: Messrs. W. McKnett, Linwood Redmile, Graig Johnston, Henry Minner, George Glenn and Wm. Crawford. The florial tributes were beautiful, among them being a lovely cross, a wreath, an anchor, and a pillow, made of the choicest flowers with the words "Our Boy," also in flowers.

Mr. Frederick Fountain died at his home on Queen street, Chestertown, last Friday afternoon, of paresis, aged 54 years. He had been in failing health for the past two years. The deceased was well known throughout Kent county and the Eastern Shore of Maryland where he traded in fertilizers for a number of years. He leaves a widow, the daughter of Mr. John Brice, and a little son about 7 years of age. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. S. C. Roberts, D.D., interment at Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Frank H. Greenwood, Wm. E. Deford, George W. Hatcherson, Thomas D. France, Geo. B. Westcott and Josiah Massey.

NEW BANK FEATURES.—In another column will be found the announcement of a "new departure" by that old and reliable institution, The Chestertown National Bank. To the usual and ordinary banking business has been added the Savings Bank features, so that in future depositors will get from three to four per cent interest on their deposits. The notice in this issue explains the matter fully. The old friends of the Bank will no doubt be glad to note the change and a large increase in the volume of business will be realized. The Directors, at their meeting last Thursday, also changed their discount day from Thursday to Wednesday.

Interest on Deposits.

—THE—

Chestertown National Bank

HAS ESTABLISHED A

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

And will allow from THREE to FOUR per cent. interest per annum on deposits in that department.

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING!

Rev. George R. Ellis and Miss Sue Matthews Married in Union M. E. Church Under Auspicious Circumstances.

Historic Union Church in Worton was the scene Thursday evening of the most brilliant wedding that has transpired there for many years. Never has the sacred edifice been trimmed with more taste nor filled with a larger assembly. The pulpit recess was a bower of loveliness. A cover of evergreen adorned the back part of the pulpit recess, a white florial "Y" being a conspicuous centre-piece, while the pulpit and stands were covered with flowers. A floral arch stretched across the front of the chancel rail and arches of evergreen spanned the two aisles. Everywhere could be seen the artistic taste and skill of some master mind and the church was a bower of loveliness.

The wedding party entered the church at 8.30 in the following order: Ushers, Wm. Hirons, of Dover; William H. Stewart, of Baltimore; Thos. Anderson and James Matthews; the bridesmaid, Miss Annie Rothwell Stewart, then the cute little flower girls, Helen Matthews and Helen Sutton, followed by the bride and groom, REV. GEORGE R. ELLIS and MISS SUSAN MATTHEWS. At the chancel the party was met by Presiding Elder W. F. Corkran who performed the impressive marriage ceremony. After the ceremony the couple were driven to the home of the bride's mother where a delightful reception was held. Miss May Hepworth, of Chester, presided at the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Henrietta E. Matthews and is the acknowledged queen of the neighborhood. It would indeed be difficult to find a more popular young lady and the immense crowd at the church attested this fact. She was neatly attired in white French organdie trimmed in Valenciennes lace and white satin ribbon and carried a bouquet of red carnations. The groom was the efficient pastor of Union church last year and is now stationed at Kenton, Del. He did excellent work here when pastor and made hosts of friends. The bridesmaid, Miss Stewart, was tastily attired in white French organdie and carried white carnations. The flower girls were dressed in white swiss and had lots of carnations in cute little baskets.

The bride is president of the Y and the society was present in a body having reserved seats. She was also organist in the church and an active worker in all departments. The presents were numerous including some very handsome ones. The bride and groom boarded the train at Worton yesterday morning and left amid showers of rice and old shoes.
