indebted the said James Bryan departed this life on or about the fifth day of February, 1895, leaving a last will and testament devising his real estate to his wife, Nancy Ann Bryan for life, then to Emily James for life, leaving the remainder undisposed of, as per copy of said last will and testament filed with bill. That letters of administration with the will annexed have been granted by this

Court to Frank P. Covey, on his personal estate and that said personal estate is insufficient to pay his debts. That at the time of his death the said James Bryan was seized and possessed of a tract or parcel of land in the Eighth Election District of Caroline county near American Corners, containing twenty-five acres of land more or less. That the value of said land is less than $2500. That the heirs at law of said James Bryan are unknown to the plaintiff and that the said Nancy Ann Bryan wife of said testator did not survive her husband and that the said Emily James and Frank P. Covey are residents

It is therefore this 23 day of April, 1895, ordered by the Orphans' Court for Caroline county, sitting as a court of equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Caroline county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 27th day of May 1895, give notice to said unknown defendants of the object and substance of this bill, warning them to appear in this Court on or before the 12th day of
