Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, was filled to overflowing Sunday and the following program rendered under the supervision of Rev. Kent M. Bull:

Song, "Praise the Lord;" prayer; Responsive Scripture Lesson; song, "Long Ago;" Greeting, by Naomi Davies; recitation, "The King's Children," by Mary Archibald; recitation, "We Should Shine for Jesus," Carrie Bolton, Ollie Atwell, John Bolton, Gilbert Rawley; song, "When Roses Wake;" recitation, "The Blossom," by Ada Hurlock; recitation, "We'er a Band of Happy Children," by Clara Rawley; song, "O Time of Song and Gladness;" recitation, "The Blessing of Song," by Flora Johnston; dialogue, "Feed My Lambs," by Helen and Annie Bull; son, "Sing Merry Birds;" "The Boat," by Ralph Shallcross, George Belton, Harvey Rawley, Harry Hill, Delbert Robinson; "A Little Child shall Lead Them," by Bessie Webb; song; recitation, "Children's Day," by Lizzie Hessner; reading, "Watching for Papa," by Helen Bull; recitation, "The End of the War," by Louisa Johnston; solo and quartette, "Summer Days;" recitation, "The Children," by Mattie Cain; "The Message of Flowers," Louisa Johnston, Lizzie Hessner, Bessie Webb, May Hurlock, Clara Rawley, Flora Johnston; recitation, "Little Builders," by Naomi Davies; song, "Hark the Song;" Dr. Worden's Greeting; recitation, "Give as God has Given," Ada Cain; collection; song, "Hosanna on This Day;" recitation, "What a Girl Can Do;" by Beulah Archibald; recitation, "The Little Ones He Blesses," by May Hurlock; song, "Sunshine and Flowers;" benediction.

Union M. E. Church.

Children's Day services were held at Union M. E. Church Worton last Sunday evening June 1st. Mr. Benj. F. Rash Superintendent, Miss Florence Jewell, organist; the children were well trained. The music and singing were never better under the supervision of Miss Florence Jewell. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The church was filled and very many had to remain outside. It was well appreciated from the amount of collection which was over $27. Brother Pool, the pastor, was well pleased with the collection. The following program was rendered:

Song, "Praise the Lord" by school; Prayer, by Pastor; recitation, by Sydney Turner; song, "When Roses Bloom" by school; Bible Reading, by school; Solo and chorus, "Sweet Rose of Sharon" by Mr. Charles Hurlock; Recitation, "My Little Light" by Ida Wood; song, "Summer Days Have Come Again" by school; Recitation, "Beautiful June" by Martha Usilton; Recitation, "Beautiful Flowers" by Effie Noblette; Recitation, "A Small Sweet Way" by George Noblette; Recitation, "Two Sunbeams" by Eva and Bessie Jewell; Duet and chorus, "Help to set the World Rejoicing" by Miss Florence Jewell and Mrs. Clark; Exercise, "The Daisies" by Mammie Greenwood, Mable Skeggs, Grace Noblette, Daisy Clark, Edith Dodson, Irene Horn, Pearl Dodson; Song, "Beautiful Summer" by school; Recitation, "Children's Day on Emanuel's Hill"; by Lewin Burris; Address by Pastor; Offering, Recitation, "Growing" by Florence Noblette. HIRAM M. BROWN has been appointed agent of Gill & Fisher, of Baltimore, to buy grain for them. This firm is one of the strongest in the State. Mr. Brown thinks the wheat crop will not be over sixty per cent. of a full crop.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. Theodore Diehl died at his home in Edesville Monday afternoon after a long illness of daopsy, aged 62. The deceased formerly lived in Worton where he was widely known. He leaves a widow and a daughter, Mrs. W. H. Fields. The deceased was born Nov. 16, 1842, at "Fairview" in New Castle county, Del., where he was carefully and lovingly trained by his parents who were devoted to him as the youngest of eleven children. He came to Kent in 1871. The funeral was held Tuesday, interment in Chester Cemetery. The bearers were Geo. W. Hatcherson, Chas. H. Hurlock, Charles L. Dodd, Willard Melvin, R. G. Nicholson, J. H. Greenwood; Cacy Bros. undertakers.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith on Sunday and robbed it of Orem Kent, the seven-month-old son, who has been sick for some weeks. Interment was made Monday in Chester Cemetery.

Mrs. Phinneas Jones died last Saturday evening at her home near Sassafras. Mrs. Jones was a most estimable lady. She was one of the oldest members in the M. P. Church and was always a regular attendant. She leaves a most devoted and kind husband, a daughter and two devoted sons to mourn her great loss, but their loss is her gain for she was a devout Christian and she is safely home. The funeral was held from her late home near Sassafras on Tuesday afternoon 2.30. Services were held at the M. P. Church. Rev. J. McLain Brown and Rev. J. Shipman preaching most beautifully of the loved one. Interment in the cemetery adjoining the church. The flowers were many and very beautiful. Mr. Emerson of Middletown was funeral director. A very large funeral.

Mrs. Agnes Boyer, wife of Stephen Boyer, Esq., died last Sunday from Bright's disease, aged 76. For more than half a century they have trodden life's paths together, and no man and wife were more devoted to each other. She was born in Cumberland county, Pa., her maiden name being Adams, and was married fifty years the 20th of April. She had been a devoted member of the Protestant Episcopal Church some 25 years and was a true Christian woman. She leaves a sadly bereaved husband and many warm friends to mourn her death. The funeral services took place Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, her pastor, Rev. W. J. Wilkie, officiating, assisted by Rev. Albert Ware, her former pastor, of Masseys, Md., and Rev. F. H. Moore, D. D, of Forest Presbyterian Church. The funeral was a very large one, the interment being in the homestead burying grounds, near Masseys, Md. The following were the pall-bearers: Wm. R. Cochran, Joseph Biggs, D. J. Nowland, Samuel B. Foard, Joshua Clayton and Thos. E. Hurn.

Sale of Land.—Auctioneer J. H. Greenwood on Tuesday sold for W. W. Beck, trustee, the Riley mill lot, estate of the late Thomas E. Cooper, to Mr. Robert N. Boston for $400. Mr. Boston lived for many years at Goose Hill and will be no stranger there when he takes up his residence on his newly purchased farm of 30 acres.

Marion deK. Smith, trustee, sold the house in Millington occupied by Mrs. Clough to Frank A. Emory for $405. The house occupied by Mr. Thos. M. Britton was held up and will be sold at private sale by applying to Mr. Smith.

Mr. W. E. Dodson has sold at private sale to Mr. and Mrs. James Patten his home of 17 acres located near Chestertown for $1400. Mr. Patten will improve the house and remove there next year. This place is between Lauretum Place owned by H. W. Vickers, Esq., and Mr. Wilbur Eliason's estate.

John M. Conner hes purchased of Wm. H. Cacy a farm near Masseys containing 138 acres for $1,000. This farm is a part of "Delaney's Manor" and is on the road from Massey's to Delaney's adjoining the lands of Dr. E. G. Clarke and others.

TOLCHESTER OPENS BIG!

This has been a gala opening week at Tolchester and the resort looked prettier than ever before. Supt. G. E. Noland and his estimable wife have everything in readiness for the crowds and the resort never had a better prospect. Those from Rock Hall employed there are Messrs. Joseph W. Kendall, Joseph R. Ryan, S. Thomas Wheat, Pearl Wheat, T. W. Wilkins, Harry C. Wilkins, Bartus Wilkins, Wm. I. Ashley, Benjamin I. Ashley Charles R. Webb, George W. Moffett, J. Walter Sutton, C. Frank Wheatley, Luther Francis and Simon Moffett.

Be slower in choosing than in changing a friend.

Personal Notes.....

Miss Anna Foxwell, daughter of Garrett Foxwell, Esq., has been quite sick during the past week at her home near Blacks.

H. H. Barroll, Esq., has a bran new pneumatic tire buggy.

Rev. J. L. Elderdice, and son Raymond, will attend commencement exercises at Western Maryland College.

Rev. William T. Parsons, of Binghamton, N. Y., is visiting his mother, Mrs. M. M. Clair, of near Smithville. He says there is no place like Kent.

Mr. Benj. Perkins and wife, of Philadelphia, are guests of Capt. R. S. Emory on the Chester river.

Miss Dora Morris, of Wilmington, is spending a holiday with her father, Rev. C. K. Morris.

Miss Maud Ringgold, of Philadelphia, is spending the summer with her mother on Front street.

Miss Sallie Simmons is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wroth,

Mrs. Kate R. Hynson, wife of Joseph H. Hynson, died in Alexandra, La., Thursday, May 22.

Miss Mary Osmorne, an attractive young lady from Montreal, Canada, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Levine.

Miss Hoover, teacher of school near St. Paul's church, has resumed her duties, thus relieving Mr. H. W. Vickers, Jr., who has made an excellent substitute.

Mr. Wm. S. Jarman, of Edgemoor, spent several days in town last week.

Rev and Mrs. I. Ryder, of Chesterville, have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Lottie, to Mr. Alexander H. Key, of Branford, Florida, on July 9th.

Mr. Charles E. Kirby, who has been conducting a grocery store in Easton has removed his family to Chestertown and will occupy the store-room on Cross street heretofore occupied by Mr W. A. Blakeney. Mr. Blakeney will assist his father in the carriage business for the present.

Conductor John D. Welch has resumed his place on the Kent train his injured foot being improved.

Mr J. Frisby Newcomb has rented the Wickes farm in Shrewsbury Neck. Chestertown will miss Mr. N. and wife who are estimable citizens.

Mr. Benjamin A. Bryan son of Mr. Richard M. Bryan, of near Rock Hall, this county, who has been attending the American University, Harriman, Tennesee, graduated May 21st, with the honor of leading his class. Mr. Bryan graduated with the A. B. degree. He represented his class in an oration, and was also chosen to represent his class in an address at the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the University. Mr. Bryan is now visiting his brother Rev. J. F. Bryan, Ph. D., pastor of First M. P. church Georgetown, Del., and expects soon to pay his father a visit.

Miss Rosa Rasin, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Katie Smith.

Mrs. Ella Orem and Mrs. L. Orem, of Baltimore, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Smith.

Hustling Merchant.—Wm. Medders & Co., have purchased the entire stock of merchandise, fixtures, etc., in bankruptcy of W. E. Sanders & Co., at Kennedyville, and offers some rare bargains in this issue.

Another enterprising stroke was the purchase of the Still Pond Town Hall Building heretofore occupied by Isaac Robinson. Mr. Wm. Medders is one of Kent's hustlers and occupies a place at the front.

Divorces Granted.—Judge Pearce on Monday signed a decree divorcing James Walmsley and wife, of Rock Hall. Messrs. W. W. Beck and J. D. Urie represented the parties in the suit.

Mrs. Susie J. Shallcross, through her solicitor, Dr. J. Horton Kelley, of Kennedyville, has obtained from the Circuit Court for Kent county, an obsolute divorce from her husband, Jonathan W. Shallcross, upon the plea of desertion and non-support.

A CARD.

Special mention is made by the Architect of the fine new building of Mr. W. W. Hubbard, in Chestertown, Md, of the Ruberoid Roofing as a proper roofing material, as it is fire resisting, easily laid, needs no paint or coating, oderless; is said to outlast shingles, tin, steel and felt; cost no more than a fair good shingle roof and has a grand appearance. Mr. Frank Duyer has just completed the laying of nearly 10,000 square feet of Ruberoid Roofing for me on the large new storage building of the peach basket firm of Crane, Hynson & Valliant and I invite everybody to view and examine this roof. By permission, I refer all interested to above named party. Samples of roofing and quotations furnished by Mail on request by
