VOL. 65 TEN PAGES. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 1903. TEN PAGES. NO. 5

ON THE LOOKOUT.

We are always watchful for the interests of our customers. We are anxious to provide the things which are right and at a price easily within our trade's reach. Hence our steadily growing business. In the early months of winter, when prices were the lowest, we were busy culling out the best things in the way of dress necessary to man's comfort for the hot days. A Flannel or Crash Coat and Pants will make an excellent $5.00 investment for the summer.

For this week we will sell Men's Twenty-five cent Underwear at 20c.

COURT IN SESSION.

The Grand Jury Meet and Decide to Employ an Expert Accountant to Examine County Finances.—Removed Cases.

The adjourned April term of the Circuit Court met in the Court House at Chestertown Monday. The Grand Jury met in special session to consider the advisability of a further research into the finances of the county. Chief Judge Pearce delivered the following address to the jury: [See Page 9.]

Acting upon this advice the jury decided to employ an expert accountant and appointed Messrs. Richard Groves, Ellsworth C. Bowers and Edw. W. Emory a committee to select the same. This committee will act in conjunction with the Court After said expert has made his examination the Grand Jury will again be called and will receive this report.

The case of Charles Gathers vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., for $5,000 damages for injuries received by breaking through bottom of a freight car while loading old junk. The case was removed to Cecil from Harford and thence to Kent. The plaintiff was represented by Messrs. J. S. Young, F. H. Fahey, Albert Constable, H. W. Vickers; defense, by Thos. H. Robinson and Marion deK. Smith. The jury returned a verdict for $1,000.

The next case called was that of Mrs. Mollie E. Rickards wife of Dr. Rickards, vs. J. Nelson Rickards; all of Caroline county; suit for a horse valued at $200. Fred. H. Owens and R. D. Hynson for plaintiff, Albert Constable and H. W. Vickers for defendant.

This case was given to the jury Thursday night. After being out 22 minutes a verdict was rendered for the Plaintiff, Mrs. Rickards. It is estimated that the costs in this Sunday horse trade will be about $800.

Mrs. Agnes Emmons, of Chesapeake City, through her attorneys, Albert Constable, Jr., J. S. Wirt and H. W. Vickers, brought suit for $10,000 against the Chesapeake City Commissioners for injuries alleged to have been caused by a defect in the board walk, causing her to fall. The town commissioners are represented by A. L. Crothers and R. D. Hynson. Mr. Geo. B. Westcott is foreman of the jury. Mrs. Emmons is 52 years of age and was injured October 18, 1901.

Court will finally adjourn today.

THE P. E. CONVENTION

A Large Attendance of Clergy and Delegates—Business Transacted—The Vote Against Changing the Name—The Bishop's Excellent Address.

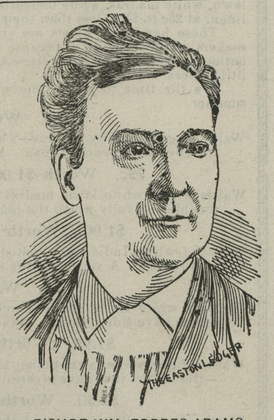
The 35th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Easton assembled in Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, the Rev. H. B. Martin, M. D., rector, on Tuesday, Jue 21 at 10 30 o'clock A. M. The convention sermon was delivered by the Rev. W. G. Woolford from Acts 2: 42. The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop assisted by Dr. Martin.

Rev. Edw. R. Rich was re-elected Secretary and the Rev. F. B. Adkins was appointed as his assistant. The Bishop appointed the following committees—Revs. Gantt, Howard, Spencer, on rights of clergymen to seats (Messrs. Wm. McMasters, W. H. Gibson, Dr. Hines.)

Tuesday, 3 p. m.

Convention called to order by Bishop and list of delegates as published in NEWS returned by cummittee. Reports froR various committees were read and referred to the several committees.

Rev. Mr. Rich presented and read the report of the Board of Managers of the Home for Friendless children. The Bishop read a letter calling attention to and commending the work of the church periodical society.



BISHOP WM. FORBES ADAMS.

Bishop Adams' Address,

The event on Tuesday evening was the annual report of Bishop Adams which was listened to intently and proved to be of more than ordinary importance.

The Bishop spoke feelingly of the death of a number of bishops and worthy laymen. Among the latter he named John Purnell, of Berlin; C. C. Lloyd, of Pocomoke City; W. W. Willis, of St. Michaels. He impressed upon the laity of the church that to make the business affairs of the parishes their own business, for parishes and Dioceses go forward or backward just as the laity door do not their own part.

On the subject of Missions the Bishop highly complimented the Treasurer of the fund upon his sensible and business-like apportionment plan. The last report showed that this Diocese had not paid one-half of its assessment, but we have until the last of August to meet it. The New York Board assists the work here to the extent of $800 per annum. A missionary Council of the church will be held in Washington on October 8 and it is urged that a delegation be sent from this Diocese.

The Woman's Auxiliary.

"It is with sincere regret," said the Bishop, "that the friends of this order have learned of the resignation of its president, Miss Anna E. Physick, and the cause of it, her failing health, deepens the regret. We learn that Mrs. Finley, of Church Hill, has been chosen to fill the vacancy, and independent of her own energy and devotion, she will have the inspiration of a fine example, a successful and approved administration. Much help has come and still comes to us from the Woman's auxiliary, and for what I receive I give them my grateful thanks, and especially do I, on my own behalf and that of the diocese, thank our Branch for the beautiful altar presented to St. Paul's by the Sea, for which they paid $60. For aiding me to assist those who sometimes need it, I have to thank the Ladies for $57 this year and my little friends in this parish, the Jr. auxiliary, God bless them!"

The Children's Home was reported in excellent condition, $500 having been expended in improvements.

Clerical Changes—Transferred.

The Rev. Hugh McD. Martin was transferred to ecclesiastical authority of Md., Sept. 4, 1902, leaving St. Bartholemew parish vacant. The division of county parish has proved to be a serious embarrassment to our work in the whole region. Upper Fairmount and St. Marks are left utterly without ability to secure permanent service. A rectory and about $200 per annum is all they can furnish by way of support. Rev. Mr. Adkins has been serving the charge upon alternate Sundays.

Rev. J. W. Brown transferred to the diocese of Pittsburg; Rev. S. I. French to diocese of Georgia.

The Rev. Mr. Vanderbogart resigned the parish of Salisbury and the Rev. David Howard, of Whitemarsh parish was called and is now rector of said parish. The Rev. George F. Kettell was transferred to Maryland.

Mr. George W. Sutton, postulant, Mr. C. W. Hunter, candidate for holy order.

Deans—Rev. Giles B. Cooke, for the Northern Convocation and the Rev. F. B. Adkins for the Southern Convocation.

JUNE BRIDES.

The Methodist Episcopal Church of Chesertown, never looked prettier nor was it ever filled with a more fashionable nor a better dressed audience than on Wednesday evening at the wedding of Miss Vickers and Mr. Elliott. The church, which was crowded to its capacity, had been transformed into a bower of beauty. The recess of the pulpit and the altar space in front were a mass of evergreen and flowers. Miss Anna G. Lambert presided at the organ in her characteristic skillful manner, while the ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. E. P. Roberts.

The groom, attended by his best man, Philip H. Hoffman, of Baltimore, entered the church from the right, and at the same moment the bridal procession emerged from the opposite side The bride entered with her father. She was handsomely gowned in white sun plaited chiffon over taffeta, with a bertha of rose pointed lace, tulle veil with orange blossoms caught with a horseshoe of diamonds, the gift of the groom, and carried lillies-of-the-valley and Bride roses in a shower bouquet. The veil was the same worn by the bride's mother on her wedding day.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Benjamin F. Perkins, of Germantown, Pa., as matron of honor. Mrs. Perkins wore white crepe de chene over taffeta with bertha of Brussel's lace and carried white peonies. Miss Rose Vickers, also a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a gown of Paris mousseline trimmed with applique embroidery, sash and ribbon of nile green, and carried white peonies. The bride's attractive and winsome little sister, Miss Dorothy, acted as flower girl and wore Persian lawn with lace and inserting, white ribbons, and carried a basket of white roses.

The ushers were George Vickers, of Denver, Col., and Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., of Chestertown, brothers of the bride; J. Briscoe Bunting, of Prince Frederick, Calvert county; Dr. Joseph Hersey Pratt, of Boston, Mass.; I. S. Field, of Walbrook, Md., and Frederick T. Dorton, of Baltimore.

The bride, Miss Corinne Bruce Vickers, is the daughter of Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., of Chestertown, and a granddaughter of the late George Vickers, who represented Maryland in the United States Senate at the close of the war. She is a also a direct descendant, on her mother's side, of Dr. Luke Barber, lieutenant governor of colonial Maryland in 1648. She is a grand daughter of the late Dr Luke Philip Barber, of St. Mary's county. She is also a direct descendant of Robt. Bruce, of Scotland, and is related to the Briscoes and Harrisons, of Maryland.

The groom is one of the leading members of the bar of Baltimore city. He was city solicitor under former Mayor Alceaus Hooper, and is the son of the late Dr. Wm. Elliott, for many years president of the Baltimore City College, and a descendant on both sides of a line of Marylanders who fought in the Revolutionary and later wars.

After the ceremony a grand reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Lauretum Place, at 8 o'clock. Refreshments were served in a beautiful manner to a large company by Caterer Stolph, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott left on a special boat at Tolchester about 11 P. M., They will sail for Naples from Boston, Mass., on June 6, to be gone three months. They will be at home after October 15, at 2026 Mount Royal Terrace, Baltimore.

REDUE—DAVIS.

Mr. Henry O. Redue, cashier of the Old Town National Bank and formerly of Kent County, was married at 1 o'clock Tuesday to Miss Edith Davis, daughter of Mr. Charles T. Davis, of McGaw, Davis & Co., in the parsonage of Strawbridge Methodist Episcopal Church by the pastor, Rev. E.C. Guthrie. Mr. and Mrs. Redue left during the afternoon for Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, where they will spend their honeymoon. They received many handsome presents, among which was a case of silver from the president and directors of the Old Town National Bank. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Redue will reside at 1401 Linden avenue, Baltimore.

CLEAVER—ELIASON.

Mr. Mark M. Cleaver, of Wilmington, and Miss Frances H. Eliason, of Kirkwood, Del., and a frequent visitor to Kent County, were married at the parsonage of the Spring Garden Methodist Church, Philadelphia, Tuesday, by Rev. J. Richards Boyle. They are spending their honeymoon at Atlantic City.
