A fair assessment would, we believe, greatly reduce taxation. This is especially the case in Caroline county. A fair appraisement of all property in this county would add a million to our basis. Let us have the new assessment without delay.

The scope the new law should be sufficiently enlarged to take in all kinds of property real and personal at its real worth.

A revision of the license system is urged, and this may be done greatly to the profit of the state and more even justice to the people. Merchants, brokers, millipers, etc., are assessed, while doctors, lawyers, auctioneers, etc., pay no license.
