Nickerson's Groceries.

It's not in title nor in rank,
It's not in wealth like Chest'town Bank
That makes us truly great,
But "serve your generation" and
To furnish goods of latest brand
In an unadulterated state.

The man who would to this aspire,
His motto always being "higher"
Would be truly great,
This I now will promise you
To furnish goods that's always new
At a reasonable rate.

This promise should I fulfill
Then call me "Dennis" if you will,
But come before 'tis late
And see my stock of groceries
Of sugars, coffees, spice and teas
And do not longer wait.

My stock is new and fresh, handle only first class goods consisting of LOCAL NOTES.

Gunning Accident.—Mr. Harry Lambert, son of the late Thos. Lambert, was injured in the right arm Thursday while removing his gun from a deaborn. Mr. Lambert lived with Mr. Jos. Edwards in Worton and was preparing to go gunning. His wounds were dressed by Dr. W. F. Hines and are not considered serious.

Fire.—A defective flue caused a slight fire at the home of Mr. J. E. Newton, near the mill on Monday. Mr. Newton, his wife and several children are sick in bed and but for the timely discovery of the blaze and prompt efforts of neighbors serious results would have followed.

Jamar Gets Judgment.—Judge Harlan, in the Superior Court Monday overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Jas. D. Jamar, of Quaker Neck, against the Baltimore Boot and Shoe Company and ordered judgment on the verdict for $4,000 in Jamar's favor. The suit was for injuries sustained by Jamar from an elevator in the penitentiary while he was an inmate there and working for the company. It was tried twice. At the first trial Jamar obtained a verdict for $6,000 damages, but a new trial was granted. H. W. Vickers, Esq., represented Jamar.

Decision Rendered.—The Orphans' Court judges—T. A. Jacobs, F. H. Harper and T. A. Hudson—rendered their decision last Tuesday in favor of the Messrs. Hadaway in the case noted in our last issue. The original note was for $500, the interest $903.25 and the costs $31, making a total of $1463.65. H. H. Barroll and H. P. Gorter were counsel for the Messrs. Hadaway, and H. W. Vickers for the Hynson executors. The defendants have thirty days in which to note an appeal.

Sold Out.—Mr. Wm. T. H. Whiteley is reported to have purchased of Mr. James A. Russell his carriages, horses and good will and will hereafter run the stage to and from Tolchester. "Capt." Russell has been faithfully driving the stage on this route for about 20 years previous to which he drove to Buck Neck and retires because of ill health. He has been a careful driver and has met with few accidents, while his accommodating disposition is remembered by all.

Hog Killing.—The present week has been general hog killing. Messrs. T. W. Trew and Walter Strong butchered a fine pen of thirty on Tuesday, several weighed over 400 pounds. Mr. Josiah Massey killed a pen of 21 hogs Tuesday, the average weight being 237½ pounds. This is the best weight so far reported. Mrs. M. A. Wilkins and Mr. W. Thos. Maslin killed 24 fine young hogs on Saturday. They averaged over 200 lbs.

Allie Loud killed his pen of 23 last Tuesday and they averaged 225 pounds in weight.

School Discontinued.—The school in Worton near Mrs. Janvier's home and for many years taught by Mr. Samuel W. Wallis has been closed by the school board. The average attendance at this school has not been more than five. Mr. Wallis has been appointed assistant to Miss Florence Jewell at the Catt's Corner school where the attendence is about 65. A singular fact about this change is that Mr. Wallis was Miss Jewell's first teacher. It is hoped that at an early day a school may be opened at Worton Station and one in Smithville.

Sale of Mules.—Mr. Raughley, of the firm of Sapp & Raughley, sold a carload of fine mules in Chestertown Tuesday, C. H. Hurlock auctioneer. The purchasers of pairs were as follows: J. C. Smith, $152.50; R. D. Hynson, $155.00; A. M. Brown, $137.50; Thos. Maslin, $142.25; P. A. M. Brooks, $140.00; W. Goodhand, $145.00; J. H. Newnam, $140.00; J. T. Moffett, $130.00; J. T. Ireland 2 pr., $112.50—$172.50; L. J. Stevens, $172.40; I. R. Leaverton 2 pr., $125.00—$137.50; Edw. Robinson, $160.00; J. R. Usilton, $140.00; W. B. Davis, $130.00; Pearly Moffett, $125.00

Mr. Raughley has been selling mules on this Peninsula for a number of years and has established a reputation for honest dealing. He says he has never lost a cent in Kent, Queen Anne's or Talbot, which fact speaks well for the farmers. His sales amount to about $10,000 per month and all on credit! Mr. Sapp lives in the West and buys stock most of which comes from Missouri. Mr. R.'s home is in Harrington.

A Preacher Assaulted.—Rev. S. A Earle, pastor of the colored church at Sassafras, was before Justice Geo. W. Jacoby last Saturday badly bruised—his arm was broken and he had a bad bruise across his forehead. He charged Lemuel Handy with the assault. He said he was sitting talking with his wife and because there was no light in the room Handy went for him with a chunk of wood and came near killing him. The justice held Handy in $500 bail for court, and bond was given by Mr. Stephen Boyer, Jr. Yesterday Handy was brought before Justice France and held in $150 to keep the peace, and Mr. Boyer entered as bondsmen in this case also. Handy, when asked what he struck the preacher for said: "He got too close to my wife!"

WEDDING EVENTS.

Pretty Home Weddings in Chestertown of Several Popular Couples.

Had professional hands been employed to decorate the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Reiche they could not have surpassed the work done by friends of Miss Sue Reiche. The occasion being the wedding of Miss Sue Roberts Reiche to Mr. Jefferson E. Ferguson. Blooming flowers and palms adorned every nook and corner while wreaths of evergreen were hung from the ceiling. The windows were darkened and the mellow light from beautiful globed lamps added charms to the scene. Rev. J. M. Gill performed the ceremony in the presence of only intimate friends of the couple. Miss Clara B. Usilton rendered the wedmarch on piano and played softly during the ceremony.

The bride was handsomely gowned in mode cloth trimmed in panne velvet and fur with hat and gloves to harmonize and carried a large bouquet of brides roses, while the groom looked his best in a befitting black cutaway suit. After the ceremony the company sat down to a luncheon prepared by expert chefs and served in a unique manner. After the luncheon the bride and groom were driven to Price's Station where the train was boarded for a trip North. They will return today and reside in the house next door to Mr. S. Q. Moody on High street. The presents included many useful and beautiful articles.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Budd, Mr. and Mrs. Beaston, Mrs. Pierce, Misses Olie and Katie Ferguson, Mr. Noble Ferguson, of Cecil co., Mr. and Mrs James Wood and daughter, Miss Ida Wood, of near Edesville; Mrs. Fitzpatrick and daughters, of Baltimore; Mrs. Thomas Reiche and Miss Carrie Reiche, of Baltimore; Mrs. Wm. Hudson, Mrs. Archie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Miss Clara Usilton, J. H. Sides, Geo. Lambert, D. B. Ford.

Mr. Walter T. Bennett, expert paper maker at the strawboard mill, and Miss Hattie Lecates, the pretty daughter of Mr. James Lecates, of Queen Anne's, and granddaughter of Stephen Lecates, Esq., were quietly married Wednesday evening by Rev. J. M. Gill. The bride was neatly dressed in steel-colored skirt and white silk waist. After the ceremony they went to their new home on High street, near College avenue, where they were warmly serenaded by the calithumpian band.

"Mount Airy," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. A. Cochran, about 2½ miles from town, presented a pretty scene on Thursday last at noon, when Miss Annie Naudain, their daughter, was wedded to Mr. William Rankin Crom, of Kent county, Maryland. Holly and white chrysanthemums made a pretty appearance as decorations to the house. The young people were married at precisely at 12 o'clock noon by Rev. W. J. Wilkie, rector of St. Anne's Church, this town, while standing under a canopy of mistletoe. Miss Lydia Cochran, sister of the bride, played the wedding march from Lohngrin. The bride was handsomely attired in white Persian null with veil to match, and carried white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids, Miss Louise Reynolds, of this town, and Miss Comegys, of Kent county, Md., were becomingly attired in white Persian mull and carried chrysanthemums. Mr. Comegys, of Kent county, Md., was best man. The presents were numerous and handsome. A reception took place immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Crow left on the 4.15 train for a trip North, after which they will reside in Kent county, Md., where the groom is a prosperous farmer.—New Era.

Miss Janie Skirven, 912 East Preston street, Baltimore, was married on last Thursday evening to Mr. Charles F. Taylor. The ceremony was performed at Madison Square M. E. Church by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Slarrow. Miss Bessie Taylor, a niece of the groom, was the flower girl. The ushers were Messrs. Elmore, William and Ulrick Skirven, brothers of the bride; John King, Herbert Wilson and James Denlop. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will reside at 1511 East Oliver street.

Bliss P. Somers and Miss Cora H. Matthews, of Rock Hall, were married this week.

"Reynard" in the Toils.—Robert Gilbert, the lead hand at Riverside caught a fine fox in a steel trap some nights ago and sold him for $1.50 to Messrs. George Brice, David Kendall and Conley Beachamp. The purchasers have the animal "in hospital" to cure its lame foot. As soon as it is in condition a grand hunt will be enjoyed.

OWING to an accident to the engine at Clayton, the Kent train did not reach here yesterday until 3.20 P. M.

THANKSGIVING DAY.....

Quietly Observed in Chestertown—Two Very Able Sermons—Sporting Events.

Thursday was observed in Chestertown as a day of rest by nearly everybody. Morning services were held in the P. E. Church and a cartload of vegetables distributed to the poor. Rev. Dr. Martin made an appropriate address on "why we should give thanks." Said he: "This day belongs to the church, but the world is robbing us of it. It was intended as a day of thanksgiving and praise, but is made one of pleasure and feasting. It is not a Puritan holiday, but comes from the mother church of England, and she got it from an ancient custom of the Jews, who received the command from God. The 'Feast of Ingathering' corresponds to our Thanksgiving." The pastor called attention to the great mercies and loving kindness of God which have been showered upon us. After the sermon the Lord's Supper was commemorated.

Special services were held in Christ M. P. Church in the evening and they were well attended. Rev. Lewis Randall, of Kennedyville, preached the sermon from the text, "In all things give thanks, &c." It was one of the best Thanksgiving addresses ever delivered here, both in subject matter and in delivery, and the large audience thoroughly appreciated it. He dwelt upon the great prosperity of beloved America in every respect, ascribing to God all the praise. Special music was rendered by the choir.

The Washington College football team defeated the Colora, Cecil county, team on the college campus Thursday afternoon, by the score of 26 to 0. The visitors were heavy men, but evidently had not played together often. The attendance numbered 150. Messrs. Burris and Baynard, of the college team, met with accidents in the practice game Wednesday and did not play.

Tome Institute lost at football to Washington College on Monday by 5 to 0. The college team was in bad shape, with five cripples in the line, yet played one of the fastest contests on the home grounds this season. Garey, Carmine, Hilch and Noble, for the college, did great work, Carmine's line bucking being notable.

Washington College has taken more interest in football this year than for the last ten years. Her team is composed largely of freshmen and next season she intends to make a bid for still higher honors on the gridiron.

Worton Station was the scene of a closely contested shooting match between Messrs. W. E. Moody, Charles J. Reiche, J. Raymond Bowers and W. H. Lambert, Jr., of Chestertown, and the Messrs. Hazazer, William Ivens, Fred. Schofield, Henan Hurd, Lee Plummer, W. Crowding and others, of Worton. Mr. Hazazer killed 98 out of 100 Wednesday, but on Thursday the town boys got his nerve. Chestertown won all the matches, bringing home $4. "Uncle" Jake Crowding did the shooting on the outside.

An exciting fox chase was enjoyed by a number of hunters near Chester bridge. There were thirty dogs in the chase, Mr. George Brice having his dozen fine dogs in the bunch. Mr. J. K. Aldridge and his guest, Mr. Irving Nichols, of Baltimore, got several good views of reynard. The fox was started at Round Top, and after running several hours he was earthed near Mr. Pen Jester's.

The gunners report game scarce. Mr. Will Duyer brought home 8 partridges, and Mr. Herman Gruber's party killed 13 rabbits.

Fire in Queen Anne's.—Last Monday night fire destroyed the dwelling and stables on the Clayland farm, situated between Centreville and Church Hill, together with all of the furniture and household goods. The farm belongs to Mr. Wm. S. Smith and is tenanted by Mr. D. M. Chance. The loss is about $4,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. The light of this fire was plainly seen by Dr. T. B. Wilson, at Edesville, in the lower part of this county.

A New Cash Store in Fairlee.—The big store room under Fairlee Hall is now open. It is a genuine cash store. Mr. A. P. Emerson, the new proprietor, is there to stay, and says he is determined to sell goods "cheaper than the cheapest." Call and see his stock and prices.

EGG PRICES rule about 3c per dozen higher this week in Chestertown than in Baltimore.

PUBLIC SALES TO TAKE PLACE:

THURSDAY, Dec. 6th—Capt. Daniel Hill, near Kenneyville.

MONDAY, Dec. 3rd—W. J. Vannort on Hermitage farm, near Worton Station.

MONDAY, Dec. 10—Walter L. Elburn near Chestertown.

MONDAY, Dec. 24th—by Marion deK. Smith attorney named in mortgage, House and Lot in Still Pond, Md.

Mr. J. Walter Skirven offers 50 head of young cattle and calves for sale.

A valuable place of 25 acres, near Rock Hall, is offered for sale by Capt C. R. Kerr.

CHURCH NOTES.

Miss Edna Hilles, a foreign missionary worker, spoke at the M. E. Church on Sunday evening and gave a very interesting talk about the people of India, their manner and customs. One of the most remarkable things Miss Hilles mentioned about these people was concerning the age at which the girls married. She said that nearly all of them married at about nine years of age and they were never more than twelve before taking the vows of matrimony.

Rev. Howard Covey preached at the M. E. Church on Sunday morning. Mr. Covey graduated at Washington College several years ago and entered the ministry soon after. He gave an able sermon being both eloquent and practical. He is mentioned as successor of Rev. E. P. Roberts at Still Pond.

Rev. J. M. Gill, pastor of Christ M. P. Church Chestertown, on Sunday evenlast received a class of fifteen probationers into full membership. The service was impressive and the minister's address to the young converts was to the point and profitable to all hearers.

Extra meetings are in progress at Worton Presbyterian Church each night at 7.30 o'clock, except Saturday. Rev. J. M. Gill, of Chestertown, will preach Tuesday, December 4. On Sunday service at 7 P. M. Preaching at Grace Presbyterian Church at 3 P. M. Sunday and Sunday school at 2 P. M.

Rev. E. P. Roberts, of Still Pond, the new pastor of Chestertown M. E. Church, arrived Wednesday and will preach Sunday. Rev. E. C. Sunfield's family has removed to Smyrna.

Bond Chapel M. E. Church will hold a temperance exercise on Sunday, Dec. 2. Rev. J. M. Arters, pastor of Fairlee Church, will preach at 10.30 a. m., and Rev. Mr. Guthrie, of Rock Hall, will preach at 7 p. m. The orchestra of the Chestertown M. E. Church will be present at both services. The pastor, Rev. J. R. Cannon, extends a cordial invitation to all the friends of temperance.

LOCAL BRIEFS.....

DIED after a lingering illnes at the home of her brother, Wm. L. Meredith, near Galena, Mrs. Sallie E. Huey. The funeral will be held at 2 P. M. Sunday at the house, interment at Masseys cemetery. Friends are invited without further notice.

MR. R. F. PARKS will name some remarkable prices in his new adv. next week. Read his column on 2nd page.

ANDREW WOODALL'S steamer 'Fannie' is at the works of the James Clark Company, Baltimore, having engines lined up and boiler repaired.

THE factory of Messrs. T. R. Hubbard & Son is being treated to a new coat of paint. The dress is very pretty and specially pleasing to the eye when viewed from the river.

THE landlord who gets only one-half the long corn will stand a poor show this year. One farmer near town says he got 407 bushels off 45 acres of fine land. Another one says his landlord will get about one-fifth of a crop! Mr. Bartus Trew has one of the biggest crops in this section having hauled in forty bushels to the acre.

THE quarantine at Santiago has been raised and there is no more indication of diphtheria in town.

THE Chestertown Bargain House will have some rare bargains to offer the public and these will be mentioned in the NEWS next week.

THE pleasure yacht being built at Georgetown for Capt. Woodall, is now ready for her engine. Mr. Robt. Wilson has taken out the old boiler and is putting in a gasoline engine in the small pleasure yacht of Mr. R. A. Shallcross.

THE company that was billed to play in Stam's Hall Thanksgiving night met with poor success down the Shore and stranded at Easton. Thus they did not reach Chestertown.

Mr. E. G. NICKERSON, in the J. W. Edwards building, can write poetry as well as sell cheap goods.

A SCOW LOAD of 10,000 bushels of oyster shells arrived Thursday for covering the wharf at foot of Cannon st. owned by J. D. Bacchus and F. G. Usilton. When these shells are spread these gentlemen will have a fine wharf property.
