THE young man, whose taste runs to the swagger, and to the modishly extreme, ought to come here for his new Fall suitnot because we say so, but because the clothes we sell speak for themselves, and make an irresistible appeal to the young fellow. We show clothes specially designed for young men, not clothes cut down from men's patterns, but garments roomy and comfortable, athletic-looking at the shoulder and chest, and full of that dash and vim and verve, which is the heritage of youth.

Then, too, the HIGH ART label in the clothing we sell insures good wear and holding of the shape, as HIGH ART CLOTH-ING is tailored by hand in those essential parts upon the staying qualities of which depends the "hang" and "drape" of a garment.
