DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

All Democratic voters of Caroline county are requested by the Democratic County Central Committee to meet at the usual places of voting on Saturday, September 12th, 1891, to elect five delegates from each district to assemble in convention at Denton, Tuesday, September 15th, 1891, at two o'clock, p. m., to nominate a county ticket as follows: andidate for clerk of the circuit court. Two candidates for the House of Dele-

Three candidates for county commis-Three candidates for judges of the orphans' court.

One candidate for register of wills. One candidate for State's attorney. One candidate for sheriff. One candidate for county surveyor. Judges of the election are to be selected by members of the county central committee in each district. The judges are requested to be present promptly at the hour for the opening and appoint clerks, all of whom will give a joint certificate to the delegates chosen. The polls will be open from two o'clock to five o'clock, p. m.

CLABAUGH AND VANNORT.

The echoes of the hurrah which the Republicans essayed to give their nominee for Governor have all died away. "If 'twas so soon to be done for, what in the world was it begun for?"

The Baltimore Herald of Sunday says of the nomination: "The Republican Convention was a very interesting one, and the nomination of Colonel Vannort for Governor was brought about in a rather unusual way. . It was practically presented to him by Mr. Clabaugh, who, as Mr. McComas asserted emphatically on the floor of the convention, could have had it by a handsome majority had his friends insisted upon a ballot. But Mr. Clabaugh had allowed his name to be used with the understanding that he would be satisfactory to all the elements of the party, and that unless the nomination were given to him practically unanimously he would not accept. Twothirds of the convention, it is said, would have voted for him against Colonel Vannort, but two-thirds were not enough to convince Mr. Clabaugh that he ought to make a contest. While several Republican leaders now express perfect satisfaction with the ticket |--were sincerely for Mr. Clabaugh do not Proclamation by the Governor. hesitate to express the opinion that there was bad faith somewhere."

THE DATE of the Democratic prima- teen of the Constitution of Maryland ries should escape no one. A full attendance at the polls is earnestly to be papers to be designated by him desired.
