The Democratic party of Caroline necessary fabric for women's county is to be congratulated upon the restoration of complete harmony in the ranks. The convention last Tuesday was substantial evidence of this fact. It is good that the memories of a wrangle last fall and the disastrous defeat be forgotten, and that a re-united party prepare to meet at the ballot-box the national Republican hosts, whose career and record are enough to drive every Democratic laggard back to the ranks from which he strayed.
