My Sir

Portsmouth Oct 5th 1811

Your letter of the 29th ult. I received yesterday and shall send off the horses tomorrow there is among them a remarkable fine horse with a Roan [redacted], if he should be thought under size, I will gladly exchange an Excellent stout well made Draught horse for him, which I think would suit the stage much more service than the little horse, Mr Vaden has seen the horse and knows him & can describe his qualities — being very mischievous is the reason of my wishing to part with him — Off your Obedt and the Committee
