Corsets and Comfort.

When a woman has to remove her corset to rest, something is the matter with it. There is a pinching that makes forgetfulness impossible, and when I find a woman addicted to the habit of removing her stays when safely intrenched within her chamber I know her for a victim of fashion. She is much more common than you may know. I never understood how anybody could find life endurable when every day held a measure of torture, fully known and appreciated at its real value beforehand.
