MELVIN & JOHNSON,

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 3, 1910

GREAT GATHERING JANUARY 17TH. The Baltimore Sun of Sunday says: The movement started by the Sun to bring to Baltimore the representative Democrats of the country, in and out of Congress, in a gathering that will present an opportunity to rejoice over the recent Democratic victory and to interchange views as to the future, was placed on a solid foundation yesterday when the committee in charge, headed by Governor Crothers, after a conference with Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democ, atic National Committee, and Champ Clark, of Missouri, who will probably be the Speaker of the next House of Representatives, adopted a form of invitation which will be sent to the leading Demoa national celebration of Democratic achievements with a distinctly Jackson Day flavor. The plans, indorsed by big massmeeting at the Lyric in the afternoon, at which speeches will be made by leading Democrats of the country, to be followed by a banquet which, it is believed by the Maryland Democrats who have taken the lead in the movement, will set a mark that will stand for a long time.

Here is the invitation: land propose holding a meeting in the city of Baltimore, where Andrew Jackson Ladies' Tailor=Made Suits was first nominated for the Presidency, Are now reduced in price and on January 17, 1911, at 10' clock p. m., are of splendid values.
