Buried Money Is Not Safe!

PUT IT IN THE BANK

HIDDEN MONEY LOST.

Bristol, Tenn.—After hiding $1,000 in $20 gold pieces for fifty years at different spots on his premises, John Hopper, of Washington Co., Va., two weeks ago secreted the yellow coin under the kitchen of his home. When he went to get the money yesterday to look at it and count it, it was missing. There is no clue to the theft.

The ONLY safe place for your money is the BANK. Put yours in our bank and have SECURITY and PEACE OF MIND.

THE SERVICE WE RENDER

¶ Many people look upon a bank as merely a place to put money for safe keeping, but we are more than a safe depository.

¶ We render services in many other ways, too numerous to print, and will be only too glad to advise with you about any financial matter that you may have to deal with, be it large or small.

¶ Call and see us, and let us have an opportunity to explain our plan.

YOU CAN RAISE 100% OF CHICKENS HATCHED

PRAISE WHERE PRAISE IS DUE.

"I have been most successful with my incubator chickens this year, having raised 100 per cent. of chickens hatched. In former years I was only able to raise about 40 to 50 per cent. Then I fed them on home products, but this year I am feeding Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Foods entirely, and attribute my success to your nicely balanced foods. My hatches were made with one of your Buckeye Incubators. I tell you this because I believe in giving praise where praise is due."—Written on September 26th, 1911, by Miss Lulu Thomas, of Pearsons, St. Mary's county, Md.

DON'T BE FOOLED.

If your local merchant doesn't sell Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Poultry Foods, drop us a postal, we will tell you who does.

WE HAVE SOMETHING NICE FOR YOU.

We have just published a book—something every one who raises chickens has been looking for—"POULTRY PROFITS FOR ONE YEAR." The price of this book is 25c, but if you will send us 6c in stamps, and mention the name of this paper, we will send you one free.

A POULTRY EXPERT.

We have associated with us a Poultry Expert, who will gladly answer any question you would like to ask. Drop us a letter.

Fellowcraft SHOES

For any Function

THE new gospel of the business world is that of EFFICIENCY. No man can be truly efficient if he is handicapped by ill fitting shoes.

Perhaps you know what is to have your feet bother you—the nerve-racking, attention distracting pains which are caused by shoes which pinch.

FELLOWCRAFT SHOES will bring you a welcome relief, for they are READY-TO-WEAR when you get them

COMMISSIONS HERE

The commissions for the newly elected officials for Kent county have arrived, and the new officers will likely qualify next week, as follows:

Judges of Orphans' Court—W. Bradford Copper, James Bramble and W. S. Hill.

Sheriff—William H. McKee.

County Commissioners—W. Fletcher Melvin, Harry Nichols, Thos. C. Roe.

The Treasurer will not assume his duties until next April.

State's Attorney-elect Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., will assume the duties of his office January 1st, 1912.

WEDDING BELLS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson was the scene of a quiet wedding Wednesday at noon, the interested parties being Mr. Edward C. Walters, a well-known farmer of near Galena, and Miss Genevieve Hendrickson, the accomplished daughter. Because of the sickness of Mr. Hendrickson the wedding was very quiet. The bride wore a plum-colored tailor-made suit. Dr. F. T. Little performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate families. They will reside near Galena.

Marriage licenses were issued the past week to Thos. Ringgold Jones and Martha Neal Wilson; George J. Bedwell and Mrs. Lucy E. Voshell; Joseph A. Walbert and Mrs. Sarah A. Stowman.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Rev. William McKendree Poisal, one of the most prominent retired clergymen of the Methodist Protestant Church in Maryland, died at his home, 2027 North Calvert street, Baltimore, Thursday afternoon. His death came as a shock to his family and friends who believed he would recover from his illness. His death was due to pneumonia which was brought on by his weakened condition. He was seized with a hemorrhage of the nose while returning home on a street car on November 7 last.

MR. EDWARD FAULKNER.

Mr. Edw. Faulkner died at his home in Kennedyville Thursday of paralysis, aged 80. He leaves a widow and three children, viz.: Mrs. John Matthews, of Chestertown; Mrs. Peter Roberts, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Rosin, of Sassafras. The funeral will take place at 1.30 P. M. today at the home of Wm. T. Hague, Rev. Mr. Mullineaux officiating, interment in Shrewsbury cemetery; W. H. Krusen, undertaker.

MRS. JULIA E. SHYNE.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Julia E. Shyne, of 1908 McKean Ave., Baltimore, Md. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. Edward E. England, with whom she had made her home for the past few years. Mr. Edw. England is the son of Mr. Charles England, a prominent and successful farmer near Chesterville.

The deceased was in her eighty first year and was kind and thoughtful towards all during her long career on earth. She was taken Suddenly ill Sunday, November 19. Medical aid was quickly summoned, and although no time, money or trouble was withheld, she rapidly sank, sleeping into eternal rest and peace at half past two Wednesday November 22, 1911. Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery on Friday November 24th. The deceased was well known and respected by many persons in Kent. She is mourned by a host of friends and relatives, and we can truthfully apply the words:

"None knew her but to love her,
None named her but to praise."
