NOTICE:

To Those Interested in Old Union Cemetery.

The work being done there is nearing completion and we need your financial support. Any contributions given to Rev. J. M. Arters, D. E. Jewell, G. T. Williams or myself will be placed on the list with those who have already given. Now, my friends this notice appeals to you who have not given anything toward the improvements of said cemetery. To those who fail to recognize this notice their claim may be given to another not knowing where the correct lines are.

It is necessary to know the lot you claim on or before January 1st, 1902.
dec7. BENJ. F. RASH.

A CARD:

Having noticed in the "Enterprise" issue of December 4th, in reference to my appointment as Deputy treasurer by Treasurer elect Jesse R. Copper, that I was "formerly identified with the Republican Party." I wish to say that the statement is utterly false and without foundation. I have never been "allied with the Republican Party." It is true that I served the county in an official capacity under a Republican official, Mr. James A. Casey, while he was Sheriff of Kent county. Politics did not in any way enter into my appointment as Deputy Sheriff. It was strictly and purely a business arrangement between Mr. Casey and myself. He did not refer to my political views, a fact which I am sure he will attest.

I am a Democrat from principal and have always been one. I repeat that I wish it distinctly understood that I have never been "identified with the Republican Party" and consider the article in the "Enterprise" with reference to my having been formerly allied with that party a misrepresentation of my political faith.

FELL IN CAN OF HOT LARD!

Harry Kirby, the 6-year old nephew of Mrs. Samuel Coppage, near Chesterville, fell in a can of hot lard on Thursday. The little fellow was playing about the room and in getting on a table accidentally slipped and fell, one limb going in the hot lard. He was scalded terribly and has been in a serious condition. Dr. Sheppard, of Crumpton, attended him.

A SERIOUS PREDICAMENT!

J. Maxwell Jewell Arrested at Mt. Winans for Stealing Horses—He Establishes His Innocence and is Released.

Mr. J. Maxwell Jewell, of Kent county, has been in a serious position near Baltimore this week. The Baltimore Sun says:

"Jervis M. Jewell, of Kent county, held at the Mount Winans Police Station, was on Tuesday morning taken to the Towson jail to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of stealing three horses. During the past week Messrs. William Renner, of Ellicott City; Frank Hammond of 26 Harford road, and William Eurich, of Stemmer's Run, have reported that a man answering Jewell's description had stolen horses from them under the pretense of hiring them. Jewell was arrested Monday by Patrolman Bartcber, of the Baltimore county force, upon information furnished by Mr. John E. Kirby of Cherry Hill The prisoner is said to have acknowledged the thefts, pleading in extenuation that he was intoxicated at the time. He says he represents a Delaware lumber firm."

Mr. Theodore Jewell and Mr. Geo. B. Hart were in Baltimore this week and think they have arranged for the release of the young man. Mr. Hart testified that he had Mr. Jewell in his employ and the men from whom the horses were taken stated that they had hired them to Mr. Jewell. The owners were returned their horses, together with their hire, etc. Mr. Jewell expected to be released from Towson jail yesterday.

Mr. S. Moffett was in town yesterday and thinks he is on the track of his stolen team.

THANKSGIVING DANCE.

The first of a series of this winter's dances was held in Still Pond Town Hall, on Thanksgiving night. The evening was an ideal one, and the committee ably assisted by quite a number of the town's ladies and gentlemen left nothing undone to make the event pleasant. The hall room was beautifully festooned with evergreen, and the orchestra of four pieces gave charming music. Dancing began shortly after 9 o'clock and continued till midnight, when a supper was served. At 1 a. m. the dance was resumed and lasted till 4 o'clock when the party dispersed all agreeing that no more enjoyable time had ever been spent in historic old Still Pond. There were about one hundred persons present, and society from nearly every section in the county was represented, while a number of people were present from Delaware and elsewhere. Much praise is due the committee, patronesses and others who assisted in making the affair a grand success. The patronesses were Mrs. Harry Derringer, Mrs. E. T. Comegys, Mrs. Wm. Wallis and Mrs. Harry Price.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walls, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bowers, Mrs. C. Harry Price, Mrs. Alex Kennedy, Misses Mattie and Emma Davis, Lizzie Pennington, Lula Crow, Miss Grimes, of Kentucky; Miss Lula Dryden, of Balto. Miss Willis, of Chesapeake City, Misses Julia Deshane and Mamie Jones, of Cecil Co., Misses Sallie Jones, Nannie and Grace Price, Grace Severson, Etta Wallis, Evelyn Cochran, Mamie Kennedy, Miss Childs, Maud Hurlock, Miss Hurlock, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Woodall, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schofield, Mr. and Mrs Bell, Jos. Clark, W. R. Pennington, of Pa., Messrs Cochran, of Middletown; Edgar and Eddie Pennington, John Parrott, Harris Crewe, Howard and George Parrott, Carson Harris, Edw. Crowding, Dr. and Mrs. Horton Kelley, Howard Turner, Page Strong, Henry Price, Misses Edna Strong, and Violet Beck, Bert Decorse, Wm. Maslin, Scott Beck, Garey Ireland, Hyland, Ford, Shallcross, Hurlock, T. J. and S. H. Greenwood, Ambrose Carroll, Miss Lilian Greenwood, Mrs. Biddle Hossinger, Miss Deshane, Harry Hendrickson, Henry and Walter Davis, Miss Edson, Miss Annie Foxwell, Richard and Edward Wallis, Misses Rebecca, Alice and Edith Hepbron, Wm. and Ed. Hepbron, Lou Alrich, Hayward Wallis, Miss Daisy McCauley, Mr. and Mrs. Hurtt, Mr. and Mrs. Crow, Walter Crow, Chas. Watts.

Battle Flag.—Mr. Milton Baker, of Chestertown, has had in his possession for many years a silk flag that was carried by the American soldiers in the Battle of Caulk's Field. He received it from the Reed Rifles, the latter having been presented the flag by a company from the lower District. It is in tatters but none the less appreciated by the Philip Reed memorial committee to whom it was presented this week, Capt. C. A. Leary, chairman.

JUSTICE FRANCE sent Major Graham and Spencer Barryman to jail in default of payment of fine for reckless driving and cruelty to animals.

B. Simmons.

The jury reached a verdict in favor of Mrs. Warner for $975 at 4 P. M. This verdict carries the heavy costs with it.

George W. Parks, of Rock Hall, was found not guilty on a charge of selling liquor.

Case against Wm. Waters, colored, charged with assaulting his wife was tried and Waters was convicted and sentenced 4 years in penitentiary.

Court will likely adjourn today.

TWO DEATHS IN ONE FAMILY.

Death of Charles E. Perkins, Jas. P. Leary, Mrs. Shuster and Others.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Elburn, of Edesville, have been sadly afflicted during the past few weeks Last Thanksgiving Day they buried their 18 months old baby, Blanche, who died with the whooping cough. The interment took place at St. Paul's, bearers being John Atkinson, Wm. Francis, Johnny and Maurice Hadaway.

While Rev. J. L. Elderdice was performing the sad rites over the baby, news came that Annie, aged 14, had died in the same house. She had been ill with typhoid fever and whooping cough and was a bright child. Her body was buried in St. Paul's on Sunday, the bearers being Elwood Burgess, Bertie Atkinson, Lloyd Gale, Pearl Wheat, Robert Lewis, Wm. Schriley. Casey Bros. had charge of the funeral arrangements. The whole neighborhood sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Elburn in their severe affliction. A third child is sick but at this writing is improved.

Charles E. Perkins, Esq., eldest son of Major Eben F. Perkins, died at his home in Philadelphia yesterday morning at 7.30 o'clock, aged about 36. The deceased had been in bad health for nearly a year during which time he had the best medical attention in this town and in the city. He was born in Chestertown graduated at the public school, and at Washington College in 1884. He removed to Philadelphia where he was married to an estimable lady and held a position under Mayor Warwick, later practising law. The deceased was a noble young man beloved by a large circle of friends. The funeral will take place next Monday in Philadelphia.

Mr. James P. Leary, son of James and Mary Leary, died at his home near Edesville on Sunday after a long illness. For a number of years he clerked in Capt. C. A. Leary's store where he made many friends. The funeral took place Tuesday, interment at Wesley Chapel, Rev. C. K. Morris officiating; the bearers were C. A., O. P., and Elmer E. Leary, William, Samuel and Vachel Burgess.

William H. Pearce, Sr., a respected citizen of Cecil county, died December 4, at five o'clock, at the home of his son, William H. Pearce, Jr., in Upper Elk Neck, two miles from Elkton, aged 82 years.

Sarah W., widow of the late Samuel Shuster, died yesterday, Friday, of pneumonia at the residence of her son-in-law, Walter F. Sparks, Fairlee, aged 83 years. The funeral will take place at 11 A. M. Sunday at the residence of her son-in-law. Rev. J. M. Arters will officiate; interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers will be John P. Nicholson, Thos. W. Skirven, John Bell, Wm. E. Keyser, James Bramble, Enoch N. Roland.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. C. T. Westcott and daughter, Miss Marie Westcott, are prominently associated with the management of the great Confederate bazaar in Baltimore this week. The most distinguished ladies in the city are engaged in this laudable memorial work, and thousands attend the fair every evening. Mrs. Mamie Bryan, formerly Miss Patterson, of Chestertown, was also one of the attendants at the Maryland booth.

Mrs. V. Hendrickson has been spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Stuart, in Baltimore.

Our delegates-elect, Messrs. Kendall and Trew, were in Annapolis on Thursday and slated their seats in the House. They will likely board in Baltimore.

Mr. Isaac Robinson was in town Wednesday looking after the interest of the Isaac Robinson Company. He contemplates continuing a hardware store in Chestertown, and may operate several canneries, paying cash for everything.

Miss Maggie Fowler returned Saturday from a protracted visit to her sister in Cumberland.

Mr. Glenn Howard, son of Mr. Frank H. Howard, has been confined to his home on Mill Street for several weeks by sickness. His friends wish for his early recovery.

Frank B. Hines, of Baltimore College of Physicians & Surgeons, and Charley Hines, of M. A. C., spent the holidays at their parents home on Chester river.

It is with regret we announce the removal of Mr. Edward B. Jones and family to Philadelhhia. Mrs. Jones, Miss May, Master Sam and Mr. Jones will leave many friends here who wish them every success in their new field.

Dr. J. A. Catlin and wife were members of a delightful theatre party to hear Sir Henry Irving in Philadelphia last week.

Miss Maude Gibson, of Templeville, has been awarded the scholarship in Normal Hall, Washington College, from Caroline.

Miss Lelia Reese, teacher of the school near Pomona, has been confined to her home this week with sickness.

Mrs. Hugh Townsend, of Montgomery county, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. H. G. Simpers, in Chestertown.

Mr. Walter Trew, near Pomona, has been quite sick for two weeks, but is now much improved.

Mrs. Wallace Maslin is quite ill at her home near the depot.

Miss Katherine K. Hobbs, of the Washington College faculty, read a paper before the Teachers' Institute, at Smyrna, on Wednesday. The audience pronounced it one of the best read at the session.

Dr. G. W. Simmons, of Chestertown, has rented an office in Sudlersville and will remove there. His son, Dr. H. B. Simmons, will remain here.

Squire Dewees, of Brenford, has been visiting friends in Kent. He is looking remarkably well.

Miss Mary Smith has been the guest of Miss Nickerson on Mill street. She is an employe of Armstrong & Caior and has been in the South but was burned out of home and store and came to Kent to await rebuilding of place of business. She lost most of her clothing in the fire.

Mrs. Katie J. Gale has returned to Kent having spent some time with relatives and friends in Philadelphia, Wilmington and Kirkwood. She is at present residing with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Bryan, of near Lankford.

Mr. and Mrs. Jere Miner gave a Thanksgiving dinner to their friends and relatives last Thursday, at their home at Fairlee Grove. All the delicates of the season being served; and ice-cream and cake being served in the evening. All spent a very enjoyable evening, among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bacon, of Fairlee; Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, of Still Pond; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parsons, of Hanesville; Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, of Worton; Rev. John M. Arters and wife, of Fairlee; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Rice, the live stock buyers of Fairlee; Mr. and Mrs. Kinn Hudson, of Worton; Mr and Mrs. John Davis, of Chestertown; Misses Ellen and Francis Bacon, Rachel, Ada and Alice Wood, Ruth Clark and Rebecca Davis, Messers. Russell Morris, of Dillsburg, Pa., Arthur Bacon, Thos. Parsons, Edgar Clark, Norman, Earle and George Cooper, Edward W. Rice and three cooks.

A NEGRO BURGLAR was killed in Pennsylvania a few days ago and there was found on his person written evidence that he had recently voted ten times in one day at fifty cents a vote for the Quay machine.
