SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1890.

ADJOURNED ON THE 178TH BALLOT.

The Congressional Convention Will Meet at Ocean City Thursday—Gibson Ahead.

CENTREVILLE, MD., Sept. 3.—The First district Democratic Congressional Convention met at the court house here to-day at eleven o'clock. Hundred of visitors accompanied the delegates, and when Mr. A. R. Weedon convened the assemblage the small court-room was packed to its fullest capacity. The following are the delegates:

Kent—Harrison W. Vickers, Wm. S. Walker, Bennett Wilson, Dennis J. Nowland, Samuel Copper, J. Fletcher Wilson—3 votes uninstructed.

Queen Anne's—Dr. Robert McF. Price, T. L. W. Harley, Robert Catlin, William H. Cecil, William J. Gillespie, John F. Godwin, Capt. A. Stanley Bryan, John O. Phillips—4 votes for A. R. Weedon.

Caroline—Dr. Tolson, William Massey, Dr. Enoch George, James W. Holt, E. C. Fields, William H. Dean—3 votes uninstructed.

Talbot—Ormond Hammond, Theophilus Tunis, G. E. Haddaway, Wm. S. Merrick, Jas. M. Wooters, Jas. H. Willis, Wm. R. Martain, Joshua G. Wrightson—4 votes, for C. H. Gibson.

Dorchester—William S. Craft, Samuel W. Woolfred, Zora H. Brinsfield, James Higgins—4 votes, uninstructed.

Somerset—Joshua W. Miles, Southey F. Miles, Jr., John S. Sudler, Jacob W. Webster, Benjamin K. Green, William S. McMaster, William H. Gale, William F. Byrd—4 votes, for Henry Page.

Wicomico—Isaac H. White, Levin J. Gale, Isaac N. Hearn, W. S. Moore—4 votes, for E. Stanley Toadvin.

Worcester—Dr. George W. Bishop, Levi A. Purnell, Wm. T. Dickinson, W. S. Purnell, Dr. Jas. C. Derrickson, Francis H. Purnell, Thomas P. Townsend, Robert J. Dryden—4 votes, for George W. Covington.

Dr. Robert M. Price was made president; W. S. McMaster and Wm. R. Martin, secretaries; Wm. Massey, vice-president for Caroline Co.; Jas. H. Willis, chairman of the committee on organization; G. E. Haddaway, chairman of the committee on resolutions.

THE NOMINATIONS.

Joshua W. Miles nominated Henry Page; Ormond Hammond nominated Charles H. Gibson; Isaac H. White nominated E. Stanley Toadvin; Wm. T. Dickinson nominated George W. Covington; T. L. W. Harley nominated A. Randolph Weedon. Harrison W. Vickers, of Kent, and Dr. Tolson, of Caroline, seconded Mr. Gibson's nomination. A letter was read from Henry Lloyd, refusing to allow the use of his name.

After several sessions, in which Mr. Gibson's strength was 10, Page's 8, Weedon's 4, Covington's 4, and Toadvine's 4, the convention took a recess until Thursday morning. The 178th ballot developed the first practical change since the voting commenced. There was wrangling in the Queen Anne's delegation, and when Spokesman Godwin announced two votes for Weedon and two for Gibson the convention presented a scene of excitement and confusion which lasted until an adjournment was effected. Caroline had cast her three votes for Gibson; Dorchester four for Page; Kent two for Gibson and one for Page, when Queen Anne's announced two for Gibson and two for Weedon. It then became evident that Gibson would be nominated on that ballot, for Kent withdrew her one vote for Page and gave it to Gibson and Wicomico withdrew the name of Toadvine and cast her four votes for Gibson. Talbot had not been reached in the vote when Col. Page's right bower, Mr. Miles, jumped to his feet and cheered "Weedon! Weedon! Weedon!" with a vim that made the court house fairly ring. Then votes began to change. Queen Anne's withdrew her two votes from Gibson and voted solidly for Weedon; Dorchester changed her four votes to Weedon, and Somerset her four votes from Page to Weedon, which gave Mr. Weedon twelve votes. It was thought that when Worcester was reached she would nominate Weedon, but she gave a complete surprise to the convention when Dr. Derrickson arose and in a short, ingenious speech placed in nomination James Alfred Pearce, of Kent. Then Kent withdrew from Gibson and voted for Pearce. The vote then stood: Gibson 11, Weedon 12, and Pearce 7. The convention then adjourned to meet at Ocean City on Thursday next.

THE RACE ISSUE has been raised by the Dorchester Republicans. In Cambridge Saturday open war was declared between the faction supporting N. W. Dixon, of Somerset, and the one supporting Daniel Lloyd, brother of Ex-Governor Lloyd, of Cambridge. The Lloyd ticket contained the names of two colored men while that of Dixon was composed entirely of whites. To the surprise of everybody a race issue was made and white men were importuned to vote the white men's ticket. The result was a signal defeat for the Lloyd delegation. Now the problem before the Dorchester Republicans is can they whip in line the 1800 colored votes and again carry Dorchester by an "overwhelming majority."

ACCORDING to census reports the gross indebtedness of Caroline county is $21,500. There is a sinking fund of $2,000, leaving a net indebtedness of $19,500. The available assets, however, are equal to the liabilities, and there are few counties with such a good financial standing.

THE MAIL PUBLISHING COMPANY, of Hagerstown, now issues a very neat daily edition.

LEVY LIST, 1890.

OFFICE OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF CAROLINE COUNTY,
Denton, Md., June 28, 1890.

ORDERED this 28th day of June, 1890, that the following accounts be and are hereby included in the levy of 1890.

And it is further ordered that a tax levy be and is hereby laid upon the assessable property in Caroline county for the year 1890. For State tax, seventeen and three-quarter (17¾) cents. For county tax ninety-two and one-quarter (92¼) cents, making a total levy for the year 1890 of one hundred and ten cents on each one hundred dollars of assessable property in said county.
