VOL. 66. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1904. N O. 23

Well Marked

Our Fall and Winter Clothing for Men, Boys and Children is in, and marked as usual—in plain figures. We open the line with much the same feeling of confidence that a fellow enjoys when he knows he has a good thing. We never thought that a suit could fit too well, nor look too nice, but they can cost too much and the selection can consume too much of your time. And while ready made clothing is immeasurably better than it use to be, we're spared no pains to get the best. Now is the time to get your FALL SUIT.

KILLED A HORSE!

Mr. James T. DeCourse, of Pomona, Tuesday found one of his best driving horses with a pistol or rifle shot wound in its thigh. The animal was turned out to pasture. Whether the shot was the result of an accident or design is not known. A party of gunners were seen in the field the day of the accident and neighbors report them very reckless. Indeed one of the farmer's wives said she was afraid to go outside the house as the shot could be heard striking against their home!

EMMA FORD IN FOG!

Lays At Bogle's Wharf For 13 Hours Reaching Chestertown Friday Morning.

Our river boats were greatly interfered with by fogs last Thursday and night. The steamer Emma A. Ford ran into it at Kent Island but kept on her way and tried to make Queenstown but failed. The dense mist settled down so thick that even the steamer's powerful search light would not penetrate it. The effort to keep on up the river was continued and by the aid of the boat's whistles and the fog bells on shore the E. N. Island wharf (Bogle's) was reached and there the boat laid up for thirteen hours! Capt. McConnor says this is the second time in an experience of forty years that he has been so fully knocked out by the fog. The boat left Bogle's at six o'clock yesterday morning though the heavy mist still hung over the river, and reached Chestertown at 7.45. Capt. McConnor, Purser Harris and the crew did all they could for the passengers, furnished all present with lunch at night and a good breakfast next morning free of charge, while most of the ladies were fairly provided with sleeping accommodations. Fortunately the passengers and freight list was unusually light. The passengers numbered 29 and the crew 26. The fog was still very heavy yesterday morning when the boat started from Chestertown for the return trip an hour late.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. Charles D. Brown, a highly respected citizen of Quaker Neck, died at the home of his son, Mr. James Brown, near Pomona, Monday morning, after a long illness of kidney disease. The deceased was about 71 years of age and leaves one daughter and two sons. Funeral services were held Wednesday, interment at Bond cemetery. The pallbearers were Bartus Trew, Hon. James H. Baker, A. Judson, W. F. Woodmender, James T. Brown and Charles H. Davis, Rev. Milton McCann conducted services and undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Sarah E. Tomlinson, aged 67 years, widow of Mr. William T. Tomlinson, died of asthma at the home of her brother, Mr. James W. Skirven, 200 East Twentieth street, Baltimore, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Tomlinson had been in ill health for several years. Her only survivor is the brother with whom she had made her home for sometime. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 12.30 o'clock, services being conducted at the residence by Rev. F. H. Lewis, pastor of North Baltimore Meth. Protestant Church, after which the remains were conveyed to St. Paul's Cemetery, Kent county, the former home of the deceased, where the interment took place. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, a former pastor of the deceased, officiated. The bearers were her six cousins, J. Walter, Wash. G., Romie, Charles, Harry and Frank Skirven. J. N. Dodd, undertaker, had charge of the arrangements here.

BIG FIRES IN KENT!

Mr. Samuel G. Lee's Residence, near Melitota, Burned Tuesday Morning—Mr. Joseph S. Trew's Outbuildings Destroyed Sunday Evening, on the Wroth Farm.

Mr. Joseph S. Trew, tenant on Mr. Thos. G Wroth's farm, near Chestertown, was seated at his supper table Sunday evening about 5.30 o'clock, when upon looking out the window saw flames bursting from the top of his cow shed! The alarm was given and help came from many directions. The horses were released from the stable and cattle driven from the pound and thus Mr. Trew saved most of his stock. One large hog, 32 shoats, about 200 chickens and other fowl could not be recovered and were roasted to death. The barn, stable and outbuildings together with 750 bushels of corn, about 50 bushels of wheat, a new windmill and farming implements were destroyed in the conflagration. Mr. Thos. G. Wroth had the barn and mill insured with Mr. James G. Beck's agency for about $1.000 while his loss will be at least $1250. Mr. Trew had $350 insurance with Mr. Joseph N. Wheatley's agency but his loss is estimated at double this amount. It was about this time last year that Mr. Trew lost all his fodder by fire and he is at a loss to surmise the origin. We cannot conceive how anyone would be so mean as to deliberately set one's place on fire. Pipes and cigars cause the most of fires about farm buildings.

THE HURLOCK HOME BURNED!

The Hurlock home, near Melitota, on the farm tenanted by Mr. Samuel G. Lee, one of Kent's most progressive farmers, was completely destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. It was about 8 o'clock, after the hands had gone into the field, Mrs. Lee and her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Keyser, started to house clean and were in an upstairs room when Mrs. Lee detected smoke. She opened the door leading to the room over the kitchen and was met with smoke that drove her back, and at the same time she exclaimed "the house is on fire!" Mrs. Keyser went to the bell, and in her excitement, pulled so hard that she broke the rope. But the two taps of the bell brought the men and Mrs. Lee succeeded in calling Mr. Middleton from across the road. Mr. Lee was away from home at the time the fire was discovered having left the house immediately after breakfast.

Help came from neighbors and others and by tearing down the carriage house the out buildings were saved. The wind carried the flame away from the other buildings. Mrs. Keyser saved the elegant organ and others removed Mr. Lee's desk, Mrs. Hurlock's bureau-some chairs, a bed, table, range and a few other things; the cook saved Mrs. Lee's new dress and her gold watch! Other than these few things nothing was saved. The loss included several hundred cans of preserved fruit, jelly, pickles, etc., 75 bushels of potatoes, meat &c, &c. While this house was not new yet Mrs. Lee and her daughters had gotten it in fine shape and had only finished painting and papering some of the rooms last week. In an hour the work and savings of years was reduced to ashes.

The home was insured in the Kent Mutual for $2100 which amount will doubtless erect a comfortable residence. Mr. Lee's insurance of about $650 is in Mr. Joseph N. Wheatley's company but his loss will amount to about $1500.

This fire originated no doubt from a defect in the kitchen flue from no neglect of the tenant as he has always been very careful and took every precaution against fire. A temporary tent has been constructed in which the cooking is done and neighbors kindly came to the rescue of Mr. Lee and family with offers of all kinds of help.

Tuesday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, from some unknown cause, fire broke out on the farm tenanted by Mr. J. Hobson, near Warwick, owned by Mrs. E. Perkins, of Middletown. The entire outbuildings on the farm together with several hundred bushels of wheat, hay farm implements, &c, were consumed entailing a severe loss, but fortunately covered by insurance. All the buildings were burned except the dwelling, which was some distance from the outbuildings.

A Fine Game.—Western Md. won from W. C. at foot ball yesterday by a score of 12 to 0. The visitors averaged 10 lbs. heavier than W. C.

To vote the Democratic ticket mark an X in the first squares in each column on the ballot. An X mark in the first square will cast a vote for the Democratic candidates for Presinent and Vice-President, while an X mark in the first square of second column will cast a vote for Hon. Thos. A. Smith, the Democratic candidate for Congress. It is not necessary to mark an X opposite the name of each Democratic elector.

Mrs. H. S. Barnett and Mrs. Chas. J. Reiche, of Christ Church, and Walter Gale, of Worton, attended the Endeavor Convention at Westminster this week.

Owing to the illness of Rev. Mr. Coale the mission announced to be held at St. Paul's P. E. Church will be recalled and indefinitely postponed.

Rev. R. S. Rowe, the faithful Pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church writes as follows: We entered Sunday upon the fourth week of our protracted meeting. Last night there were ten penitents at the altar, nine of whom professed conversion. So far twenty-five have professed. Fifteen joined the church yesterday. It was a grand sight. Rev. C. R. Blades, who moves with his family this week to Stockport, Ohio, has been a very acceptable, willing and efficent helper in the meeting.
