below a brief sketch of the appointee: Col. Philip W. Downes was born in Caroline county, and is 49 years old. He was educated at Dickinson College. graduating in the class of 1858, and studied law with Col. Samuel Hambleton at Easton. Immediately after his admission to the bar he com menced the practice of law at Denton, and now occupies the same office he first opened, and has continuously occupied it for 26 years. In 1863 he married Miss Annie Hardcastle, the only child of the late Edward Hardcounty, and has two children, both boys. His oldest son, Dukes, is now at the Oxford Military Academy. Col. Downes was appointed Fish Comwas continued in that office by Governor Carroll, and declined a re-appointment by Governor Carroll in the second year of his administration. He He founded the Denton National Bank and has been continuously and unanimously elected president since its foundation. He has for many years been a staunch Democrat, has taken an active part in politics, and is one of the best stump speakers in the State. For several years he has been conspicuous in Caroline county Democonfidence in the ultimate success of the enterprise. Col. Downes is a man of remarkable energy and forethought and has been unusually successful in his various business enterprises.
