WALKED OVERBOARD

James Satterfield Goes To Sleep On Vessel And Is Drowned — Body Caught By Friends In Net.

James Satterfield who has been making his home with Capt. J. C. Culley, at Rock Hall, met with a sad death from drowning early Wednesday morning. Master James, with seven men, went up the bay purse net fishing and anchored off Tolchester to spend the night. The weather being very warm all lay out upon the deck. At sunrise the lad could not be found and it was supposed he had walked overboard asleep. The nets were put out and the body of the young man caught. He was carried to Rock Hall and funeral services held yesterday.

James was 16 years old and a popular boy. His father lives at Havre de Grace. Among the men on the boat were Capts. J. C. Culley, John Casey, Cuban Rodney and Frank Porter.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

A Delegation of Representative Men Named to State and Judicial Conventions From Kent County.

Tuesday was a field day among the Democrats of Kent County. The party came out of the hot contest Saturday in fine shape and there is now a united party working together for the success of a strong ticket. The convention met in the Court House and organized by electing Mr. A. S. Crawford chairman and Dr. H. L. Dodd secretary. Mr. Crawford in taking the chair made a speech of appeciation and predicted success for the party. The credential committee reported the following as entitled to seats in convention:

First District—James B. Stevens, Jr., George W. Jones, W. H. Stradley, Jesse E. Ireland, Elwood Morris, Thomas J. Dunn.

Second District—J. Biddle Hossinger, John Robinson, Sr., E. B. Pennington, Jr., G. Spencer Comegys, W. Fletcher Melvin, Wm. M. Hurlock.

Third District—A. S. Crawford, Samuel Mann, Chas. H. Crowding, B. F. Davis, Joseph R. Usilton, C. Romie Skirven.

Fourth District—Thomas S. Bordley, Wm. E. Ringgold, J. C. Loud, Wm. A. Bell, C. H. Davis, Dr. H. L. Dodd.

Fifth District—Edw. Parsons, John Wood, R. S. Crew, C. D. Wood, Charles S. Kelley, John Collison.

Sixth District—John L. Deputy, James H. Groves, Conlyn Beachamp, Wm. N. Lewis, W. Tylden Brice, F. D. Lamb.

Seventh District—B. F. Beck, Wm. L. Faulkner, Wm. M. Lusby, Wm. E. Brown, Chas. M. Vickers, J. Thomas Hadaway.

The following delegates were elected to the State Convention: R. Wm. Comegys, Jesse E. Ireland, Wm. H. Wallis, John Medders, Joseph W. Howard, Noble B. Gears, Dr. W. Frank Hines, George W. Clendaniel, John H. O. Stokes, Lewin W. Wickes, Wm. E. Brown, George Bell.

THE VOTE IN CONVENTION.

The following vote in the Democratic State Convention next Thursday is interesting as showing the sections from which they come:

WESTERN SHORE.

Eastern Shore	35

Western Shore	51

Necessary to Choice	65

There is very great uncertainty yet regarding the nominee. Ex-Gov. Brown is most likely to make it if he so desires, but his position is entirely negative—says he does not want the nomination and would not accept. This would seem practically to eliminate him, though his city following declare that the nomination will be forced upon him. The Eastern Shore, it will be seen, has votes enough to make itself felt if the counties all stand together. It is not known yet who could muster such a solid vote. Ex-Gov. Jackson has stated his preference for Hon. J. D. Baker, of Frederick, and other prominent leaders are inclined that way, but the Western Shore strength for that gentleman is yet to be determined. He would certainly make a candidate that the whole party might well be proud of. Hon. Henry Williams, City Collector, and W. Cabel Bruce, Esq., both have friends but neither of them will be pressed while ex-Governor Brown is the remotest possibility.

LOADED BOAT SUNK!

Pungy S. D. Lankford With Cargo of Wheat Belonging to Kent Farmers a Total Loss—Sprung a Leak and Sinks in Thirty Feet of Water.

One of the most unusual incidents in marine circles occurred in this community the past week, the details of which are here given as learned from parties interested.

The pungy Samuel D. Lankford, Capt. Connorton, of Virginia, arrived in Chestertown early last week loaded with lumber which was unloaded at the county wharf. When the cargo was about discharged, Messrs. Victor Hendrickson and Romie Byron came to the wharf to inquire of the whereabouts of the Leland Mills, when she could carry their grain, etc. They were informed by Capt. Chas. T. Johnson that if they were in a hurry to ship their grain that the Lankford was going to Baltimore and would be glad to freight the grain.

Messrs. Hendrickson and Byron loaded the Lankford with 2548 bushels, 1500 bushels belonging to Mr. H. and the balance the property of Mr. Byron. On Thursday the boat was sold to Capt. Charles T. Johnson, of Chestertown, for $500, and at 10 A. M. Friday she left the wharf here in command of Capt. James Hyland and son, and "Buck" Johnson, Capts. Connorton and Johnson went to Baltimore by steamer and had the papers transferred at the Custom House.

Capt. Hyland says his vessel began to leak soon after leaving town but thought he could reach harbor safely. He anchored under Hail Point Friday night and the crew were compelled to pump all night to keep her afloat. Capt. Lane, of the schooner Corscia, and Capt. M.R. Coleman, of the Miriam, were also anchored there. About 250 bushels of the Lankford's cargo of grain was transferred to the Corsica and the Miriam, and the three schooners got under way at noon Saturday for Baltimore.

About one hour before sundown the Lankford was about five miles east of the Knoll, across the channel, when she began to fill rapidly, and she sank in about 30 feet of water, with all sails standing. Captain Hyland and his crew of two men took to the vessel's yawl and headed for East Neck Narrows, arriving in Chestertown at 10 A. M. Sunday. The vessel is 62 feet in length, 20 feet beam and 6 feet deep, 41 gross and 39 net tons register. She was built in 1866 in Somerset county.

Messrs. Hendrickson, Byron and Hyland were in Baltimore this week trying to secure a wrecking boat, but the only one in Baltimore had been wrecked a few days ago! What a reflection on the metropolis.

Such a loss is very heavy upon all concerned—Messrs. Hendrickson and Byron to have the bulk of their wheat crop totally lost after all their hard work and expense in growing and saving it. And Capt. Johnson's is the loss of his whole fortune. Hard lines indeed for all of them.

HARBOR NOTES.

Capt. Charles J. Gehring, of 509 N. Howard street, Baltimore, visited Kent on his yacht, Almandy, last week and while anchored off Betterton made a thrilling rescue. A boarder at one of the hotels named Solomonson was about to go down for the third time when Capt. Gehring's crew heard the cry for help and rescued him.

The "Cinderella" belonging to Mr. Wilbur Eliason left on Saturday for Jamestown being under charter of Mr. Gould. Engineer Carson was in charge.

The steamer Annapolis took an excursion of 750 colored folks from Chestertown to Annapolis on Monday. The excursion was held under auspices of Bethel Church, Rev. W. A. Harris, pastor. Harry Ringgold and Matthew Johnson had the "bread" table.

The steam yacht "Kaleda" owned by Mr. E. Brent Keyser, of Baltimore, was anchored in Chestertown harbor on Sunday. Mr. Keyser had on board as his guests Judge Holland and Mr. E. Stanley Garey, of Baltimore. Capt. Charles R. Kerr, of Rock Hall, is captain of the yacht.

The yacht Josephine, Captain Crane, left town Saturday arriving in Annapolis Sunday. In the party were the following: State's Attorney William W. Beck, Prof. James W. Cain, Lewin W. Wickes, Scott Beck, George Perkins, Samuel Beck and James Lucas, of Chestertown. They arrived home at 2 A. M. Tuesday.

Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, Sr., has launched a fine steel launch equipped with a 6 horse power engine.

Mr. Charles S. Smith sprained his ankle Saturday in rescuing a young Baltimore girl who fell overboard near town, while in a boat with a number of other children.

Democratic Primaries.

The Democratic primaries held in Kent Saturday were conducted without any bad feeling, although the contests were quite warm. The organization forces won in five districts thus insuring the election of the present State Central Committee, viz., Lewin W. Wickes, J. W. Ivens and John C. Redmile.

The organization had a walk-over in Millington and Galena precincts there being 61 votes in Millington for organization and not any against. In Galena there were 30 votes for organization and two against. In the fifth district the anti-organization won without opposition. The vote in the other districts were as follows:

	ORG.	ANTI.
Second District	66	78
Third District	111	89
Fourth District	184	124
Sixth District	84	75
Seventh District	54	29

D. A. BACCHUS landed a 16 inch rock early Monday morning while fishing off Chester river bridge. Mr. S. Q. Moody caught a fine lot of perch Wednesday. Messrs. George Z. and John G. Roland and J. R. Bowers caught 44 nice perch Wednesday off Northwest point.

Live Local Notes.

LOCAL buyers were paying 85 cents per bushel for wheat yesterday.

THE excursion to Annapolis Wednesday, advertised in the NEWS, was a grand success. Three hundred persons boarded the Susquehanna at Tolchester and 500 got on at Betterton and Port Deposit.

Agreement Reached.—An agreement was reached Thursday in the Walker bankrupt case and no further appeals nor hearings will be held. Mr. Alday Clements, the trustee appointed by Referee Townshend and confirmed by Judge Morris, will manage the estate.

Good Appointment.—The Kent County School Commissioners on Tuesday appointed Mr. Charles Frazier Wheatley to the new position of teacher of English in the Chestertown High School. Mr. Wheatley graduated with honor at Washington College and is fully competent to fill this chair. It is a wise appointment.

Prolific Sheep.—James E. Skinner, on the Spear and Dudley farm near Lambson Station, Kent county, has thirty ewes that gave him fifty-one lambs during the months of February and March, 1907. He is now having the second crop from the same ewes. One ewe gave five lambs in six months and the five lambs are all living and are doing well.

Married.—Dr. Robert H. Gault, instructor in pedagogy and phychology in Washington College was married on Tuesday last to Miss Anne Lee, at Ononta, Poland, Ohio. Dr. Gault and his bride will return to Chestertown at the opening of college in September, and will reside in Chestertown.

Mr. Francis L. Klemm, amateur comedian, black-face artist, swimmer, oarsman, boxer and practitioner of law in Baltimore, was married Thursday. The bride is Mrs. Mae E. B. Wagner, daughter of Mr. John E. Beck, of Rock Hall, Kent county. It took place at 4.30 P. M. at the St. Michaels and All Angels' rectory Protestant Episcopal Church, being only members of the family present. The bride was becomingly gowned in a cream serge traveling suit with hat, gloves and shoes to match, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Will Filed.—The will of the late John E. Dority was filed for probate in the Orphan's Court for Kent county on Tuesday. It leaves to the widow the house and lot and store house at the head of Still Pond Creek, household goods, choice of horse and the money in Savings Bank amounting to over $1,000. Mrs. Cora S. Price, the daughter, is left the farm near Coleman's, balance of stock and implements and about $450 in Chestertown Bank. The rents from farm are to be divided.

Caveat Filed.—S. Scott Beck and Henry L. D. Stanford, Esqs., have filed caveat to H. W. Vickers' account as executor of Mary A. Vickers, his mother, on behalf of Mrs. Nettie White and children and Mrs. Clara V. Hartzog. His answer will be filed August 13th. They have also filed a bill of complaint in equity Court asking that the realestate be sold consisting of a farm in Quaker Neck and two town lots.

Good Yields.—Mr. T. E. W. Crew on his Lankford farm got 26 bushels of wheat per acre. Mr. Stanford Dewberry, of near Chester bridge, got 24 bushels; J. R. H. Price, near Warwick, got 3000 bushels on 100 acres; Will Luthringer 27 bushels per acre; William Jones 27 bushels; B. Bolton on Eldridge farm 20 bushels; R. Ferguson 22 bushels; John Price on Knight's Island 27 bushels; Mr. E. Joseph Watson on the Skirven farm, near Chestertown, got 30 bushels per acre on one field and 25 on another; Mr. George Sutton, near Locust Grove, got 25 bushels per acre; Mr. Philip G. Wilmer got 30 bushels per acre on his farm in Morgnec.

Eeal Estate Sales.—Mr. Alfred Tucker, Sr., has sold his farm, in Queen Annes, near the Brick School House to Mr. E. S. Clough for $4500.

Mr. Joseph W. Carter, who resides on the Armstrong farm, near Wye Mills, has purchased the Davidson farm, below Queenstown, for $6.500, and will move there the first of next year. Mr. John F. Burns has rented the Armstrong farm for another year.

J. H. C. Legg, Esq., attorney for Mrs. Agnes C. Jarman, owner, sold at public auction in Centreville Tuesday her farm in the Seventh district, containing 109 acres, to Mr. John McRochester, at $46 per acre, aggregating $5014. Mrs. Jarman offered the farm at private sale for $5000. It was advertised in the NEWS.

Fine Horse Dead.—Mr. Harry P. Skipper's young stallion, Dudley Tonia, 2.29¼, (formerly Edgar Bell, 2.29¼) died at Wilmington, Del., Sunday last of Metastatic pneumonia supervening acute laminitis. Dudley Tonia, 2:29, started in the 2:29 trot at the Wilmington Horse Show Association Track, Thursday last and was held coming in last, though none of the heats was trotted in time that Dudley Tonia had not already this season shown ability to beat by several seconds.

Dudley Tonia was a brown stallion, foaled 1901; was a son of Edgar Dudley, 2:17¾ (sire of five trotters with standard records,) and Beltonia, (dam also of Little Belle, 2:13¼ pacing,) by Belton, 2:17¼, (sire of nine and dams of six with standard records;) grand-dam, Pearl, by Frank Pierce 3rd. He was bred by Jas. W. Walls, Crumpton, Md., and took his record, under name of Edgar Bell, at Tolchester, Md., August 28th, 1906. He was valued at $1,000.

Field Dodder.—Dodder or Love Vine is a great enemy of all clovers. It is a parasitic vine growing on the stems and taking out the life and vitality of even the roots. The vine intwines itself about the clover stems in great clusters and grows rank or small in exact proportion to the growth of the clover.

When the clover is cut, this vine appears in dry, hairy bunches about the stems. It is so repugnant to horses and cattle that it will not be eaten except as a last resort before starvation. The best way to keep free from dodder is to buy only clean seed.
