credit aforesaid on Joshua Waddington.

To the 20th & 21st Inty. the Deponent cannot farther answer than he hath already answered to the 19th Inty. except that he does not believe that the said James Ray brought six Thousand Guineas or any other considerable sum in specie to this Country for the reasons assigned in the Deponents answer to the 11th Inty.

To the 22d. Interr. the Deponent saith that the said James Ray never informed the Deponent that he had formed a partnership with James Percy of any kind whatever.

To the 23d. Inty. The Deponent saith that the said James Ray never informed the Deponent that the profits of the sugar house or of any other business or his portion thereof were secured to be paid for his Wife or any words to that effect.

To the 24th. Inty. the Deponent saith that James Percy never informed the Deponent that he had formed a partnership of any kind whatever with the said James Ray.

To the 25th Inty. the deponent saith that he does not know James Percy nor his general character

To the 26th. the Deponent saith that he knows nought of the general character of James Ray for veracity morality and fair dealing except what he collects from the Deponents private dealings with the said James Ray and from those the Deponent believes his general character as to veracity morality and fair dealing to be very bad.

John C. Shaw

Jacob Tallman Now of the City of New York Grocer being sworn on the part of Complainants deposeth and saith.

To the 1st Interr. he saith he knows James Clay one of the Defendants in this cause and hath known him since about the month of December seventeen hundred and ninety five.

To the 2d. Interr. he saith that the said James Ray came to reside in Brunswick in the State of New Jersey about the month of December seventeen hundred and ninety five and the Deponent thinks he continued to reside there until June one Thousand seven hundred and ninety six the Deponent as Post Master of that town having accounts with the said James Ray until this latter period – The Deponent was post Master in the said town of Brunswick during the Years of seventeen hundred and ninety five and seventeen hundred and ninety six –

To the 3d. Interr. the Deponent saith that he cannot answer whether the said James Ray was or was not in Brunswick aforesaid on the 3. 4. 5. 6. & 7th days of May one Thousand seven hundred and ninety six or on any of said days but saith that on the 2d. 3. 4 & 5th days of May in the Year aforesaid letters arrived at the post Office in the said town of Brunswick directed to the said James Ray at that town.

To the 4th Interr. the Deponent saith he knows nothing and cannot say.

To the 5th Interr. the Deponent saith that the general character and reputation of the said James Ray as to veracity and fair dealing is very bad.

To the 6th Interr. the Deponent saith that