The New School Commissioners' Bill. But what the Democrat and the Journal have neglected, our beacon-light contemporary has essayed to do in nearly a half-column editorial. After fussing about several other local measures, and mournfully reminding us that "it won't always be Sheriff Curry," the "school commissioner bill" is discussed and a few "motives and reasons" are given."

In the year eighteen hundred and eighty six, being the second day of said month, the County Commissioners of Caroline county to shoot or trap or employ any one cles to shoot or trap or employ any one cles to shoot or trap any partridges, quait, woodcock, wild duck, sora or water rail, rabble against a common foe.
