VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1906. NO. 26

THANKSGIVING.

Have you gotten all that you wished? If so you should hurry to give thanks. The buying of a suit of clothes or Overcoat is very much like the pulling of a "Wish-bone," that is, if you are not competent in your judgement of cloth and workmanship, or careful in your selection of a house where fair treatment will be handed out to you, you might get the small end of it. He is indeed a fortunate man who takes chances and never loses.

The beauty of dealing here is that you take no chance. We are ever alert to the best interests of our customers and buy only merchandise that has a virtue of valor and when we sell it, the purchaser has our reputation for fair dealing, as a protection that if there should happen any dissatisfaction, we are ready, and quick to make it right.

Our line of Mens', Boys' and Childrens' clothing, as in former years, is up to the highest mark of excellence. Prices as usual, unmatchable in lowness, consistent with good quality. Come early. Select your suit while assortment is the best.

Yours for business,
J. D. LUCAS.

MILLINGTON NOTES.

Deaths.—This community was shocked on Saturday to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Turner, wife of Dr. Philip Turner, a former resident of our town. She was at her home in Philadelphia when the messenger came and fell in her husband's arms. She leaves one daughter, Anna.

Mrs. John Weist died at her home in Philadelphia last Friday after a long illness of cancer. Mr. Weist formerly lived here and his wife visited Millington frequently.

Finley's Thanksgiving Meal. — The northbound train ran into a flock of turkeys between Millington and Sudlersville on Tuesday and upon reaching this station the fireman discovered a fine bird had been caught on the cowcatcher! He walked out on the engine as she puffed into the station and threw it to one side. Mr. Finley Collins happened to be at the crossing just as the bird was set free and soon appropriated him. Some people are born lucky while others have luck thrown at them!

Champion Snorer.—Millington for sometime has claimed the loudest snorer for many years but we now surrender that title to a Massey resident whose snoring scared a chicken thief off. We would suggest that Masseys try the remedy used on our fellow citizen, viz., "Drop a piece of soap into the mouth of the snorer. The oil lubricates the pharnx and other latin parts of the throat. The person who dropped the soap cannot be found as the snorer wanted to lubricate the floor with him!

Lady Gunners.—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Whitworth, of Elkton, and Miss Addie Vansant, of this town, enjoyed the pleasure of gunning for rabbits last week. The party killed about twenty rabbits. Mrs. W. is a fine shot at a mark and seldom fails to ring the bell, but when it comes to rabbits the ladies preferred the game to "set." They report birds as very scarce.

Personal Notes. — Mr. Charles R. Hart, Mrs. Martha Price and daughter, Miss Nema, will remove to Philadelphia and with Miss Olivia Price will make a home there. Mrs. Price is one of our best and oldest citizens and we regret her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mallalieu are visiting friends in New York.

Mrs. Foreman, nee Miss Carrie Meredith, has been visiting her brother, Mr. S. J. Meredith, near this town.

Mr. Smith had held the position of clerk at the R. R. station here for fifteen years. Mr. Harry Talbott has been appointed assistant agent at Camoridge.

Mrs. Mary Hitchens and children, of Salisbury, are guests of Mr. R. Poor.

Miss Clara Benson is home for the holidays.

Miss Lydia Jones, accompanied by Miss Snodgrass, are home here.

Enjoyable Entertainment. — The Ushers' Union of the M. E. church delighted a large audience in Gillispie & Moffett's hall Tuesday evening with a splendid entertainment. Every member took his part well from "Pete" to "Our Awful Aunt." The program was as follows:

Presiding Elder J. E. Anderson, of the East Baltimore District, preached in Trinity M. E. Church Sunday evening.

Rev. Edwin Gardner closed revival meetings at Massey Sunday.

The reopening of the M. E. Church will take place about Christmas. The steel ceiling is in place and all is needed is the carpet.

The Womans' Home Missionary Society and Epworth League, of Trinity M. E. Church South held a Musical and Literary Social at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Gowman, Wednesday evening, Nov. 28. Light refreshments were served. A silver offering was taken for benefit of the missionary fund.

Fire Scare —The citizens of Millington were thoroughly scared at 7.30 o'clock Friday evening when the fire alarm was sounded. It proved to be nothing serious. Miss Wilhelmina Moffett who has a millinery department in C. M. Hurtt's store had removed her hanging lamp and replaced it without the shield. The wood ceiling took fire and burned a hole therein.

THE Auditing Committee's report is in hand and will appear next week with other live items which have been crowded out this week because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

He took in the Princeton-Yale game of foot-ball and told us of his experiences in the great earthquake at San Francisco. Mr. B. is engaged in the hotel business in San Francisco and is doing well.

A Clever Capture.—"How many are there in the game" was a telephone message received by some young men occupying a room in the house, not one hundred miles from Still Pond last Monday night. A quiet game of cards had been going on in the room, and the young men were expecting some arrivals in a short time.

"There are two in the game," replied one of the young men over the 'phone, "but we expect five in a few minutes." "All right, we'll be up pretty soon," returned the mysterous voice at the other end of the 'phone, after which he hung up the receiver.

Nobody in the room where the card game was being played took the precaution to inquire who was telephoning. They expected five persons within a few minutes, and imagined that one of their friends was telephoning. Imagine their surprise a few minutes later when the five did arrive in the shape of officers who were in the room before the young men were aware what was happening. The matter was satisfactorily adjusted.

A HEARING in the Still Pond murder case was held in Chestertown on Tuesday and the case was held for the action of the April grand jury.
