Teachers' Institute.

Kent County teachers have been in session in Chestertown this week and no body of men and women is more worthy of recognition. Their very name "teacher" implies that which is noble and worthy. Superintendent Milton Melvin is to be congratulated upon the splendid corps of instructors furnished the Institute and upon the success of the whole week. The instructors have included Supt. J. E. Carroll, of Delaware, Dr. J. W. Cain and Dr. R. H. Gault, of Washington College; Miss Hannah A. Cole, of State Normal School and H. Wirt Steele, Esq., of Baltimore. The local instructors comprised Misses Lulu E. Thomas, Miriam Leaverton, Maude C. Alrich, Clara H. Bryan and their work was of a high order and heartily appreciated.

The entertainment on Tuesday evening was a treat to the large audience. Miss M. Belle Cochran, elocutionist, delighted her hearers as did the local talent consisting of piano solo by Mr. Fred. C. Numbers, Jr., violin solo by Mr. Kemp Bordley, soprano solo by Miss Pearl Ahern and baritone solo Mr. George White, Miss Mabel Toulson accompanist. THE MURDERER CAUGHT!

Sheriff Medders yesterday arrested Joseph Francis at Cecilton for the murder of Albert Blake at Galena. Evidence has been secured from the man who was with Francis and saw him fire the fatal shot!

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Rev. Dr. Silas B. Southerland, the oldest minister of the Methodist Protestant Church in America, and a Superanuate member of the Maryland Conference, died at the Union Infirmary, Baltimore, last Thursday, aged 91 years, after an operation for appendicitis. His death will be lamented throughout the bounds of the church. He married in Chestertown in 1842 the daughter of the late Daniel Collins.

Capt. Thomas Crouch's death in Piney Neck removes a well-know character in Kent. He leaves a widow and the following children, viz., Charles, Will, Mrs. John A. Collison, Mrs. Wm. Ashley, Mrs. Allie Hudson, Mrs. Wm. Startt.

Mrs. David Sheets, aged about 70 years, formerly of Crumpton, but who has been living with her daughter in Philadelphia, died at her late home and was brought to Crumpton Monday, and her remains were interred in the cemetery at that place.

Mr. J. W. Beachamp, a well-known resident of near St. Paul's Church, died early Thursday morning aged 69 years. The deceased was paralyzed about a week ago and never rallied. For some years he was miller at Brice's mill but since his return from Cecil county two years ago he has been at Brown & Morris' mill. He was a citizen whom everyone respected and made a faithful employe. He married a Miss Brannock who died some years ago leaving three children, viz., Olivia, Conlyn and Eva. The funeral will take place this morning, interment in St. Paul's, John N. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. J. Frank Bishop died ot her home near Lambson's Station Tuesday night after a long illness, aged 42. Mr. Bishop had advertised the sale of his personalty on this day and of course had to postpone same. The deceased was Miss Mary Dill and leaves five children. The funeral took place Thursday, interment in Crumpton cemetery, Rev. Mr. Mitchell officiating.

Capt. Benjamin F. Nicholson died at his home, near Fairlee, yesterday in his 68th year. He leaves a widow and six children. The funeral will take place today interment in St. Paul's cemetery, J. E. Ferguson undertaker.

John W. Woodside, the widely known financier and snuff manufacturer, of Philadelphia, died early Saturday in Paris, France, from heart disease. He was 70 years old. John W. Woodside's great financial stroke, the one which brought immediate and astonishing wealth, was his exploiting and subsequent purchase of the Tonopah, Nev., mining properties. Before Eastern capital was well aware of what the new mining region offered, Woodside stepped in and for $50,000 bought claims which today would sell quickly for $50,000,000. Mr. Woodside owned Tolchester at one time.

Helen, the 11 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roe, of Phila., died of cholera infantum at the home of its grandfather, Mr. John Silcox, near Lynch's, on Wednesday afternoon. The funeral was held on Friday, Rev. Mr. Morris officiating; interment at Still Pond cemetery; Krusen, undertaker.

NEGRO KILLED AT GALENA

Shot On Public Road Sunday Night — County Commissioners Employ Detective — Five Colored Persons Arrested—A Woman In The Case.

Alfred Blake, employed at Mr. Caldwell's, near Galena, borrowed a horse from him Sunday, went to Galena and got a carriage and accompanied by Fronia Blake, who lived at Mr. Scott Rosin's, went to camp. He brought Fronia Blake from camp at 8 o'clock, left his carriage in Galena and started to his home on horseback. About eleven o'clock Mr. Ell Morris was driving home and saw a negro in the road near the M. E. Church, apparently dead drunk, so he kept on his journey. Early Monday morning Mr. Stradley saw the negro in the road and upon examination discovered him to be lifeless. An inquest was held by Justice Parr and a verdict rendered that the deceased came to his death at the hand of some party or parties unknown. The post mortem showed that a 32-calibre bullet had pierced his side and heart and lodged in his lung, evidently shot from the ground at the man on horseback. The horse he was riding went straight home, having been found at the farm at 12 o'clock when other hands arrived.

An empty pistol and thirteen cartridges were found in the dead man's pocket.

The county commissioners on Tuesday authorized State's Attorney Beck to employ a detective and to do everything in his power to find the guilty party. Sheriff Medders and Detective Polland on Thursday arrested Alfred Spenser, who is charged with taking Blake's "wife" from him, Louis Butler, Robert Harris; Jack Cornish, of Middletown, who was at the camp and from whom Blake had wooed his "wife"; Alice Cornish and Fronia Blake, the two women who seem to have caused considerable ill-feeling between Spenser, Cornish and the dead man. A hearing was held yesterday before Justice Parr in Galena.

SALES-LADIES, salesmen and proprietors of the stores of Chestertown have heartily enjoyed the early closing during July and August and feel greatly benefitted by the evening recreation. They all join in asking the NEWS to specially thank the Ladies for the interest they manifested in bringing about the result and to thank the public generally for their kind approval.

WEDDING EVENTS.

DUYER—THOMPSON.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Thompson, near Edesville, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. The contracting parties were Miss Lucy E. Thompson and Mr. Frank J. Duyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Duyer, of Chestertown. The parlors were decorated with vines, cedar and cut flowers and made an inspiring scene. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Bowers, of Baltimore, in the presence of quite a large company of relatives and friends. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Pearl Anderson, of Baltimore. The maid of honor was Miss Mary Leary who was neatly attired in French organdie, trimmed in lace, while the best man was Mr. Merritt Thompson, brother of the bride. The bride was beautifully costumed in French organdie trimmed in Valenciene lace and carried roses and sweet peas. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served. A number of elegant presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Duyer drove to Chestertown Wednesday evening and occupied the dwelling adjoining Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sutton on Cannon street.

PLUMMMER—DAMEREL.

Miss Addye T. Demerel, daughter of the late Wm. and Charlotte I. Damerel, formerly of Deals Island, Md., was married to Mr. William C. Plummer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Plummer, of Kent county, Saturday evening by Rev. C. A. Gohdes, at the parsonage of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church. The bride was attired in a princess gown of pale blue silk, with hat and gloves to match, and carried bride roses. Their only attendant was the groom's brother, Mr. J. R. Plummer, who since completing his course at Western Maryland College a year ago has been connected with the Md., Del. & Va. Railway. On their return a few of their friends surprised them with a reception "at home." They will reside at 1432 North Broadway.

Found Dead Man.—The crew of the freight train on the Kent road consisting of James Allen, Charles King, George Chambers and others while on the way to Chestertown Wednesday, were horrified to see in plain view the mutilated body of a white man by the road-side. The remains were picked up and conveyed to the freight station at Townsend and was held for the investigation by the Wilmington coroner, but in the meantime was unidentified. He may have leaped from a night express train going to or coming from the Jamestown Exposition, or may have been struck by a fast freight while crossing the track.

Announcements.—Rev. George Lewis Wolf has issued invitations to the marriage of his sister, Frances Vinetta, to Rev. William N. Sherwood, of Chestertown, but now stationed in Worcester county, on Wednesday evening, September 18, 1907, at 8.30 o'clock, 1213 Market street, Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Susan M. Atkinson announces the marriage of her daughter, Caroline Lydia, to Mr. T. H. M. B. Ramble, to take place Wednesday morning, September the eighteenth at nine thirty o'clock, in Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, Md. No cards in county.

Senator and Mrs. Garrett Foxwell have issued invitations to the marriage of their niece, Eva Foxwell Cooper, to Dr. Frank Wilmer Smith, of Fairlee, on Tuesday, September 17, at noon, at their home, near Blacks, Md.

Accidents.—Mr. James Groves and daughter had an exciting experience while on their way to Chestertown from Fairlee on Monday. Their horse took fright, threw the occupants of the carriage out and injured Mr. Groves considerably. Mr. Frank Skirven happened along, went to their assistance and helped them to town where Dr. Simpers dressed Mr. Groves' head. Miss Groves was uninjured.

Alfred Worrell, employed at Hubbard's fertilizer factory, caught his hand in the cogs of the machinery and mashed several of his fingers.

Solomon Chairs, aged four years, fell down stairs at his home in Chestertown, up-town, and broke his arm,

Mr. George Crosby, while mowing hay on Mr. Charles McKee's place, near town, caught his heel in the machine and was cut severely about the ankle. It is feared he will be lame for life.

Alfred Kershaw, an employe at the Chestertown Strawboard mill had three fingers badly mashed one day this week while at his work.

Mr. P. V. Hendrickson's wagon loaded with straw caught fire Monday and one of his horses was injured and wagon damaged.

Reports from tomato growers covering all sections of the county are to the effect that the dry weather and cool nights have seriously injured the crop, cutting it short at least one half. In many instances the plants in large fields have dropped all foliage and the vines, or main stems, look lifeless. This means that the fruit which has begun to mature will ripen, but that the green fruit will be a loss. Over in Delaware canners are paying 42 cents per basket.

One farmer near Chestertown has 50 acres and does not expect to get 100 tons. Another has 10 acres and says he will not get ten tons. The average yield per acre is about six tons. This year, however, it will probably not exceed three tons. For the next ten days the packing-houses will have a rush, but following this the receipts of tomatoes will be light and the season short. The loss will fall heavily not only upon the farmers, but upon the laboring classes as well.
