VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1907. NO. 39

Lucas' January Sale

A GENERAL REDUCTION ON ALL REMAINING WINTER CLOTHING AND HEAVY UNDERWEAR.

Beginning today at twelve o'clock noon, we will offer our remaining stock of Men's, Boys and Children's Clothing and Heavy Underwear at a 20 per cent discount, or one-fifth off the regular retail price. (Cash only), all necessary alterations made free of cost to the purchaser.

There has been no general marking up of prices preparatory to this contemplated sale, but we mean to sell you ten dollars worth of merchandise that we heretofore got ten dollars for, in this sale for $8. You can readily see the great saving which is offered you, and right here at a time when you are probably in need of the very goods which we offer you in this great sale. By coming early you can get a very good variety of styles and all sizes; we hope you will avail yourself of our offering.

Yours for business,

J. D. Lucas

LAND CO. ORGANIZED.

To Buy the Canby Farm at Betterton and Develop Same—Men of Ability in Company.

The Betterton Bayside Land Company, of Kent county, is the title of a new corporation organized for the purpose of buying the Canby farm and of developing same. This farm contains 250 acres and is most beautifully located on Chesapeake Bay just North of the hotel "Rigby." The farm has been in the Price-Canby family for many years but owing to their desire to see Betterton flourish and grow they have laid aside all sentiment and contracted for the sale of this farm to the above company. They will lay off the grounds into streets, etc., and building lots will be sold. It is expected also to place some public amusement there also, something which Betterton has long needed.

The incorporation of the new company are a guarantee of its success, viz.: Howard Turner, Charles H. Price, Harvey Brice, Betterton; William F. Russell, Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., Chestertown; Capt. W. C. Eliason and E. W. Giles, Baltimore.

SHERIFF, A FORTUNE TELLER!

An Interesting Trial of Quaker Neck Parties Charged With Stealing Hogs—Hid Meat in Stream—Thieving Elsewhere.

Sheriff Medders has proven his genius as a "fortune-teller," all of which comes from the fact that he is the seventh child of a seventh son, born on the seventh day of the seventh month!

Mr. William Maslin was robbed of two shoats weighting about eighty pounds each one night last week. Sheriff Medders in company with Constable Charles L. Gill started out to find the thief or thieves. They went to the home of George J. Elias, which adjoins the Maslin farm, and there they found thirteen inmates, three dogs and two horses. The Sheriff tried his power of foreseeing the future upon the mother but she failed to divulge any secrets.

The two hogs were found all cut up in a guano bag and sunk in a stream of water about 175 yards from the Elias house. The bag was found in the deepest part of the stream entirely hidden from view. When the Sheriff told the colored folks of the finding of this meat they began to think that he really had some extraordinary power. A hearing was held before Justice Calder Tuesday and George J. Elias and James Elias were held for action of grand jury.

Mr. Tylden Brice, of Lankford, was robbed of several hogs from his meat house several nights ago.

Mr. Patrick Haley, a well-known farmer of Massey, was relieved of seven hogs one night last week!

A thirteen year-old boy was found hid behind a counter in a Kent county drug store last Sunday with his pockets filled with plasters, marbles, liver pills, candy, pencils, chocolate and various other articles. He had tasted the liquors until he had become incapacitated from attending Sunday school.

ANOTHER FINE HOME.

Mr. Frank E. Duyer, contractor and builder, went to Baltimore this week and signed a contract to build an $8,000 home for Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kingsland, on their small farm on Lankford's Bay, Kent County. The location is a beauty having been purchased of Mr. John Deford.

The home will be of frame 43x35.6 feet, three stories, bay windows, etc. The front will be weather boarded half way up and shingled above that. The interior will be finished partly in hard wood and the whole heated by hot air.

Mr. Kingsland loves the water and owns three gasoline launches. He has been living in Baltimore but will make his home hereafter in Kent. Welcome to Kent, Mr. Kingsland.

Mr. Duyer with his efficient corps of workmen will start at once on this big contract.

MR. J. W. ROBINSON, the Still Pond butcher, killed a fine steer Thursday that dressed 784 pounds. It was purchased of Mr. Sam'l Caldwell, the Galena stock dealer.

Live Local Notes.

THE Chestertown Laundry began operations on Monday.

THE Ford has cut through big fields of ice this week and on Monday did not reach Baltimore until 4.30 P. M. The Tolchester Co. expect to run a boat today to Tolchester.

THE St. James Sewing Circle met at the parsonage Thursday evening and more than a hundred persons partook of the elegant repast. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gale next Friday evening, to which the public are cordially invited.

THE Court of Appeals has decided the Young, Smyth Field—C. L. Jarrell case in favor of latter. It comes back here for new trial.

Team Sold.—Rev. J. K. Easley, who advertised his team for sale in the NEWS, writes "Take out my adv. My team is sold, thanks to advertising." Nuf sed.

Panama Postals.—We have received this week a number of interesting souvenir postals from Mr. C. Kent Lambert and wife, nee Miss Adelaide Howard. Mr. L. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lambert and finds his work in the canal zone congenial. This is the dry season rain having fallen but three times within three months. Oranges are selling for ten cents per dozen and bananas are as cheap. He says at the rate the "Pit" is being dug the work will be completed in much shorter time than anticipated. Mr. and Mrs. L. are enjoying excellent health.

Small-Pox in Town.—It was thought that the small-pox had been stamped out of Kent County but on Sunday Dr. C. W. Whaland reported that Mr. R. Thompson, butcher, had a bad case of the dread disease. A conference of physicians and the Town Commissioners was held Sunday and a strict quarantine ordered, the assistant health officer taking the case in charge. Fortunately Mr. Thompson resides alone over his store and had with him Johnny Dent, alias "Bear," a colored helper, who has been attending to him since the yellow flag was hung over the door.

There was 500 pounds of meat in the store all of which has been burned by the authorities. "Bear" tried to sell it by means of the telephone at 4 cents per pound but when the parties learned where the meat was located the sale was called off!

The public schools in Chestertown have been closed this week and the rooms thoroughly fumigated.

Wants Wider Draw.—The Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company have requested the county Commissioners of Kent and Queen Anne's counties to widen the draw over Chester river at Chestertown. The bridge is built, owned and managed by the two counties. The railroad company contends that the draw is at present not wide enough to permit steamboats with side wheels to pass through. It is contended by the railroad company that they propose to run large passenger boats in the upper part of Kent and Queen Anne's counties for the accommodation of the traveling public. The widening of the draw would mean quite a considerable expense to the two counties. The matter has been referred to the attorneys of the two boards who will confer with the steamboat company.

Home Burned.—Fire Saturday night destroyed the home of Mr. Walter W. Hurlock, about two miles from Centreville. The dwelling, smokehouse, dairy and poultry house were consumed, together with their contents. Mr. Hurlock and his family were in the main building when the fire originated from a defective flue in the kitchen, and when apprised of it the whole structure was in flames They hastily secured some clothing and escaped. Only a few articles of furniture were saved,

The dwelling was nearly consumed when the bucket brigade of the Good Will Fire Company of Centreville reached the scene. Even then they had a hard fight to keep the flames from the barn, stables and other out-buildings, as the poultry house lay within 10 feet of a large implement shed, which adjoined these buildings. Mr. Hurlock says his loss is far in excess of his insurance, which is about $2,800. The home was splendidly furnished and contained many heirlooms of great value to the family, three pieces of furniture alone—formerly the property of Mrs. Hurlock's mother—being valued at $1,100.

This is the third time Mr. Hurlock has lost his home and its contents by fire. At Snow Hill about 15 years ago his dwelling and store were burned and about 10 years ago his home in Philadelphia met the same fate.

Maryland Day in Public Schools.—Maryland Day will be observed in the schools throughout the county and State on March 25. Superintendent of Education, M. Bates Stephens, has selected as the topic for study in the schools, the beginning of Popular Government in Maryland, with a review of the early legislature. This is a most excellent and timely subject for discussion, and we hope there will be a general observance of the day in every school in Kent county.

Lucky Fishermen.—Rock Hall fishermen made big catches of rock on Thursday last near a wreck in the river. Captains Columbus Black and Chas. Hynson sold their catch to Mr. Jos. Downey for $100 for the New York markets. Capts. Josh. Thomas, Edw. Culley and Kennard Hynson also made fine catches.

Fine Horse Purchased.—Mr. Lewin U. Skirven returned from Ohio yesterday where he went to purchase a horse. At Washington, Ohio, he bought at private sale a fine Perchon stallion named "Napier," II, 34699. He is a dark gray stallion foaled in 1903, is 16 hands and weighs 1750 pounds. He was sired by Don Modocq, dam Queen Isabelle. Mr. Skirven will stand him in Kent.

BOULDEN—COLEMAN NUPTIALS.

A very quiet wedding of a popular young couple, of Still Pond, took place on last Thursday evening, 21st inst, when Miss Jennie M. Coleman became the bride of Mr. John C Boulden. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. Parsonage, by the pastor, Rev. T. S. Holt. The bride was becomingly attired in blue broadcloth with hat and gloves to match. The groom wore conventional black. A sumptuous supper was served at the home of the bride, including in the menu turkey, duck, chicken, oysters, salads, etc. Among those present were: Mrs. Rebecca Boulden, Mr. Spencer Boulden, mother and brother of the groom; Mrs. Samuel Coleman, mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Atwell and little daughter, Abigail, Miss Pearl Coleman. The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents. After a pleasant social evening the bridal couple repaired to the home of the groom, where they will be glad to receive their many friends. No cards.

SHRILEY—GRAVES.

Mr. William L. Shriley, son of Mr. Jacob Shriley, living near St. Paul's P.E. Church, and Miss Mabel S. Graves, were quietly married at the M. P. Parsonage Wesleyan Chapel, on the evening of January 30, 1907.

DOWNEY—LONG.

Mr. John Downey and Miss May Long were quietly marrled at the M. E. Parsonage, Chestertown, Md., by Rev. W. L. White, and took the train Wednesday morning for a trip south. They will be at home after March 5th to their many friends.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by Clerk Dixon—Harry Pinder and Bessie Durham; Harry M. Toulson and Mamye M. Faulkner; Steven Newcomb and Elizabeth L. S. Willson.

Spraying Trees.—Kent farmers are preparing to spray their fruit trees as it has become as much a necessity as plowing for corn.

The State Entomologist gives the formula and method for making the lime, sulphur and salt:

Good quality fresh Burnt stone lime	20 pounds
Flowers of sulphur	15 pounds
Common Salt	5 pounds
Water	50 gallon

Directions for Making.—Put 20 gallons of water in an iron pot or hog scalder and bring it to a boil, and then add the stone lime and sulphur. The sulphur should be made into a paste with hot water before placing it in the boiler, in order to facilitate its mixing. After the lime and sulphur have been boiled for sometime add the salt. Boil the mixture thoroughly stirring occasionally from 30 minutes to 1 hour, or until the sulphur is thoroughly dissolved and produces a clear, amber-colored solution. Then dilute by adding sufficient hot or cold water to make 50 gallons. Pass the mixture through a strainer, with at least 20 meshes to the inch, into the spray barrel, and apply to the trees warm.

"In treating badly infested apple trees better results may be secured by increasing the sulphur and lime each five pounds more than is given in the above formula."

RICHARD D. HYNSON, ATTORNEY.

Order Nisi.

Richard D. Hynson, Aassignee, vs.
Jacob T. Shallcross, Laura Shallcross.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County In Equity. No. 1604.

ORDERED, this 1st day of March, in the year 1907, by the Circuit Court for Kent county in Equity, that the sale of the mortgaged real estate mentioned in these proceedings made and reported by Richard D. Hynson, assignee of mortgage under the power contained in a mortgage from Jacob T. Shallcross and Laura Shallcross his wife, to John V. Croven, and duly assigned to the said Richard D. Hynson, dated on the 17th day of October in the year 1887, be Ratified and Confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 6th day of May next—provided a copy of this Order be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 5th day of April next.

The Report states the amount of sales to be $14,177.10.
