GOVERNOR JACKSON'S AUTHORITY.

It appears from interviews with prominent gentlemen, notably Mr. George M. Upham, of Snow Hill, that doubts have been entertained...

And if vacancies happen by resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Legislature of any State the Executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

The last Legislature failed to elect anyone as a successor to Judge Wilson the above authority would give Governor Jackson full power to appoint a successor until the next meeting of the Legislature.

Mrs. Logan, widow of General John A. Logan, has recently tendered the Republican members of the Illinois Legislature some wholesome advice.

The Legislature of Illinois resumed balloting for United States Senator on Wednesday and took four ballots which made altogether 140.

On the last ballot Farmer, Democrat, secured 101; Streeter, Farmers' Business Men's Association candidate, 97; Oglesby, Republican, 6.

An excellent illustration of what high tariff takes from the pockets of the people will be given in a few weeks when the duty on raw sugar is to be removed.

The Delaware papers all conclude that there is no probability of the State losing anything on account of the mislaid securities.

Mr. Paul Winchester, formerly of Easton, is now editor of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Journal, Baltimore.

Uncle Jerry Simpson, the sockless congressman from Kansas, is said to be opposed to free silver on the ground that if he gets more of it he will have no place to hoard it.

It is rumored that Governor Jackson has determined not to appoint a successor to Senator Wilson, but will leave the next Legislature to fill the vacancy.

The diamonds belonging to the family of the late General Sherman and valued at $140,000 are to be sold.

I desire to announce to my friends and patrons in Caroline county and elsewhere that I am associated as one of the firm of Martin & Co., high grade cigar manufacturers, at McSherrystown, Pa., with branch warehouse at Cordova, Md., where we will be glad to fill orders by mail, large or small, or from factory as may be required.

We make goods equal to imported goods, and at much less money. We guarantee all goods to be as represented, and also entire satisfaction. We whole sell strictly, and will make it to the advantage of the wholesale dealer to buy our goods direct from the manufacturer.

LATE SHERIFF'S SALE.

Valuable Real Estate

IN CAROLINE CO.

By virtue of sundry writs of fieri facias issued out of the Circuit Court for Caroline county, and to me directed, one at the suit of Young, Creighton & Duggs, one at the suit of Daniel Miller & Co., one at the suit of Amos N. Goolsby, one at the suit of the suit of Liveright, Greenwald & Co., one at the suit of R. W. Truitt & Co., one at the suit of S. W. Worthington, & Co., one at the suit of Fisher, Gault & Co., one at the suit of Crescent Oil Company, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of John T. Daily, in and to the following tracts of land, to wit:

All those tracts, parts of tracts, or parcels of land, situate, lying and being in the First Election District of Caroline county, near the village of Templeville called and known as "Long's Chance," "Duckery," "Meadow," "Christopher-Hazard," "Troy," or by whatever name or names the same may be called and known, being the "Home Farm" of the late John Daily, deceased, and containing 25 1/2 ACRES & 49 SQUARE PERCHES, more or less, all of which said land is fully described in the following deeds, namely: From Thomas Purcell and wife to John Daily, recorded in Liber T. F. G., No. A, folio 114, etc.; from Robert Wilson and wife to John Daily, recorded in Liber T. F. G., No. B, folio 429, etc.; from John B. Anderson and wife, et al., to John Daily, recorded in Liber T. F. G., No. B, folio 476, etc.; from John W. Temple and wife to John Daily, recorded in Liber R. J. No. 29, folio 206; from William H. Bowen and wife to John Daily, recorded in Liber J. J., No. 31, folio 205; from John W. Temple and wife to John Daily, recorded in Liber J. J., No. 31, folio 205; from John W. Temple and wife to John Daily, recorded in Liber J. J., No. 31, folio 205; from John W. Temple and wife to John Daily, recorded in Liber J. J., No. 31, folio 205.

Similar, but minus the spots of white wool, the same colorings, 48 inches 22. Worthy company for these is a lot of fine twills with great plaids of rough hawl, grey ground with flame plaid, deerskin, etc., and with pronounced old rose plaid, black ground with gold plaid. Grand Grenadines, more of them and different from all predecessors. The sweaters six make their debut. The weaves, three colors each. Broad striped wool divided by broad stripes of velvet, cut in figures, one long striped, the other Japanese pan fans for decoration, 24 inches $1.50, with matching, plain, 44 in. at $2.

Other Grenadines, 42 inch wide, for Princess costumes, 5 yard a dress; black wool grounds, coral silk border, silk polka dots of black, bright, olive, buff and blue, $5.

The Cream Dress Goods. Would you think that a whole counter is needed for this single color and a few kindred evening shades? Such is the case, however.

A new cream fabric hails you. A new cream fabric hails you, Engadine. Why Engadine? Euphony only—sounds like Grenadine, and alike they are. It is a delightful wool fabric with three widths satin stripes, 40 inches, $1.50. Then the real Grenadines (that haven't changed their names for euphony or other reason) with exquisite silk borders, $1.75 and $2.

Delicate elegance appears in the cream Bedford Cord, 52-inch $2.50, and in the sorts and serge, 50c to $2.50. The woven plaits are also in the cream wool stuffs—they are the curio of Dress Goods. You should see them; 5 yard sample for a dress, with Lansdowne or Henrietta for the waist, the sleeves being of the plaited skirting.

The great Plaids of the Paris and London novelties are the mountain tops of style. These quiet cream colored stuffs are on a level plain, but beautiful withal.

A Marvel in Mattresses—This is how it came about. We got control of enough pure South American long horse hair to make one thousand-forty-pound mattresses and got it cheap.

We bought a large lot of extra good ticking at a very low price.

Journeyman Upholsters are very content to work cheaper in the duller time and we are willing to work for next to nothing in the off part of the year.

Putting all these together we can beat the present and the past in Mattress making and selling, and will sell, or make to order to fit any bedstead, a forty-pound Mattress for $15.

The sale begins to-day and will stop when 1000 are ordered. They were worth until yesterday $22 each. The filling will be absolutely pure and free from all cattle or Siberian hair.

Orders will be promptly filled in sequence as received.
