CAMBRIDGE DEMOCRAT.

The News.

The Louisiana Convention adjourned on Wednesday last sine die.

The Senate of the U States adjourned sine die on Thursday last. No nomination of a Judge of the Supreme Court was sent in by the President. The vacancy will therefore remain unfilled till next session.

The Virginia Convention has been engaged for several days in the discussing of the resolutions offered by the Committee on Federal Relations. The Constitution of the Confederate States was offered as a substitute but was unanimously voted down. The following resolutions have been passed by the Convention in the committee of the whole:

Be it Resolved and declared by the people of the State of Virginia in Convention assembled, That the States which composed the United States of America, when the Federal Constitution was formed, were independent sovereignties, and in adopting that instrument the people of each State agreed to associate with the people of the other States upon a footing of exact equality. It is the duty, therefore, of the common Government to respect the rights of the States and the equality of the people thereof, and within the just limits of the Constitution to protect with equal care the great interests that spring from the institutions of each.

African slavery is a vital part of the social system of the States wherein it exists, and as that form of servitude existed when the Union was formed, and the jurisdiction of the several States over it within their respective limits was recognized by the Constitution, any interference to its prejudice by the Federal authority, or by the authorities of the other States, or by the people thereof, is in derogation from plain right, contrary to the Constitution, offensive and dangerous.

By advices from Pensacola to 30th ult. there were near 5000 Confederate troops there.

The Legislature of California was still unable to elect a U. S. Senator.

The Virginia convention it is supposed will adjourn in about three weeks. The agricultural members are becoming anxious to return home.

The House was in session all Saturday night, the joint resolution relative to the movement of troops and arms within the Commonwealth, growing out of the proposed transfer of guns from the Bellona foundry, being under consideration. Various amendments were proposed and rejected. The Senate amendment was finally passed, in a modified form, authorizing the Governor to call out the public guard to arrest the contemplated removal, and directing him to employ the needful force to resist any attempt to remove the same beyond the reach or the control of the State government

The report is partially confirmed that orders have been sent West and Southwest to seize all the foreign goods that may be landed from the Gulf ports. It is expected that St. Louis, Memphis and Louisville will be the largest depots for the reception of these goods, but as the orders to seize them are imperative, the Government believes that the "illegal traffic" will thus be speedily broken up. It is not, doubted, however, but what there may be serious trouble attending the business.

It is said that no uneasiness is felt by the Commissioners from the Confederate States either in regard to the evacuation of Fort Sumter or the reinforcement of Fort Pickens, and that they are satisfied on both points.

Hon. H. Winter Davis of Md. will probably receive the Chinese Mission.

Mississippi has ratified the Confederate States Constitution. Five of the seven States have now ratified that instrument in the following order:

	yeas	nays.
Alabama,	87	5
Georgia,	96	5
Louisiana,	101	7
Mississippi,	78	7
Texas,	68	2

By yesterday's steamer we received the following:

The Charleston Fortifications Completed.

CHARLESTON, March 31.—The fortifications in the harbor having been finally completed they were visited yesterday by Gen. Beauregard and the members of the convention. The distinguished party were received with high honors and heavy firing in all directions. The completion of the great work, and the satisfactory manner in which it has been accomplished, is the theme of much rejoicing and congratulation on all sides, and all that is wanting to make the joy complete is the evacuation of Sumter and its occupation by its rightful owners, the Confederate States of America.

Connecticut Election.

HARTFORD, April 1.—The State election is proceeding quietly to-day. The indications are that the republicans will triumph.

NEW LONDON, April 1.—The republican majority here is 137, a gain from last year. Waterford has also gone for the republicans; it was democratic last year.

☞We would call the attention of those suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, &c., to an advertisement in another column of this paper, of an important discovery for the cure of those diseases, now introduced for the first time to the American public by Messrs. Leeds, Gilmore & Co., of New York.

☞We would call the attention of our farmers to the advertisement, in another column, of Mr. Edward Slaughter's horse, King Philip This is without doubt one of the finest looking horses we ever saw. He can be seen for the next two weeks at Mr. John Bradshaw's stables.

Local and Personal.

The following was passed by the Congregation of the M. E. Church of this place on Monday last:

Whereas, in our meeting of Dec. 7, 1860, we repudiated the action of the late General Conference on the subject of slavery, and expressed by unanimous vote a desire to be absolved from its jurisdiction, because of the offensive and incendiary doctrine and advice as set forth in the new chapter.

And whereas, at a subsequent meeting held Jan. 12th, 1861, an earnest appeal was submitted to us from members of the Phila. Conference, to defer further proceedings until the annual Conferences could have an opportunity of disavowing the action of the General Conference, and demanding that body to strike out of the Discipline all on the subject of slavery, and to refer the whole question to the jurisdiction of annual Conferences in whose bounds it exists, which appeal we responded to in a spirit of conciliation and forbearance, and resolved to defer until the 6th of Nov next final action, provided the Phila. Conference would set apart the Peninsula portion of its territory as a separate Conference.

And whereas, the Phila Conference at its recent session passed a resolution concurring with the East Balt. and other Conferences, in favor of the repeal of the chapter on slavery; and though declining to divide the Conference at this time, the Peninsula not being unanimous in favor of a division, it referred the question back to the Quarterly Conferences, for a more decided expression of opinion during the present year.

And whereas, we have in all our previous action been influenced by a sincere desire to promote the peace and unity of the church throughout this portion of our Zion, and being unwilling now to take any step calculated to produce distraction and prevent ultimate harmony; therefore

1st. Resolved, That notwithstanding the failure of the Philadelphia Conference to divide, as was our earnest wish, and though we cannot further recognize its jurisdiction, yet we are still willing as indicated in our resolutions of the 12th of January, to defer further action until the 6th of Nov. next, at which time we earnestly request a Convention of all the circuits and stations of the Peninsula agreeing with us as to the necessity of abandoning the connection with the Northern Conferences, if they should fail during the present year to demand the repeal of the chapter on slavery and the removal of the subject from the jurisdiction of the General Conference.

2 Resolved, That the Quarterly Conference of Cambridge Station be requested to adopt a resolution in conformity with the above, and request the P. E. of Snow Hill District to present the same to all the other Quarterly Conferences in his District at their first meetings, and to ask their concurrence.

3d. Resolved, That if the societies generally throughout the Peninsula should not respond to our desire for co-operation and should fail to demand a separation from the Philadelphia Conference, it will then be necessary for us to act independently and attach ourselves to some Conference entirely in slave territory

4th Resolved, That as the Rev J. W. Pearson repudiates the doctrine and advice of the new chapter, and is himself a Marylander, we will cordially receive him as our pastor, in the hope that he will be instrumental in preserving the unity and harmony of this station, in accordance with the course indicated in these resolutions.

4th Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the Cambridge papers, the Balt. Christian Advocate and The Methodist, and that the papers on the Peninsula be requested to copy.

Removal for Lunacy.—The unfortunate young lady who was lodged in our Jail on Thursday last as being of unsound mind and dangerous, was pronounced a lunatic on Friday last by a Jury de lunatico inquirendo, was removed on Monday last to Mount Hope Hospital She is the daughter of Mr Richard Tall, of Tuckahoe, and was accompanied to Mount Hope by both her father and mother.

Elias Griswold, Esq., late master of Cambridge Lodge of Masons in this place has been chosen by the Grand Lodge of Maryland, as Grand Inspector.

Thanks.—We are under renewed obligations to Hon. A. Kennedy, U. S. Senator from Md., for the Message of the President and other documents for 1860, '61.

We would call attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. Zimmer's Clothing, in another column.

The following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That we commend the collection for our superannuated preachers and their families, as one having the strongest claims upon the sympathy and benevolence of our people, and that we will use our utmost efforts to raise the amount apportioned to our respective charges

Resolved, That pastors in charge of stations and circuits be required to report the Conference and Necessitous collections on the second day of next Conference.

The Tract Committee reported that they regarded the tract cause as an important instrument of the evangelization of the world; that they have the greatest confidence in the officers of the Tract Society

ACTION OF THE CONFERENCE ON THE CHAPTER.

The Committee on the State of the Church, to whom was referred the subject of the repeal of the new chapter on slavery, recently inserted in their discipline by the General Conference, reported as follows on the clause:

Your Committee appointed to consider the state of the Church within our bounds having examined the papers referred to them, and availed themselves of all other means of information within their reach, concluded to present the result of their deliberations, as follows;

I. On the subject of the New Chapter on Slavery.

Whereas, It is indispensably necessary for allaying the excitement and restoring peace and harmony in the Southern borders of our Conference, that the new Chapter on Slavery inserted in our Discipline by the last General Conference, be repealed, and that the Annual Conferences be left to make their own regulations on this subject: therefore,

Resolved, That we concur in the resolutions of the East Baltimore Conference, requesting the General Conference, at its next session, to repeal the Chapter on Slavery; and instead thereof, empower each annual Conference, within whose bounds the institution exists, to make such regulations upon this subject as in their judgment may best subserve the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom among them.

II. In the judgment of this body they would embody in the following

ADDRESS to the Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the State of Delaware, and on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia.

Dearly Beloved Brethren:—The memorials, petitions and communications laid before this body have not only disclosed the dissatisfaction, agitation and embarrassment so fatal to the interests of religion among you, which have grown out of the action of the late General Conference on the subject of slavery, but also called for an expression of our opinion on the nature of that action, with which call we deem it but just and right to comply.

We assure you that you have our profoundest sympathies in your present disquietude and agitated condition; and having the fulest confidence in your fidelity and loyalty to the interests of Methodism, no exertions shall be wanting on our part to secure redress for your grievances, and to maintain all your ecclesiastical rights, in and under the constitution of the Church.

Though it is our deliberate judgment, a judgment which must control all our actions on this subject, that the new chapter does not embody in any form a new condition of membership, though it is our conviction that it possesses in no degree the character of legislation or law; affords no basis whatever for administrative or disciplinary enaction on the subject of slavery. And, therefore, there can be no such action under it. Nevertheless, this change in the discipline was entirely uncalled for; is highly offensive to our brethren on the border, and lamentably injurious to the welfare of the Church, among them, and, therefore, in justice to those who suffer so much from its effects, it ought to be repealed.—To this end, we have concurred with the resolution of the East Baltimore Conference, requesting the General Conference, at its next session, to repeal the Chapter on Slavery, and instead thereof empower each annual Conference, within whose bounds the institution exists, to make such regulation upon the subject as may best subserve the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom among them.

In the mean time, dear brethren, let us possess our souls in patience, and carry our grievances to the Throne of heavenly grace, confidently relying on Him who is able to deliver us out of all our troubles, Who promises to work all things together for the good of those who love Him, and Who will not suffer us to be wounded in the house of our friends, nor to be scattered by our enemies

THE DIVISION OF THE CONFERENCE.

On this subject there were before your committee from the various charges on Peninsula, memorials, petitions and resolutions from some Quarterly Conferences and Church meetings, asking for the formation of a Peninsula Conference, by dividing the Philadelphia Conference by the State line between Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, while other charges and Church meetings declared against such a division at the present time as inexpedient. After due deliberation, your committee agree on the following resolution:

Resolved, In view of our present national difficulties and embarrassments, and the consequent disturbed condition of the public mind on the one hand, and the conflicting opinions of our Churches in Delaware and Maryland on this subject, we deem it inexpedient to divide the Philadelphia Conference by State lines at this time. But we recommend all the Quarterly Conferences of the Peninsula, during the coming year, to consider this matter, and give such expression of their working as may aid in determining the action of this body at its next annual session.

(Signed)—J. J. Thompson, Jas A. Massey, J J Quigley, John Ruth, S. Mason, William Cooper, William H. Brisbane Wm. M. Coombs, William E. England, W. Milby, R Todd, J. Thompson, F Price.

A motion made by Mr Cooper, to adopt the whole report without debate, caused some excitement among the members. After some discussion in reference to points of order, &c., the vote was taken upon the first part of the report, referring to slavery, and it was adopted.

The vote was then taken on each division of the address, and resulted in each case in the affirmative.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—An incontrovertible truth. The blood, the source of health. The blood is the river of life and conveys on its current the elements of health or disease in its course through the fibres and tissues of the human frame—if pure it strengthens the muscles, braces the nerves, gives solidity to the bone, firmness to the flesh, lustre to the eye, brilliancy to the complexion and elasticity to the animal spirits; when vitiated, it infects the whole system and is prolific of such disorders as scurvy scrofula and all cutaneous eruptions With these facts before us, we see how essential it is to health to preserve the blood pure Holloway's Pills will purify it in the most effectual manner, no matter how tainted it may be.
