The breaths of kissing night and day Were mingled in the eastern heaven. Throbbing with unheard melody Shook Lyra all its star chord seven When dusk shrank cold, and light trod shy, And dawn's gray eyes were troubled gray, And souls went palely up the sky, And mine to Lucide.

There was no change in her sweet eyes

Wherein did ever come and go

The sparkle of the fountain drops

Her eyes were clear, her eyes were Hope's,

From her sweet soul below. The chambers in the hous of dreams Are fed with so divine: ir That Time's hoar wings grow young therein, And they who walk there are most fair. I joyed for one, I joyed for her, Who with the past meet girt about,

Where our last kiss still warms the air,

Nor can her eyes go out.
