The Fourth of July.

The following are the resolutions adopted by the regiment of New Orleans Guards:

Resolved, That it is of the highest importance that we shall keep in all their purity the traditions bequeathed to us by the fathers of American Independence, which are now shamefully desecrated by the North, whom history will stigmatize as she does great criminals.

Resolved, That for the sake of her own dignity, her policy, and her immense future destiny, which are to be the rallying standard of nations groaning under a despotism less barbarous than that inflicted on the South by Lincoln with such insolent severity—

Resolved, That having so well furnished her quota, Louisiana, on account of her position, her requirements, the dangers threatening her, the hatred of the foreign section,has a right to commemorate in a becoming manner the principles established and the future guarantees.

NEW ORLEANS PROVISION MARKET.

The market reports show that extra flour is selling at $9, superfine retailing at $6 50; corn 65 cents per bushel; Mess Pork $25 50 per barrel —stock on hand 14,180 barrels against 13, 822 last year. Bacon, shoulders, 11 cents; sides, 14 cents. Whisky, rectified, retailing at 37½a40 cents.

BISHOP PIERCE.—A correspondent of the Nashville Christian Advocate says:

At Sparta, Georgia, I heard Bishop Pierce make one of the most eloquent and thrilling addresses to a vast crowd of soldiers and people, on fast day after a sermon. He said. "Did I know a man here who would refuse to subscribe cotton or money to carry on this war of defense while it lasts, I would never shake his hand, nor darken his doors with my presence." The Bishop's only son just married, an accomplished Christian, has volunteered as a private, and the Bishop himself subscribes one half his crop to the confederacy.

The Columbus (Texas) Citizen says that Gen. Sam Houston is acting as a private in an organized company in Harris county.

AN arch young lady should be an archer, for she can bend her beau as she pleases.

An eloquent speaker is like a river —greatest at the mouth.

WONDERFUL REPORTS FROM WELL-KNOWN CITIZENS.

Piles and the Rheumatism.—Some remarkable cures are daily coming to light: Charles Sexton, Esq., ex-Mayor of the city of Camden, says the "Electric Oil" cured his Piles by six applications; also, Rheumatism. He says it is a very valuable remedy, and everybody ought to know it.

Neuralgia.—Mr. David Mann, 499 Vine street, says, De Grath & Co.'s "Electric Oil" cured him, and that he was a great sufferer.

Stiff Neck.—Mr. Mann's daughter was much afflicted with stiff and swollen neck, which this Oil cured immediately.

Bad Sprain.—Mr. A. D. Highfield, No. 12 Howard street, met with a serious accident, which laid him up, says: He tried everything, even the usual cold water shower without any benefit—used a single bottle of the oil, which cured him—also says it cured frosted feet.

Catarrh in the Breast.—Mr. Wardlow's little girl was cured. This is a very interesting case.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.

During the present week no less than six of our friends, who have been induced to try Prof. De Grath's Electric Oil for Rheumatism and Deafness, in consequence of having seen this preparation advertised in our columns, have called upon us to state the result of their experiments. These persons assure us that their Rheumatic pains have been entirely cured by a few applications of De Grath's "Electric Oil," and they recommend its use to all who are afflicted with any of the diseases which it is designed to cure.

It seems that Rheumatism, Deafness, Neuralgia, Swollen and Stiff Joints, and other complaints to which we are all subjects, have lost their terrors. Prof. De Grath's Electric Oil is warranted to relieve any case in a short space of time, and with a trifling expense. It always cures Scratches, Sprains, Galls and Splints on horses.

SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL for 1861.
SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL for 1861.
SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL for 1861.

THE coming year inaugurates the third volume of this favorite exponent of SOUTHERN literature. It is a source of no little gratification to us that in announcing the third volume of the JOURNAL, we are enabled to give the best possible reproof to the discouraging predictions of Northern publishers, as well as to the goomy forebodings of even hearty well-wishers in our own section of the country.—Yes, we are proud to say that the brilliant success of the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL has proved the existance of literary talent and enterprise in the SOUTH which fears no rivals:

The friends of SOUTHERN literature have often declared that, could they get a SOUTHERN paper which, in point of intrinsic merit and in price, could compete with Northern weeklies, they would cheerfully support it.—We offer this desideratum; we ask these promises to be redeemed. We ask a comparison with other papers of its class, and are satisfied that the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL will be found equal to the best. Arrangements have been made with the

BEST WRITERS OF THE SOUTH, and the Publishers have no hesitation in saying that the JOURNAL must become a WELCOME GUEST IN EVERY SOUTHERN HOME.

For the ensuing year we are enabled to report a host of new and interesting features, comprising among others

BRILLIANT ADDITIONS TO OUR STAFF OF CONTRIBUTORS;

an intensely interesting series of

DETECTIVE STORIES;

important and varied additions to our justly celebrated

BIOGRAPHICAL ESSAYS.

We also trust to have it in our power to announce, early in the Spring, the commencement of a series of

With this view we have entered into negotiations with a highly popular author to furnish us with a regular correspondence.

With the January number will commence a STORY of unprecedented power and beauty and thrilling interest, entitled

ARLINE ADAIR; OR,
Who's the Captain?
A Historical Romance of Frontier Life
BY CAPTAIN R. C. KENDALL.

Besides the varied entertainment offered in the foregoing summary, the SOUTHERN FAMILY JOURNAL will present, as heretofore, an unsurpassed collection of SHORT STORIES, (complete in one number.)
ADVENTURES, (by flood and field.)
ITEMS OF NEWS, (at home and abroad.)
GOSSIP, (about men and things.)
WIT & HUMOR, and POETRY.
We may also add
ANECDOTES IN NATURAL HISTORY.
FACTS FOR THE FARMER AND HOUSEKEEPER.
NEW INVENTIONS. In a word, a varied miscellany of instructive as well as entertaining matter,
