VOL 62 — CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1902. — NO. 30

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

HAVING purchased the stock, fixtures and good-will in the Wheel-wright business at STILL POND, I am now prepared to serve my friends and patrons and the public generally with all work in a first-class manner that is usually done in a First-class Wheel-wright shop. I will continue to have on hand WAGONS & DEARBORNS. Having been manager of this branch of Mr. Hacket's business for the past 13 years, I feel assured I can give entire satisfaction. Thanking you in advance for your patronage.

I am yours truly
C. W. HAGUE.

TO FARMERS AND TRUCKERS OF ROCK HALL

Four weeks ago we advertised in the NEWS for Tomatoes, also sent out cards to farmers, soliciting them to come and see me in reference to planting same and have had no responses to call. Now our object was to pack them here and utilize the cannery here that belongs to the corporation of which some farmers have stock in. Not so as has been rumered that we were buying for some Baltimore house. Our price, which is $7.25 per ton is 20 per cent. more than has ever been paid here for tomatoes to pack, and is a good crop at this. Some are probably holding back on last year's prices expecting the same prices which they did three seasons ago and they would not clear 5 cents per basket, and our exerience in packing tomatoes previous to '96, for 15 years was that we often had to ship them on account of more than we can pack, and we never got ½ clear of what we were paying then at $5.50 per ton. We admit there has been some change in the trend of business or we would not make the advance offer. If you desire to grow Tomatoes on a certainty see me by the 10th of March. The terms of payments will be made satisfactory. Yours,
1t. JOSEPH DOWNEY, AGENT.

Lloyd Burke Reprieved!

Governor Smith on Tuesday granted a reprieve to Lloyd L. Burke, who was sentenced to be hung at Centreville yesterday. Burke was convicted of assaulting 10-year-old Helen Tarman, of Queen Anne's county, on October 8, 1901. When his case came up for trial it was, upon the request of his counsel, Messrs. Seth and Wilson, James T. Bright and Edwin H. Brown, Jr., removed to the Circuit Court for Talbot County. Unless the sentence is commuted he will be hanged on Friday March 21.

The reason for the Governor's reprieve was to give time to those interested in Burke's behalf to get the petition requesting that his sentence be commuted to life imprisonment to Judge Martin, who sentenced him, it being a rule of the Governor that he will not commute a sentence unless the request is signed by the judge who sat in the case.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Tarman, parents of the assaulted child, signed the petition. Burke has the sympathy of the community. Even those who consider that his case demands the fullest penalty of the law are not averse to the Governor exercising executive clemency and giving him a life sentence. The majority of persons think that the law is justified by imposing a life sentence. A view of one class of persons is that the judges heard the case on both sides; that their judgment was rendered after a week's determination, and that nothing has transpired in the way of new evidence to alter their decision. Another class hold that in view of his family, the possible doubts as to his being the offender, the crime itself, and many other considerations, that the law would be completely justified in a life sentence.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC:

We desire to inform our friends and patrons and the public generally that arrangements are about completed for the forming of a stock company to take over all the propefty and assets of the Isaac Robinson Company in Kent county.
It will be the object of the new Company to conduct a general Hardware and Implement business, at both Still Pond and Chestertown, and operate three canneries—Rosedale, Still Pond Station and Chestertown.
The name of the new company will soon be announced, and we respectfully urge, on behalf of the corporation, that you do not sign contracts for growing Corn and Tomatoes, or place your orders for Fertilizers, Seeds, Implements, &c., until its representatives can see you, which they hope to do in a very short time.
New stocks will be added promptly and stocks will be kept up complete in accordance with modern methods, and it will be the aim of the new company to merit a continuance of the patronage which you have so kindly accorded them in the past.
The present representatives will be glad to welcome you any time at either of the stores—Chestertown or Still Pond.

THE SAD REAPER.

Death Enters Several Homes in Kent and Takes Old and Young.

Mrs. Mary E. Leary, widow of George Leary, Sr., died at her residence in Rock Hall on Friday night, Feb. 21st. Mrs. Leary was a daughter of Topping and Emily Stevens, who owned and occupied for many years the properties known as Whitehall and Deeplanding point, and were the progenitors of a numerous family of whom there are at present only four living, Lemuel and Wesley Stevens, Mr. Durding and Mrs. King. Mrs. Leary was born January 21st, 1825, being 77 years of age. In 1843 she married James Blackiston who died many years ago and only one of his children survive her (John Blackiston, of Rock Hall.) In 1872 she married George Leary Sr, who died in 1883. This venerable and highly respected lady was a credit to her family, an ornament to the Methodist church (of which she was a member for more than half a century) and even in the character of a step mother she did not only allay instinctive prejudice, but inspired respect and attachment. The funeral services were conducted at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church on Monday afternoon, interment in the cemetery adjoining. Rev. J. L. Elderdice officiated and Undertaker Casey was funeral director.

Frank Glenn Howard died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Howard, in Chestertown, on Friday, February 21st. He was the eldest son, being 20 years of age. That dread disease, consumption, had fastened its hold upon him and all that faithful parents, loving friends and skilled physicians could do availed nought to stop its ravages. He had been a sufferer from it for months, but the end came sudden, and the announcement in last week's NEWS of his death was an unexpected shock to his many friends. Glenn was a young man of an unusually cheerful disposition and even during the last weeks of his sickness buoyed up the hopes of his friends that he would recover.

Among the young men of Chestertown he enjoyed the fullest confidence and was a faithful friend and comrade. He was an active member of Christ M. P. Church Sunday school and a regular attendant. Chester League, also numbered him among its members and his sorrowing comrades attended the funeral in a body. The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at his late home on Mill street. Rev. D. L. Greenfield officiated. Interment in Chester Cemetery. The pall baarers were: Robert and Charles McWhorter, Harry Hodgkins, J. Waters Russell, Fred. Estes, Wm. Benjamin. Undertaker J. F. Ferguson was funeral director.

Mrs. Alfonso Ashley, widow of the late Capt. Joseph Ashley, died at her home in Piney Neck, on Thursday week. The funeral services were conducted Sunday by Rev. C. K. Morris, interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery. The deceased was about 75 years of age and had been in bad health for several months.

Miss Lizzie Wright died suddenly at the home of Dr. Stephen E. Ford, at North East, Cecil county. She was on a visit to the home of Dr. Ford when she was attacked with heart trouble and died. She was about 61 years of age; funeral took place on Thursday at Pemberton, N. J. Miss Wright has made her home for several years with Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter, near Chestertown, being a relative to Mrs. Klinefelter, and is well-known here.

She is survived by two sisters, one of whom is Miss Mary Wright, who makes her home with Dr. Ford, the other being Mrs. William Emley, of Pemberton, N. J., and two brothers, J. M. Wright, of Chestertown, and S. L. Wright, of San Francisco.

Wedding Events.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss M. Estelle Simmons, of Chestertown, to Mr. William Anderson, of Columbus, Ohio, comes as a complete surprise to her many friends in Chestertown. Miss Simmons has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ella Laughlin, of Belle Centre, Ohio, and it was at her home on Monday, February 17th, that the ceremony took place. Miss Simmons is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Simmons and sister of Dr. H. Benge Simmons. Since moving to Chestertown she has gained a wide circle of friends by her perfect manner and bright charming accomplishments. The groom is a prominent druggist of Columbus, Ohio, and there he will take his bride.

Miss Kate V. Green and Mr. Henry Miller, of Baltimore, were married last Sunday morning. Miss Green was for sometime superintendent of the confectionary department in Mr. Chas. S. Smith's store and has many friends here.

Mr. John M. Durham, of Kent, and Miss Mamie E. Clark, of, Wilmington, Del., were married on Wednesday in Wilmington, by H. S. Dulaney at the M. E. parsonage.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Aro, Baltimore, was the scene of a very pretty wedding. The contracting parties being their son, George E., of Baltimore, and Miss Annie E. Herbert, formerly of Worton, on Tuesday evening, February 18th, at 8.30 o'clock. Rev. U. S. G. Rupp, pastor of the Church of Reformation, of which the groom is a member, performed the ceremony. The bride was gowned in cadet blue with white mull and white silk aplaque trimmings and carried bride's roses. A reception followed the ceremony. They were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Aro will reside at 1105 Federal street. Misses Flora and Daisy Herbert, of Betterton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edw. Smith, of Kent, attended the ceremony

WINTER HAS BROKEN.

Navigation Opened After 25 Days — Ice Gorges and Floods Now Threatened.

Navigation is open on the Chester River and Chesapeake Bay. Chestertown, Rock Hall, Tolchester, Betterton and other sections again welcome water communication with Baltimore. On Monday the Gratitude under command of Captain Clark accompained by the ice boat, F. C. Latrobe, started on her trip to Chestertown. Very little ice was encountered in the bay, at Rock Hall the ice was from 4 to 9 inches thick and several men walked out on the ice and kept along side the ice-boat as she plowed her way to Deep Landing wharf. The attempt was made to reach Centreville, but without avail. Jackson's Creek was also given up. On Tuesday the Emma A. Ford, arrived in Chestertown, under the command of Capt. Wm. Taylor, and her coming was hailed with joy by more than one anxious person. The regular schedules of the Chester river fleets are now in effect. The Tolchester boat commences to-day. The Ericsson boats began ranning Thursday, the Anthony Groves being accompanied up the bay by the Latrobe.

There is no fear of an ice gorge in the Chester river or its tributaries though the tides were very high yesterday, but along the Chesapeake bay shores of Kent and the Susquehanna much uneasiness is being felt. At Betterton the bay was nearly clear of ice yesterday and very little damage has been done to the wharves.

The contest of strength between the gorge of ice and the rising water in the Susquehanna river took place Tnursday night under the cover of the darkness and resulted in the inundation of a considerable portion of Port Deposit. The river continued to rise until midnight and remained stationary until 2.30 o'clock in the morning, when a channel was forced along the west bank which relieved the town. The railroad tracks were obstructed by ice and debris. Traffic was suspended after 7 o'clock at night. The regular schedules were not in operation. The damage will not amount to much, as very little ice came in with the overflow.

The usual daily sessions of the Tome Institute were dispensed with and the faculty and students spent the day in viewing a scene that was novel to them.

Business was practically suspended. Residents of the town mingled with hundreds of visitors in viewing the flooded section and the piles of ice There is still a vast amount of ice extending from the east bank beyond the center of the river, but no further trouble is anticipated.

New Hotel for Rock Hall.—One of the improvements promised for Rock Hall is a roomy three-story hotel. Mr. John P. Thompson of Baltimore, has purchased the store and land of Mr. Oregon P. Leary at Deep Landing for $1600 and will erect a hotel on the site. It will cost several thousand dollars and be fitted up for summer boarders especially. The contract is said to have been already given out to a firm of Kent County contractors, whose reputation guarantees the building to be an ornament to that section of Kent.

Will Probated.—The will of the late Mrs. Mary E. Leary was offered for probate in the Orphan's Court on Tuesday. It was dated Sept. 1st, 1888 and witnessed by Samuel Burgess, Thos. H. Casey and Jas. L. Leary. She makes her son, James E. Blackiston (who died in 1900) executor and leaves the property to his heirs. It requires that $350 be paid to John J. Blackiston, her son, and $10 to Wm. C. Blacklston, of Denton.

The New Station.—The report of ex-Comptroller Smith, the Pennsylvania's representative here, concerning the moving of the Chestertown railroad station, has been sent to Supt. Holliday and definite action is looked for at an early date. The land for the right of wav will cost about $3,000, Mrs. Usilton agreeing to take $2000 for the land through her farm. The grading and filling in will cost $4,000 or $5,000 more and a new station another thousand. Thus this improvement means about $10,000 to the railroad company. But a new station will be built at Chestertown anyhow, the contract having been given out already. It will be what is known as the cottage style and be similar to the pretty station at Greensboro. A new tank house of stone will also be erected at Chestertown at once.

Tolchester Steamer.—The Tolchester Beach Saturday boat will begin March 1st. Sassafras River Line will resume regular trips Thursday March 5th. Port Deposit Line will start soon as ice will permit.

Personal and Social. . .

Postmistress Lucas has been confined to her house several days this week. Her duties are being acceptably attended to by Mrs. Hiram Brown, an adept in the postoffice business.

Miss May Morgan has returned home after spending some time with Miss Elizabeth Cochran, near Middletown Del.

Miss Elizabeth Cochran is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Cochran, Jr., near Galena.

Charles H. Clark, of Fairlee, has been given an increase of pension to $12.00.

Mrs. James T. Dixon, who sustained a sprained arm several weeks ago in a sleighing accident is improving

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Willis, near Melitota, entertained a large company at their hospitable home on Thursday evening A six o'clock dinner was served to about seventy-five guests, and everything known to Kent's famous providers was placed before the company. The dinner was sumptuous. A feature of the evening's entertainment was a guessing contest upon photographs taken in the early years of the guests. Some guesses were certainly landed far from the mark.

Miss Rhoda M. Connor, of Wilmington, Del., is the guest of Miss Annie Foxwell, at her home, Black's station.

Mr. M. deK. Smith, Jr., of the engineering department of the Pennsylvania Railroad, spent a few days this week with his parents, ex-Comptroller M. deK Smith and wife, in Chestertown.

Messrs. Foster Perkins and W. T. Shermadine, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in Chestertown.

Mr. Joseph Wilkie, near Pomona, has been quite sick for several weeks and is improving very slowly.

Mr. Harvey Boggs, of the Kent railroad, is confined to his home this week. His place is being filled by Mr. William Hollet, of Clayton, Del.

Mrs. W. L. Morrison has returned to her home in Chestertown after several weeks spent in Baltimore under medical treatment. We are glad to report her much improved in health.

Conductor John D. Welch, of the Kent railroad, has been in Philadelphia this week at Broad street station under the instruction of the chief conductor of the Pennsylvania railroad. The genial Kent railroad officer will soon be seen in the nobby long frock coat of the Pennsy.

Mr. J. R. Wilson, formely one of Galena's live machine men, has removed from Kent and will very likely settle permanently in Ohio, though he has not yet decided definitely.

Miss Ollie Beachamp, daughter of Mr. J. W. Beachamp, after spending the winter in Chestertown, left for Gettysburg yesterday.

The Baltimore Sunday Herald had in it a very good picture of Miss Sue Ford as a representative of Kent's charming and pretty galaxy of beautiful women.

Rev. Dr. Chas. A. Grise and wife are enjoying a few weeks in Florida.

Mrs. Lillian Greenwood and daughter, Grace, of Locust Grove, have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Augustus Howell in Queen Anne's.

Miss Lizzie Baker, daughter of Senator Baker, of Kent county, is the guest of Missess Edith and Alida Price at the home of Dr. W. D. Troy in Centreville.

Deputy Register of Wills Wm. H. Ford is able to be up and is improving.

Mr Wm. Clough was out this week.

A marriage license has been issued by clerk Dixon to Clifford Hudson and Jennie B. Crossley, both of Kent.

Miss Emma Goodhand, of Balto., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John N. Dodd, Chestertown.

Accidents.—John, the 12-year-old son, of Mr. John F. Shriver, near Cliff City, had his arm broken Tuesday afternoon. He was walking through the horse pound when one of the horses turned very quickly and kicked him on the arm breaking it between the elbow and shoulder. Dr. C. W. Whaland was called and rendered medical assistance. The boy is getting along very well. This young fellow had seyeral fingers cut off about a year ago. Accidents seem to follow him.

Mr. Geo. M. Rollison, of the firm of Roland & Rollison, the up-town butchers, met with a severe accident last Saturday. He was operating their sausage machine when his hand became caught in the machine inflicting a painful wound. The third finger had to be completely amputated by Dr. H. L. Dodd.

The Potato Market.—White potatoes are scarce in Kent and many are being shipped here from the cities. Still a few of Kent's farmers have them for seeding purposes. Good white potatoes are retailing in Chestertown for $1.25 per bushel. Mr. C. H. Jefferson, near Chestertown, has 600 baskets yet on hand. The Baltimore markets are being flooded with foreign potatoes. Steamers are ariving daily with cargoes from Scotland, Ireland, Germany and Holland, and the shipments average about 3000 bags each. The potato crop in this country was so small last year that foreign crops are relied upon to supply the demand. The European potato crop this season is the largest known for many years. More potatoes were imported during the last two months than were brought in during the last eight years.
