Preparations for Christmas

have been made this season on a greater scale than in any previous year. Our stocks are replete with Fancy Goods, Bric-a-Brac and the thousand and one things that go make up a { superb assortment of dainty and quaint conceits, as well as the more serviceable and substantial articles so desirable for Christmas gifts. In addition to the above, we place on sale a choice assortment of Books, under a capable manager of wide experience, and invite the attention of all book lovers to this department. The stock will comprise not only a large collection of volumes suitable for Christmas gifts, but standard works and books of reference suitable for libraries, as well. Any book not in stock will be promptly procured. Prices in all cases will be at the lowest. Mail orders will receive immediate attention. We also place on sale a choice assortment of Confectionery, manufactured for us by Mr. Louis Kimpel, late with Huyler's. The goods in purity and quality are of the best and prices are as low as the superior merit of the goods will permit. Mr. E. G. Whitman, long and favorably known in this line in Philadelphia, will be in charge of this counter. The largely increased space given to the departments of Bric-a-Brac, Cut Glass and Lamps in the basement, and the magnificent new counters devoted to the sale of } Leather Goods and Stationery, make the selection of holiday presents in our store a pleasure. The arrangements we have made for the holiday trade in every department cannot fail to meet with hearty approval. Never before have there been such assortments of the useful and beautiful at such remarkably low prices.
