$4.50. 96 Boys' Fine All Wool Long-Pants ATTENTION FISHERMEN!

THE Fishing Season of 1896 opens with bright prospects for the GOLDEN IRISH GILL THREAD, now tried and found to be all the thread the fishermen are looking for. It is cheaper than ever though the high standard of excellence is still maintained, and we unhesitatingly say, after the severe tests and trials it was put to during the season of 1895, that it is the best thread sold or offered for sale in this country—that is the universal comment of all who used it last season. Dealers on the Shore for other brands of thread fought it very hard; yet, notwithstanding the many intentional misrepresentations and base falsehood told about it, we sold this thread for river fishing from Greensboro to Cambridge, and after careful inquiry have yet to hear of the first objection to it, or of a failure it made. We will here state that we will match this thread against any brand made, except silk, for strength, tdurabilty, and fish-catching qualities, no matter at what cost. It is very important for us to get your orders for seines early. We ran out of thread last season and were obliged to refuse many orders, so order in good time and we will have same carefully knit and put away for you until wanted.
