SERIOUS GUNNING ACCIDENT.

Ernest Sparks While Shooting Squirrels Makes Narrow Escape—Injured in Breast, Neck and Face

Ernest, the 15 year old son of Mr. Samuel Sparks, of near Meginnis, while gunning for squirrels with his cousin, John, on Saturday met with a serious accident. He was standing upon a stump when he fired at a squirrel and in jumping from the stump struck the trigger of the gun in some manner and the whole load of shot tore through his breast, shattered his shoulder blade, struck his chin and side of his face. His companion went to Ernest and found him in a bad way with the dead squirrel lying at his side. Mr. Tarbutton happened along and carried the injured boy home. Drs. Shepherd and Simpers were summoned and dressed the wounds and at this writing it is thought the boy has a chance to live.

George N. Bennett, of the firm of Woolley & Bennett, Chesapeake City, was accidentally shot Monday while gunning for squirrels at E. H. Biddle's, farm near Earleville. Mr. Bennett, was fanning himself with his hat, of soft gray felt, when Mr. Biddle, mistaking the hat for a squirrel moving in the woods, raised his gun and fired. Nine shot struck Mr. Bennett, but none of them in his face, and he was not seriously injured.

NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

The March Of Progress Evidenced On Washington Avenue and Elsewhere—New Houses Being Erected.

The new pavement being laid at the College is one of the big improvements at this institution. It runs between rows of shade trees which will make it an inviting walk.

Mr. Wm. T. Crow's new home on the avenue is being built by Messrs. Stavely and Bowers and will be completed in a few months. It gives promise of being a comfortable and cozy home. A stable has also been erected.

Mr. J. H Sides has graded his lot and next spring will further beautify his cosy home surroundings.

The dwelling occupied by Dr. Jarman has been given a coat of paint by F. H. Howard and S. Crouch which greatly improves it.

The lot between J. H. Sides and Dr. Jarman has been purchased by Mr. Frank Jarrell, of near Chestervi le, who expects to build a home thereon. Welcome to town, Mr. Jarrell, with your estimable wife.

Mr. Vernon Barnett is building another house of the new "granite" which is made in Chestertown. This house will have a bay window, bath room, etc., and will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barnett. A new street will likely be opened through Messrs. Eliason, Barnett and Boyd, running from Washington avenue to College avenue.

Mr. George D. Lofland's new home on High street below Queen is well under way. Contractor Frank E Duyer is pushing the work on the building and when it is finished it will be one of the most attractive and convenient homes in town.

Mr. M. A. Toulson has completed for Mr. Wm. T. H. Whiteley a commodious livery stable on Cross street adjoining the depot property. Mr. Whiteley moved into his new quarters last Saturday. The building was erected by contractor F. E. Duyer.

A marked improvement has been made by the removal of fences in front of Mr. Wm. S. Culp's and Dr. Hall's homes.

Mr. Alwyn M. Culp has begun the erection of a new house on Kent street, rear of J. H. Sides. This house will be one of four which Mr. Culp contemplates building on this eligible lot.

A TERRIFIC STORM!

Shakes Houses, Lays the Corn Flat, Shreds the Fodder, Knocks Down Thousands of Baskets of Fruit, Blows Down Shade Trees and Makes Residents Quak With Fear.

Kent County was visited on Wednesday by a much needed rain after a month of drough and dust. The rain was one of the heaviest for years. At midnight a terrific wind storm broke over the country which carried destruction in its path and made residents tremble with fear. It was about 1 A. M. when the furry of the wind opened its batteries upon this town and county and for two hours it was a trying ordeal for most people.

In Chestertown Mr. H. S. Barnett's new kiln of bricks was unroofed and one of the paper mill ventilators blown off. A number of panes of glass were broken and in some instances window sash were blown out and fences laid low. Two shade trees in front of the M. E. Church and one at the side were blown down while a number of others in less prominent places were wrecked.

Housewives lost many excellent palms, ferns, &c, but there were also some "heroic" rescues of flowers reported.

In the country was to be seen the greatest havoc. There was not over one-third of the corn in Kent which had been cut and all that was standing Wednesday was beaten down flat, looking as if a drag had been pulled over the fields. The fodder was shredded as if cut by hail and covered the road and fields like paper.

In the orchards fruit was knocked off and covered the ground as thick as leaves. One farmer in Quaker Neck says he believes he had 2,000 baskets of peaches on the ground, another one in Still Pond says he had several thousands of baskets of Keiffer pears down, while a farmer near Tolchester thinks he had at least a thousand baskets of apples on the ground!

It was a rare case to find families where the storm was not heard, many persons having dressed and prepared for the house or favorite tree to blow down.

At Betterton boats were tossed upon the shore like drift wood and in many cases were badly damaged. The planking on the wharves along the bay and river is said to have been loosened.

Three lives were lost in Baltimore.

Damage at Rock Hall.

The most terrific rain and wind storm in 20 years struck this section Wednesday night. Fruit was almost stripped from the trees and many trees were uprooted or broken off, standing corn is flat on the ground, lima beans in many gardens were blown down and scores of boats large and small were either capsized, blown from their mooring or sunk at anchor, and much loss is entailed by farmers and watermen. Many residents were up during the prevailance of the storm and were afraid to retire again until the wind lulled.

One of the hardest day's work for a long time was done on Thursday in recovering and uprighting boating property and gathering fallen fruit. Very much of the fruit was peddled through the community and sold for any price. There was considerable boating outfits strewn along the bay shore, indicating much loss from other sections.

The Hugh Bolton, Capt. G. T. Sewell, is a total wreck up the bay shore off Fairlee Creek. Capt. Sewell and crew, who are one of our purse-net fishing crews, had anchored in the bay for the night little thinking such a storm was brewing, and when the storm swooped down on them there was nothing to do but go with it. The crew lost one of their fishing boats and their nets also. Mr. S. B. Colyer, a member of the crew, had one of his legs injured.

PARKER, DAVIS AND SMITH LEAGUES.

Following the suggestion of Ex Governor Brown as outlined in the NEWS there have been a number of Leagues formed in Kent, several of which have been noted in previous issues of the NEWS.

In the fifth district the following officers compose the club: E. E. Leary, president, J. D. Ayres, secretary; Elwood Burgess, treasurer, and the following named gentlemen were selected as vice-presidents: C. H. Davis, Jos. Judefind, Chas. Smith, W. K. Ayres, R. B. Willson, Chas. Watkins, John C. Wood, Thos. J. Elborn, Jas. V. Dobbs, Neal B. Willson, T R Strong, Vachael Burgess, Frank Collison, John J. Crouch, Geo. Walbert, Lawrence Stevens, Jas. D. Kelley, Frank V. Scott, Geo. Kendall, Thos. Conner. About 30 members were enrolled.

A league has also been formed in the First District with following officers: Henry Parr, President and Samuel G. Caldwell, Secty, vice presidents: Dr. E. G. Clark, Messrs. S. J. Johnson, J. E. Hurlock, W. T. Loper, Wm. Comegys, John F. Connor, William Jones, A. H. Malsburger, James Quinn, H. C. Powell, James Matthews, John M. Connor, Sam'l Todd, Wm. A. Hyland, Jas. W. Mulford, M. S. Ford, Benj. P. Waters, Edw. Waters, John N. Vansant, C. F. Lehman, Sr., Wm. Steel, L. C. Hayes, James Thompson, Chas. E. Lane, Richard Wallis, A. F Huey, John A. Wallis, Henry Rasin, John D. DISH OF POT-POURRI.

AN EXPERT baker in Chestertown Wednesday says you can get 17 more loaves of bread out of a barrel of spring wheat than from winter wheat!

H. P. SKIPPER, of near Chester bridge, lofted several hundred bushels of new corn last week. He is one of Queen Anne's hustling farmers.

SOME one has counted the children on water street and reports the number to be thirteen girls and one boy.

CAPT. JOS. W. THOMPSON has written to the Kent County Board of Commissioners proposing to erect a large draw across Chester river that shall give greater freedom to vessels!

TALBOT farmers are considerably alarmed over the rapid increase in hog cholera. From information received it is evident that over 150 hogs have died in Talbot county this week, one farmer alone losing 28 valuable thoroughbreds, and another 15.

CAPT. W. C. A. THOMPSON on last Friday caught a basket of elegant perch and a 21-inch rock fish off Mr. Ray Bowers' shore. Commodore Aldridge and party returned Monday from a cruise down the river. They caught plenty of taylors and perch and so ravenous was the appetite of one of the crew that he ate six perch for his supper!

J. B. RICHARDSON is in Chestertown with a fine load of 2-year-old Missouri mules which he will sell next Tuesday. Mr. Richardson is well-known among the farmers as a gentleman of veracity and has given perfect satisfaction in all his dealings.

MR. EDWARD BRENNEMAN lost a mule valued at $150 Monday. The animal was attached to a corn cutter. It suddenly stopped and started to turn round when his foot hit the sharp blade of the cutter and was cut off.

THE sales this week have been well attended and good prices realized. At the Rutter sale horses brought from $50 to $140; hogs 4 cents per pound; heifers $20 to $25; cows averaged $30.

J. B. RICHARDSON, of Macon, Missouri, where they have cyclones and tornadoes, was in Chestertown Wednesday night. He says if he had been home he surely would have taken refuge in the "cave"!

THE storm on Wednesday is said to have been the worse since 1876.

MR. WILLIAM T. NICHOLSON has lost three valuable cows recently. He called in State Veterinarian Jarman, who pronounced the cause of death to be acute indigestion.

A NEGRO who was ordered from the dinner saloon of a Rhode Island steamer the other day "sank his teeth in the neck of the captain and would not let go until he had been choked into insensibility." The negro probably was hungry. Negrophobia in the North carries people to cruel extremes.

THE styles this fall are unusually smart not more expensive than other fall styles, but expensive enough. It will be possible for a society girl to dress very neatly on, say $2,500 a year," said a former leading dressmaker of Chicago.

According to this authority Mrs. Arthur Canton is the "most splendidly" dressed woman in Chicago society and spends the most money on clothes. Mrs. Potter Palmer, she declares, spends about $15,000 a year on her wardrobe. Kent county girls don't spend quite this much but we venture to say they look ten times as well!

JAMES EVERETT, of Queen Anne's, and Miss Mamie Weller, of Kent county, were married at Fairlee Wednesday evening by Rev. Mr. Habbert.

BEDWORTH, Jr., starts Monday at Columbus, Ohio, in the 2.07 pace, purse $1500.

WHEAT was quoted at $1.11 in Baltimore yesterday; new corn 53½ cents.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Funeral services over the remains of Paul Armstrong, the sixteen-year-old son of William P. Armstrong, auditor of the Isthmian canal commission, and formerly of Chestertown, were held at the Church of Our Saviour, Brookland, Wednesday afternoon. Young Armstrong had just passed his first year in the Central High School, and for several years had been actively connected with the Catholic Church at Brookland. The pallbearers were selected from his fellow choirsters. Mr. Armstrong, the father, had just returned from Garfield Hospital, where he had been confined for over a month on account of an attack of typhoid fever. It was a severe blow to him to return and find his son within in a few hours of death and will, it is feared, retard his recovery. The boy was a favorite in his neighborhood and popular among his playmates. His death occurred Tuesday evening at his home, 2108 1st street, northwest.

Mrs. Julia A. Griffith, 74 years old, widow of David B. Griffith, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Woodall, 2702 North Charles street, Baltimore, on Monday night, Sept. 5th, of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Griffith has been in ill health for some time. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Andrew W. Woodall and Mrs. Frank Steigleman, of Baltimore; Mrs. James S. Hopper, of Chesapeake City and Miss Margaret Griffith, of Weaverville, N. C., and three sons, John S., Caleb and David B. Griffith. The funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon at Bethel church, Cecil county, and conducted by Rev. S. M. Perry, pastor of Chesapeake City Presbyterian Church. The interment was at [illegible] cemetery. The pallbearers were [illegible] sons of the [illegible]

Order of Publication.

Marion deK. Smith, Admr., of Sarah Chaney, deceased, vs.

Edward Chaney and Maggie Chaney, his wife, and Lemuel Blake.

In the Circuit Court for Kent Co. in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain property in Kent county in this State which was mortgaged by a certain Thomas Chaney to a certain Sarah Chaney.

The Bill states that on or about the 2nd day of November 1885 a certain Thomas Chaney, now deceased, conveyed certain real estate, which is particularly described in said deed, unto a Sarah Chaney, now deceased, by way of mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Four Hundred Dollars, which was then due and owing by the said Thomas Chaney to said Sarah Chaney, payable two years after date with interest thereon.

That said Thomas Chaney died on or about the year 1892, intestate, leaving the said Edward Chaney and Addie Chaney, his children, and said Lemuel Blake, his grandson, his only heirs at law.

That the said Edward Chaney and Maggie Chaney, his wife and Addie Chaney are non-residents.

That the whole of the said sum of Four Hundred Dollars and all interest thereon still remains due and owing by the said Thos. Chaney to said Sarah Chaney.

That said Sarah Chaney died about 1892, and the Orphan's Court for Kent county, Maryland, has granted letters of administration on her estate into Marion deK. Smith.
