TEN PAGES TO-DAY.

COL. BROWN NOMINATED!

The Convention at Denton Names a Queen Anne's Man on the First Ballot—Kent In It.

Colonel Edwin H. Brown, of Queen Anne's, was nominated at Denton on Thursday on the first ballot for Associate Judge of the Second Circuit by the Democratic convention, in the place of Judge Frederick Stump, deceased. Col. Brown's only opponent whose name was presented to the convention was Philemon B. Hopper, also of Queen Anne's county. The vote was as follows:

For Brown—Queen Anne's, 4; Talbot, 4; Kent, 2½. Total, 10½.

For Hopper—Caroline, 3; Cecil, 4; Kent, ½. Total, 7½.

Total convention vote, 18.

Necessary to choice, 10.

Mr. Thos. J. Keating, of Queen Anne's county, put the name of Col. Edwin H. Brown before the convention. Mr. H. L. Cooper, of Caroline, proposed Mr. Philemon B. Hopper. The audience was taken by surprise when the convention voted to close the nominations and it was expected the Queen Anne's delegation would make a change before the vote was announced.

It was claimed by the Queen Anne's delegation that up to the time of calling the convention they tried to secure aid for Mr. Hopper, their first choice, and had failed, and not until then did they falter in their loyalty to him. They were to support Col. Brown as a second choice, and when Talbot and Kent threatened them with the Cecil candidate they entered into a compact at once.

Chairman Thomas A. Smith, State Central Committee, called the convention to order in the Masonic Hall. Marion de Kalb Smith, of Kent, was chairman; George O. Garey, of Cecil, and J. Dukes Downes, of Caroline, secretaries. The committee on credentials and resolutions finished their work in short order. Resolutions adopted expressed the deepest regret by the people of the Circuit of the loss of Judge Frederick Stump.

MR. HOPPER SATISFIED.

A special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun from CENTREVILLE, MD., Oct. 3, says: The nomination of Col. Edwin H. Brown for Judge met with the approval of all the Democrats in Queen Anne's county, after it became known Mr. Philemon B. Hopper could not obtain it. By instructing the Queen Anne's delegation to vote for Colonel Brown on the first ballot Mr. Hopper has made himself stronger with the people than ever. He stated today that he would take the stump for Colonel Brown, and all of his closest friends who have been seen today will work as hard for Mr. Brown as for Mr. Hopper. Queen Anne's is expected to give the nominee 1,000 majority. Colonel Brown received scores of telegrams of congratulation add his telephone was in almost constant use for the same purpose.

Col. Edwin H. Brown.

Col. Edwin H. Brown, candidate for judge, is the youngest son of the late Madison Brown, who was for many years associated with the late Judge Carmichael in the practice of the law in Centreville. He was born in Queen Anne's county, where he has since resided, with the exception of a few years which he spent in Baltimore. In his early boyhood he attended the Centreville Academy and afterward a school near Churchville, Harford county; St. Timothy's Hall, Baltimore county, and a private school of Dr. Ackinson, in Baltimore city. He read law with his father and brother, who were associated in practice under the name of M. & J. B. Brown. In 1872, a few months before his father's death, he was admitted to the bar, and associated himself with his brother, who had been his father's partner. The name of the firm then became John B. & Edwin H. Brown, and continued so until a few years before the death of Hon. John B. Brown. Since then Col. Brown has alone continued the practice of his profession.

At the time of his father's death, who was auditor of the court, he was appointed to succeed him. In 1875 he was elected State's Attorney for Queen Anne's county for the term of four years, succeeding the Hon. Thomas J. Keating. He was renominated and elected without any opposition candidate. At the expiration of the second term he refused a third nomination. He has had extensive practice in law, equity and criminal work, being engaged in nearly all the important cases in his own county and in many in the adjoining counties. He filled the unexpired term of Stevenson Archer as the Treasurer of the State of Maryland, being appointed by Gov. E. E. Jackson.

COLUMBIA WINS!

The interest in Chestertown in the international yacht races has been great and the NEWS' special bulletins were keenly watched each day. As usual this office was the headquarters for the news and it was supplied promptly.

The first real test took place Saturday. There was a fair breeze and before an enthusiastic throng of people, Columbia defeated Shamrock II in a 15 mile beat windward, in one of the closest races ever sailed for the America's Cup. At no time apparently, were the yachts more than a minute apart, and after a stern chase of twenty minutes the American defender went to the front. She crossed the line more than half a minute in the lead despite the fact that her rival was carrying more sail. The official time at the finish was, Columbia, 3.31.07; Shamrock, 3.31.44. This gave the American boat the advantage of thirty-seven seconds at the finish and thirty-nine seconds actual sailing time. Added to her allowance of forty-six seconds, the Columbia therefore wins by one minute and twenty-five seconds correct time.

The second race was a beauty. Lipton's desire for a strong breeze and smooth sea was granted and the course was a triangular one. The Shamrock lead for a considerable distance. At the first stake she was two minutes ahead and at the second stake the Shamrock was in the lead by a minute. On the last leg the Columbia outsailed the English boat and at 1.17 gained the lead and crossed the line a winner by three minutes, and thirty-five seconds. Such a welcome as the fleet of excursion boats gave the victorious Columbia was never heard.

YESTERDAY'S RACE.

The crowds about the NEWS bulletin board yesterday was greater than ever and each bulletin discussed by Capt. Westcott and the other yachtsmen.

The Columbia won the race after a close fight in 40 seconds; corrected time, 1 minute and 23 seconds.
