So let us all seek to be as zealous as Philip in bringing others blessed by many conversions, on a tour that led through a desert part of the country, as we may infer from verse 26, although some think the word "desert" town or place to another, which are not of the Lord. While on his way Philip met an eunuch of great authority (verse 27), who had charge of the treasures of the Queen of Ethiopia. Treasure houses were common in the East (Ezra v, 17; Esther iv, 7), where not only money but important documents were kept. This eunuch had been reading the Scriptures while sitting in his chariot (verse 28), namely, the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah, in which chapter is the prophecy of Je-The eunuch, or Ethiopian, was reading

In our Fire and Burglar-Proof Steel Vault we have Private

Safe Deposit Boxes for rent. We have also, in addition to our Steel Vault, the Only Underground Safety Vault in this locality, for the storage at a moderate charge of boxes or trunks containing valuables, such as family plate or other articles. This is a great convenience to anyone wishing to store such things, when at home they might not be safe.

Call and examine our vaults that you may be convinced of their security. Polite and obliging officials will wait on you.
